Revue Alpine 19:

Geographers Hayden Lorimer, Charles W. J. Withers, 2013-09-12 This volume of Geographers Biobibliographical Studies brings together essays on four Frenchmen a Czech and three Englishmen The lives of our subjects extend from the late Enlightenment and the era of polite science in Regency Britain to the first decade of the 21st century These geographers and their studies are linked not only in their regional expertise from Brazil French Indo China to Scandinavia and South Africa but also by their commitment to the development of geography as a science and as a discipline Here in different settings and at different times we can see how the lived experience of geographers lives shaped the contours of the subject The Summits of Modern Man Peter H. Hansen, 2013-05-14 Mountaineering has served as a metaphor for civilization triumphant A fascinating study of the first ascents of the major Alpine peaks and Mt Everest The Summits of Modern Man reveals the significance of our encounters with the world's most forbidding heights and how difficult it is to imagine nature in terms other than conquest and domination The Alpine Journal, 1916 Alpine Refugees Giulia Galera, Ingrid Machold, Andrea Membretti, 2019-09-30 This collection of essays highlights how given Alpine territories in Austria Italy and Switzerland are currently facing challenges imposed by migration the barriers and limitations they are encountering and the extent to which migration triggers policy and territorial innovations that can generate beneficial impacts for both migrants and local inhabitants Contributors here include practitioners and social workers who have experimented with innovative reception and integration pathways as well as researchers with diverse disciplinary backgrounds including geographers sociologists political scientists social anthropologists economists and legal experts The book draws on empirical and theoretical investigations research actions implemented within the framework of large EU projects and exploratory case studies and storylines of welcoming reception initiatives It will appeal to practitioners social scientists and policy makers interested in both understanding the determinants that affect migrant exclusion and inclusion in Alpine territories and developing reception and integration initiatives of advantage to both sides when hosting asylum seekers in mountain areas
