Youth Entrepreneurship Chris Ehiobuche,Chizoba Madueke,2017-02-10 The challenges and opportunities facing the Nigerian youths demand rethinking of new ways of doing things Youth unemployment and underemployment are at a record high More than ever the Nigerian youths are in dire need of finding other avenues to explore in pursuit of life endeavors Youth employment underemployment and unemployment are serious concerns for our society civilization and the nation Ehiobuche and Madueke took a different approach to discussing and presenting a practical approach to youth entrepreneurship from the notion of a shared responsibility for the change of mindset from falling into the victims theory dimensions to intelligent ventures and resilience Their model presents insight on how a paradigm shift among the youths and the society in general from job search to business development may well lead to entrepreneurs and self productive citizens The authors hope to inspire inform and encourage today's youths to become tomorrow's entrepreneurs leaders and good citizens Making the transition from seeking employment unemployment or underemployment to self employment entrepreneurship is the primary purpose of this book The topics include the following Conquering personal and cultural roadblocks to entrepreneurship Shifting mental and physical focus from employee to employer Avoiding common pitfalls in starting and running a sustainable small business Making the best out of being a youth The authors urge the Nigerian youths to avoid falling into a victim mentality and start their paradigm shift into the mindsets of entrepreneurs A Standardization of Selected Management Concepts Arthur G. Bedeian, 2018-04-17 Originally published in 1986 Since modern management's beginning at the turn of the twentieth century there have been pleas from management practitioners and academics alike to solidify the underlying foundation upon which it is based However until the field of management can boast of an all inclusive and unified body of management theory it will continue to remain without such a needed and desired framework Confusion controversy and disagreement are traditionally characteristic of a new and growing field of study The field of management is no exception A large extent of the basic controversy and confusion associated with management thought can be attributed to disagreement over concepts and terminology This absence of agreement and the resulting lack of standardization associated with it are the problems addressed by this study Its purpose has been to undertake a thorough analyses of selected management concepts in an effort to 1 clarify the meaning of these concepts by tracing their evolutionary development 2 initiate a standardization of the fundamental terminology and definitions used in the field of management 3 provide a beginning lexical soiree for additional future development and compilation of management terminology and 4 contribute to the first and perhaps most vital step in the process of creating a valid and universally accepted general theory of management Pioneers in Marketing D.G. Brian Jones, 2011-12-21 Pioneers in Marketing A Collection of Biographical Essays discusses eight historically important marketing scholars whose careers collectively spanned over 100 years An introductory chapter describes the role of biography in the study of marketing thought and introduces the eight subjects in this collection Subsequent chapters describe the lives of Edward David Jones Simon Litman Henry Charles Taylor Percival White George Burton Hotchkiss Theodore N Beckman David D Monieson and William R Davidson focusing on their intellectual and professional contributions to the marketing discipline The biographies are based on rare archival materials some personal interviews and analysis of the subjects major works The final chapter draws lessons from the collection for marketing students and teachers Several important discoveries are reported that suggest opportunities for further research These stories will inform and inspire students of marketing
