Reversible Destiny Arakawa Gins We Have Decided Not To Die:

Reversible Destiny: Arakawa Gins: We Have Decided Not to Die Michael Govan, 1997 Beyond Sustainable Ryan Ludwig, 2020-12-21 Beyond Sustainable discusses the relationship between human beings and the constructed environments of habitation we create living in the Anthropocene an increasingly volatile and unpredictable landscape of certain change This volume accepts that human beings have reached a moment beyond climatological and ecological crisis It asks not how we resolve the crisis but rather how we can cope with or adapt to the irreversible changes in the earth system by rethinking how we choose to inhabit the world ecology Through an examination of numerous historical and contemporary projects of architecture and art as well as observations in philosophy ecology evolutionary biology genetics neurobiology and psychology this book reimagines architecture capable of influencing and impacting who we are how we live what we feel and even how we evolve Beyond Sustainable provides students and academics with a single comprehensive overview of this architectural reconceptualization which is grounded in an ecologically inclusive and co productive understanding of architecture

Gilles Deleuze: Image and Text Eugene W. Holland, Daniel W. Smith, Charles J. Stivale, 2009-08-04 An important collection of essays examining the intersections between Deleuzian philosophy and the arts The Routledge Companion to Paradigms of Performativity in Design and Architecture Mitra Kanaani, 2019-12-06 The Routledge Companion to Paradigms of Performativity in Design and Architecture focuses on a non linear multilateral ethical way of design thinking positioning the design process as a journey It expands on the multiple facets and paradigms of performative design thinking as an emerging trend in design methodology This edited collection explores the meaning of performativity by examining its relevance in conjunction with three fundamental principles firmness commodity and delight The scope and broader meaning of performativity performative architecture and performance based building design are discussed in terms of how they influence today s design thinking With contributions from 44 expert practitioners educators and researchers this volume engages theory history technology and the human aspects of performative design thinking and its implications for the future of design Architectural Theories of the Environment Ariane Lourie Harrison, 2013-03-05 As architects and designers we struggle to reconcile ever increasing environmental humanitarian and technological demands placed on our projects Our new geological era the Anthropocene marks humans as the largest environmental force on the planet and suggests that conventional anthropocentric approaches to design must accommodate a more complex understanding of the interrelationship between architecture and environment Here for the first time editor Ariane Lourie Harrison collects the essays of architects theorists and sustainable designers that together provide a framework for a posthuman understanding of the design environment An introductory essay defines the key terms concepts and precedents for a posthuman approach to architecture and nine fully illustrated case studies of buildings from around the globe demonstrate how issues raised in posthuman theory provide rich terrain for contemporary architecture making theory concrete By assembling a range of voices across different fields from urban geography to critical theory to design practitioners this anthology offers a resource for design professionals educators and students seeking to grapple the ecological mandate of our current period Case studies include work by Arakawa and Gins Arons en Gelauff Casagrande The Living Minifie van Schaik R Sie n SCAPE Studio Gang and xDesign Essayists include Gilles Clément Matthew Gandy Francesco Gonz les de Canales Elizabeth Grosz Simon Guy Seth Harrison N Katherine Hayles Ursula Heise Catherine Ingraham Bruno Latour William J Mitchell Matteo Pasquinelli Erik Swyngedouw Sarah Whatmore Jennifer Wolch Cary Wolfe and Albena Yaneva

The Funambulist Papers Léopold Lambert, 2013-10-23 This book is a collection of thirty five texts from the first series of guest writers essays written specifically for The Funambulist weblog from June 2011 to November 2012 The idea of complementing Lambert s own texts on his blog with those written by others originated from the idea that having friends communicate with each other about their work could help develop mutual interests and provide a platform to address an audience Thirty nine authors of twenty three nationalities were given the opportunity to write essays about a part of their work that might fit with the blog s editorial line Overall two families of texts emerged collected in two distinct parts in this volume The first part The Power of the Line explores the legal geographical and historical politics of various places of the world The second part Architectural Narratives approaches architecture in a mix of things that were once called philosophy literature and art This dichotomy represents the blog s editorial line and can be reconciled by the obsession of approaching architecture without care for the limits of a given discipline This method rather than adopting the contemporary architect s syndrome that consists in talking about everything but being an expert in nothing attempts to consider architecture as something embedded within geo political cultural social historical biological and dromological mechanisms that widely exceed what is traditionally understood as the limits of its expertise

Architectures of Poetry , 2021-09-06 Architectures of Poetry is the first comprehensive accounting of the currently intense dialogue between the sister arts of poetry and architecture Refusing to take either term in a metaphoric sense the eleven essays collected in this volume exemplify an exciting methodological direction for work in the humanities a literal wager that is willing to take the unintended suggestions of language as reality At the same time they also provide close readings of the work of a number of important writers In addition to a suite of essays devoted to the team of Arakawa and Madeline Gins chapters focus on figures as diverse as Francesco Borromini Rainer Maria Rilke St phane Mallarm Friedrich Achleitner John Cage and Lyn Hejinian

Chaste Cinematics Victor Vitanza, 2015 Victor J Vitanza author of Sexual Violence in Western Thought and Writing continues to rethink the problem of sexual violence in cinema and how rape is often represented in chaste ways in the form of a Chaste Cinematics Vitanza continues to discuss Chaste Cinematics as participating in transdisciplinary rhetorical traditions that establish the very foundations groundings points of stasis for nation states and cultures In this offering however the initial grounding for the discussions is base materialism George Bataille divine filth the sacred and profane It is this post philosophical base materialism that destabilizes binaries fixedness and brings forth excluded thirds Vitanza asks why is it that a repressed third or a third figure returns most strangely as a product of rape and torture He works with Jean Paul Sartre and Page duBois's suggestion that the product is a new species Always attempting unorthodox ways of approaching social problems Vitanza organizes his table of contents as a DVD menu of Extras supplements This menu includes Alternate Endings and Easter Eggs as well as an Excursus which invokes readers to take up the political exigency of the DVD Book Vitanza's first Extra studies a trio of films that need to be reconsidered given what they offer as insights into Chaste Cinematics Amadeus a mad god Henry Fool a foolish god and Multiple Maniacs a divine god who is raped and eats excrement The second examines Helke Sander's documentary Liberators Take Liberties which rethinks the rapes of German women by the Russians and Allies during the Battle of Berlin The third rethinks Margie Strosser's video film Rape Stories that calls for revenge In the Alternate Endings Vitanza rethinks the problem of reversibility in G No's Irrversible In the Easter Eggs he considers Dominique Laporte's the Irreparable as the object of loss and Giorgio Agamben's the Irreparable as hope in what is without remedy The result is not another film studies book but a new genre a new set of rhetorics for new ways of thinking about cinematics perhaps postcinematics Victor J Vitanza is Professor of English and Rhetorics and is the founding Director of the Ph D program in Rhetorics Communication and Information Design in the College of Architecture Art and Humanities at Clemson University He is also Professor of Rhetoric and Philosophy as well as the holder of the Jean Fran ois Lyotard Chair in the Media and Communication Division at the European Graduate School in Switzerland He is the Editor of PRE TEXT A Journal of Rhetorical Theory His books include Sexual Violence in Western Thought and Writing Chaste Rape Palgrave 2011 Negation Subjectivity and The History of Rhetoric SUNY 1997 Writing Histories of Rhetoric Southern Illinois 1993 and PRE TEXT A Retrospective Pittsburgh 1993

The Darkness of the Present Steve McCaffery, 2012-11-19 The Darkness of the Present includes essays that collectively investigate the roles of anomaly and anachronism as they work to unsettle commonplace notions of the contemporary in the field of poetics In the eleven essays of The Darkness of the Present poet and critic Steve McCaffery argues that by approaching the past and the present as unified entities the contemporary is made historical at the same time as the historical is made contemporary McCaffery's writings work against the urge to classify works by placing them in standard literary periods or disciplinary partitions Instead McCaffery offers a variety of insights into unusual and ingenious affiliations between poetic works that may have previously seemed distinctive He questions the usual associations of originality and precedence In the process he repositions many texts within genealogies separate from the ones to which they are traditionally assigned The chapters in The Darkness of the Present might seem to present an eclectic fa ade and can certainly be read independently They are linked however by a common preoccupation reflected in the title of the book the anomaly and the anachronism and the way their empirical emergence works to unsettle a steady notion of the contemporary or new
