Architecture in an Age of Uncertainty Benjamin Flowers, 2016-04-15 In the past two decades economic bubbles inflated and architectural spending around the globe reached fever pitch In both well established centers of capital accumulation and far flung locales audacious building projects sprang up while the skyscraper heretofore more commonly associated with American capitalism seemed as if it might pack up and relocate to Dubai and Shanghai Of course much has changed in the past couple of years In formerly free spending Dubai the tallest building in the world is now is named after the president of Abu Dhabi after he stepped in with last minute debt financing In cities across the United States housing prices have nose dived and cleared lots sit ready for commercial redevelopment that likely won t take place for another decade Similar stories are not hard to find in many other nations Architecture firms that swelled in flush days are jettisoning employees at a startling rate In the context of economic instability and its attendant social and political consequences this edited volume brings together scholars critics and architects to discuss the present state of uncertainty in the practice and discipline of architecture The chapters are organized into three main areas of inquiry economics practice and technology Within this larger framework authors explore issues of security ecological design disaster architecture the future of architectural practice and the ethical obligations of the social practice of design In doing so it argues that this period has actually afforded architecture a valuable moment of self reflection where alternative directions for both the theory and practice of architecture might be explored rather than continuing with an approach which was so nurtured by capitalist prosperity and affluence

J. R. Davidson Lilian Pfaff, 2019-09-02 Julius Ralph Davidson is widely known as the architect of Thomas Mann s house Born 1889 in Berlin Davidson left Germany in 1923 and emigrated to the USA In Los Angeles he designed some 150 projects among them three houses for the experimental Case Study House Program This long overdue publication is a comprehensive documentation of Davidson s life and work highlighting J R s contribution to modernism in California in the 1930s and 1940s

Modern Schools T. Hille, 2012-01-20 Modern Schools A Century of Design for Education is a comprehensive survey of modern K 12 schools from Frank Lloyd Wright to Morphosis an in depth design study that explores the fundamental relationship between architecture education and the design of contemporary learning environments Its focus is on the underlying design themes and characteristic features that support and enhance basic aspects of learning and in the process create an architectural expression that is both meaningful and lasting The breadth of its scope includes influences of contemporary educational ideas and practices related design concepts and strategies and most importantly the resulting impact of both on real environments for learning This remarkable survey and project study the first of its kind is an essential and important sourcebook for architects school planners educators and anyone else interested in contemporary school design The body of work presented which is international in scope underscores the unique architectural potential of this important project type and highlights design themes that remain fundamentally relevant for architects and designers today Presentation material includes more than 900 contemporary and historical photographs mostly in color and more than 200 detailed architectural plans drawings of schools by many of the outstanding design architects of the modern era Modern Schools A Century of Design for Education features the work of more than 60 architects worldwide including twentieth century masters Frank Lloyd Wright Alvar Aalto Marcel Breuer Le Corbusier and Eliel and Eero Saarinen as well as contemporaries such as Morphosis Coop Himmel b lau Behnisch Partners and Patkau Architects among many others

Modernism in Design Paul Greenhalgh, 1997-07-01 Ten new and important essays on design cover Modernism's fortunes in Germany Italy Sweden Britain Spain Belgium and the USA they range in subject matter from world fairs and everyday domestic objects to American West coast architecture and French and Italian furniture With essays by Tim Benton Gillian Naylor Penny Sparke Wendy Kaplan Clive Wainwright Martin Gaughan Guy Julier Mimi Wilms Julian Holder and Paul Greenhalgh The object of this book is to diffuse myths If modernism has in the past been both absurdly praised and absurdly damned Modernism in Design seeks to lift it out of this cycle and to demonstrate that the modern movement could offer neither Jerusalem nor Babylon In this the book succeeds admirably Designer's Journal While this collection of essays is aimed primarily at design historians and students of design history hard pressed practising designers and architects should make room for it on their bookshelves Design The New Eco-Architecture: Alternatives from the Modern Movement Colin Porteous, 2013-10-11 The New Eco Architecture builds a historical bridge between architectural science and design It seeks to address neglected aspects of the Modern Movement as a prelude to supporting a diversity of architectural insight and experimentation aimed at twenty first century environmental needs and priorities The attitudes and influences of renowned figures are re examined in relation to current issues of architectural sustainability By setting today's green architectural quest within a twentieth century context and evaluating the main protagonists with regard to a modern eco sensitive lineage the book will be of primary interest to architectural students academics and practitioners However it should also intrigue historians theoreticians and critics who tend to gloss over such issues as well as other disciplines engaged with the built environment
