Rewilding the Way Todd Wynward, 2015-09-01 Get a free chapter here When did we become so tame How has the good life come to mean addiction to screens and status fossil fuels and financial fitness Can we break free to become the joyful and prophetic people God calls us to be Trek along with wilderness guide Todd Wynward as he rewilds the Jesus Way Seek the feral foundations of Scripture and the lessons that the prophets and disciples gleaned from wilderness testing Packed with inspiring stories of how contemporary people and groups are caring for the land and each other Rewilding the Way issues a call to action Read about how reskilling and local food covenants are transforming churches and how place based activism and creative housing are nurturing communities Learn from those who are recovering from affluenza replacing visions of personal wealth with the commonwealth of the earth and restoring their humble place in the community of creation Do you despair about life on our changing planet Join the hopeful band of seekers of God and makers of change who are rewilding the Way Watch an interview with author Todd Wynward

Believers Lisa Wells, 2015-10-16 An essential document of our time Charles D Ambrosio author of Loitering In search of answers and action the award winning poet and essayist Lisa Wells brings us Believers introducing trailblazers and outliers from across the globe who have found radically new ways to live and reconnect to the Earth in the face of climate change We find ourselves at the end of the world How then shall we live Like most of us Lisa Wells has spent years overwhelmed by increasingly urgent news of climate change on an apocalyptic scale She did not need to be convinced of the stakes but she could not find practical answers She embarked on a pilgrimage seeking wisdom and paths to action from outliers and visionaries pragmatists and iconoclasts Believers tracks through the lives of these people who are dedicated to repairing the earth and seemingly undaunted by the task ahead Wells meets an itinerant gardener and misanthrope leading a group of nomadic activists in rewilding the American desert She finds a group of environmentalist Christians practicing watershed discipleship in New Mexico and another group in Philadelphia turning the tools of violence into tools of farming guns into ploughshares She watches the world's greatest tracker teach others how to read a trail and visits botanists who are restoring land overrun by invasive species and destructive humans She talks with survivors of catastrophic wildfires in California as they try to rebuild in ways that acknowledge the fires will come again Through empathic critical portraits Wells shows that these trailblazers are not so far beyond the rest of us They have had the same realization have accepted that we are living through a global catastrophe but are trying to answer the next question How do you make a life at the end of the world Through this miraculous commingling of acceptance and activism this focus on seeing clearly and moving forward Wells is able to take the devastating news facing us all every day and inject a possibility of real hope Believers demands transformation It will change how you think about your own actions about how you can still make an impact and about how we might yet reckon with our inheritance unKingdom, Second Edition Mark Van Steenwyk, 2020-02-21 In unKingdom Mark Van Steenwyk takes a hard look at the ways Christianity has become complicit in imperialism and genocide particularly in North America With a blend of humility wit and sharp critique he proposes a prophetic way forward through practices of revolutionary repentance Organizing Spirit Jamie Pitts,2025-06-12

Contemporary theologians tend to associate the Holy Spirit with the formation of local communities social movements and fluid relational networks and not with institutions such as denominations or global church bodies In this work Jamie Pitts argues that this pneumatological sociological picture misses important aspects of the Spirit s work Pitts draws on a wide range of theological and theoretical resources to depict the Spirit as organizing the complex dynamic and relationally entangled structures that constitute creation Human organizing that seeks to participate in the Spirit can take a variety of analogous structural forms including formal organizations or institutions Organizational participation in the Spirit is not a function of an organization s scale mobility or relative informality but rather of its practical orientation toward the Spirit s goals of life solidarity healing and inclusive justice A series of case studies clarifies and extends the implications of the argument in connection to organizing for environmental gender sexual and racial justice In the final chapter Pitts addresses the role of a political theology of the organizing Spirit in imagining organizational alternatives to the global neoliberal order
