Revelation Ranch: Revelation Road

Mike Utterback, 2015-05-18 In my fictional memoir entitled Revelation Road my existence could end with two possible scenarios a hopeful reality defined by romantic love or a hopeless reality characterized by poverty and unregulated mental illness Poverty acts as an escape mechanism or a coping mechanism depending on person environment and social conditioning in my case it was a coping mechanism to confront reality During the formative years of my childhood development in the suburbs dysfunction pain and trauma molded me into an unhealthy adult with a manipulative personality who lacked self sufficiency and functionalism two components of a rational man existing in any environment My destructive personality was composed of two dysfunctional attributes a lack of trust and a defensive personality Writing became a form of therapy which helped me confront reality In Florida I embraced a rural reality at a family sanctuary which had healed me before

Ptoxocracy M. C. Lohrmann, 2025-05-20 The call of the church is ptoxocracy either as a witness and practitioner or as its ideal standard bearer in the world To have a meaningful stake in the lives of the poor argues M C Lohrmann would change the ways in which governance of all types national or local municipalities denominations religious judicatories and non profit boards determines its focus Lohrmann defines ptoxocracy derived from the Greek ptoxi the poorest of the poor as governance by the materially poor a hybrid form of representative democracy whereby only persons of the lowest economic status are eligible for elected public office This model he contends allows us to step back from the coupling of wealth and power created by myths of meritocracy and a rich ruling class to envision a system that works for the good of the whole Looking to Scripture Lohrmann follows the through line of God's blessing of the poor in both the Hebrew and Christian

Missional Church Daniel L. Guder, 1998-02-09 What would a theology of the Church look like that took seriously the fact that North America is now itself a mission field This question lies at the foundation of this volume written by an ecumenical team of six noted missiologists Lois Barrett Inagrace T Dietterich Darrell L Guder George R Hunsberger Alan J Roxburgh and Craig Van Gelder The result of a three year research project undertaken by The Gospel and Our Culture Network this book issues a firm challenge for the church to recover its missional call right here in North America while also offering the tools to help it do so The authors examine North America's secular culture and the church's loss of dominance in today's society They then present a biblically based theology that takes seriously the church's missional vocation and draw out the consequences of this theology for the structure and institutions of the church

The Logic of Incarnation Neal DeRoo, Brian Lightbody, 2009-01-01 With his Logic of Incarnation James K A Smith has provided a compelling critique of the universalizing tendencies in some strands of postmodern philosophy of religion A truly postmodern account of religion must take seriously the preference for particularity first evidenced in the Christian account of the incarnation of God Moving beyond the urge to universalize which characterizes modern thought Smith argues that it is only by taking seriously particular differences historical religious and doctrinal that we can be authentically religious and authentically postmodern Smith remains hugely influential in both academic discourse and church movements This book is the first organized attempt to bring both of these aspects of Smith's work into conversation with each other and with him With articles from an internationally respected group of philosophers theologians pastors and laypeople the entire range of Smith's considerable influence is represented here Discussing questions of embodiment eschatology inter religious dialogue dogma and difference this book opens all the most relevant issues in postmodern religious life to a unique and penetrating critique

Hope and Community Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2017 The culmination of Kärkkäinen's multivolume magnum opus This fifth and final volume of Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen's ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian eschatology and ecclesiology in dialogue with the Christian tradition with contemporary theology in all its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism In Part One of the book Kärkkäinen discusses eschatology in the contexts of world faiths and natural sciences including physical cosmological and neuroscientific theories In Part Two on ecclesiology he adopts a deeply ecumenical approach His proposal for greater Christian unity includes the various dimensions of the church's missional existence and a robust dialogical witness to other faith communities

Near and Distant Horizons John Herlihy, 2005-03

Near and Distant Horizons In Search of the Primary Sources of Knowledge With originality and insight the author makes a compelling case for the need to identify the sources of a traditional knowledge that still has the power to enrich people's lives in today's materialistic and anti spiritual world What are the true sources of knowledge Are there headwaters for the universal laws of nature Is there a source so transcendent that it can resolve the perennial mystery concerning the origin of life and the creation of man Is there a wellspring of knowledge that can neutralize the duality of the world by offering a unified vision of the Whole This work reflects upon the significance of three principal sources of knowledge in the Islamic Traditions They are Revelation as the expression of the supreme mind of God Nature as the universal body of God and Man as the human image of God The book's absorbing inquiry and reflective style throw light on the dark mysteries that still confront people today and will appeal to readers interested in an alternative to the theories of modern science taking them on an inward journey whose destination lies far beyond the horizon of our time John Herlihy an American Muslim was educated at Boston University and Columbia University in New York City He has written a number of books on traditional themes including Modern Man at the Crossroads and Borderlands of the Spirit He is the Director of an educational program at the Petroleum Institute a new engineering university in the United Arab Emirates Shield of Faith Bernard

Thorogood, 2016-02-05 This collection of essays brings together recent work by Bernard Thorogood on a variety of theological themes My Quiet Time is a monthly cycle of private prayer and readings From the Beginning offers interpretations for today from Genesis and Exodus Your Kingdom Come here and now reflects current longings for action that serves the prayer A short piece We Believe suggests how we need to rethink some of the phrases in the Nicene Creed The Always God looks at the Gospel event as revelation of what is always the reality In 25 Significant Events the author notes in a lighter vein the historical highlights in a long life and in My Top Fifty he tells us of his favourite books The Essence of Manifestation M.

Henry, 2012-12-06 This book was born of a refusal the refusal of the very philosophy from which it has sprung After the war when it had become apparent that the classical tradition and particularly neo Kantianism was breathing its last French thought looked to Germany for its inspiration and renewal Jean Hyppolite and Kojève reintroduced Hegel and the existentialists and phenomenologists drew the attention of a curious public to the fundamental investigations of Husserl and Heidegger If only by being understood as a phenomenological ontology this book speaks eloquently enough of the debt it owes to these thinkers of genius The conceptual material which it uses particularly in chapters 1 to 44 outlines the Husserlian and Heideggerian horizon of the investigations However it is precisely this horizon which is questioned In spite of its profundity and achievements I wanted to show that contemporary ontology pushes to the absolute the presuppositions and the limits of the philosophy of consciousness since Descartes and even of all Western philosophy since the Greeks An External critique viz the opposing of one thesis to another would have no sense whatever Rather it is interior to these presuppositions whose insufficiency had to be shown that we placed ourselves the very concepts which were rejected were also the ones which guided the problem initially
