Rhetorical Perspectives On Argumentation Selected Essays By David Zarefsky Argumentation Library:

Rhetorical Perspectives on Argumentation David Zarefsky, 2014-04-01 This book contains 20 essays tracing the work of David Zarefsky a leading North American scholar of argumentation from a rhetorical perspective The essays cohere around 4 general themes objectives for studying argumentation rhetorically approaches to rhetorical study of argumentation patterns and schemes of rhetorical argumentation and case studies illustrating the potential of studying argumentation rhetorically These articles are drawn from across Zarefsky's 45 year career Many of these articles originally appeared in publications that are difficult to access today and this collection brings the reader up to date on the topic Zarefsky's scholarship focuses on the role of language in political argumentation the ways in which argumentation creates public knowledge and belief the influence of framing and context on what is said and understood the deployment of particular patterns and schemes of argumentation in public reasoning and the influence of debate on politics and governance All these topics are addressed in this book Each of the conceptual essays includes brief application to specific cases and five extended case studies are also presented in this volume The case studies cover different themes two explore famous political debates the third focuses on presidential rhetoric across the course of United States history the fourth on the arguments for liberalism at a time of political polarization and the fifth on the contemporary effort to engage the United States with the Muslim world This book is of interest to scholars in the fields of philosophy logic law philosophy of law and legal history The range of topics and concepts addressed the interplay of concepts and cases and the unifying perspective of rhetorical argumentation make this book a valuable read for students of argumentative practice whether rhetorically or otherwise The Language of Argumentation Ronny Boogaart, Henrike Jansen, Maarten van Leeuwen, 2021-01-20 Bringing together scholars from a broad range of theoretical perspectives The Language of Argumentation offers a unique overview of research at the crossroads of linguistics and theories of argumentation In addition to theoretical and methodological reflections by leading scholars in their fields the book contains studies of the relationship between language and argumentation from two different viewpoints While some chapters take a specific argumentative move as their point of departure and investigate the ways in which it is linguistically manifested in discourse other chapters start off from a linguistic construction trying to determine its argumentative function and rhetorical potential The Language of Argumentation documents the currently prominent research on stylistic aspects of argumentation and illustrates how the study of argumentation benefits from insights from linguistic models ranging from theoretical pragmatics politeness theory and metaphor studies to models of discourse coherence and construction grammar Computational Models of Argument Chris Reed, Matthias Thimm, Tjitze Rienstra, 2024-09-15 This book presents the proceedings of COMMA 2024 the 10th biennial International Conference on Computational Models of Argument held from 18 to 20 September 2024 in Hagen Germany The COMMA conference series provides a dedicated forum for the presentation and discussion of the latest advancements in this interdisciplinary field covering basic research systems and innovative applications and nurturing the steady growth of interest in computational argumentation research worldwide A total of 63 submissions was received for the conference and after a thorough review process 26 were accepted as full papers with a further 12 accepted as demos accompanied by an extended abstract and 2 as full papers with accompanying demo resulting in an acceptance rate of 53% for full papers and 63% for papers and demo abstracts combined In addition to these 40 papers extended abstracts of the 3 invited talks are also included here Semantics in Argumentation Classifications and Challenges by Leila Amgoud Expanding the Scope of Bayesian Argumentation by Ulrike Hahn and The Long Road to Trustworthy Natural Language Argumentation by Serena Villata The book provides a fascinating overview of current research and innovations and will be of interest to all those working in the field

Hermeneutics and Criticism Richard Boulton,24-10-18 Hermeneutics and criticism explores the status of ideals in contemporary society It demonstrates how ideals have become less meaningful over time and questions the role of critical theory in their decline To unpick the relationship between hermeneutics ideals and criticism the book reengages the traditional methods of dialectic and rhetoric It challenges the claims of recent critical theory such as the ontological turn and new materialism realism that reality can be speculated upon aside from ideals The author argues that speculation on reality without ideals becomes self fulfilling the more that conceptions of reality are detached from ideals the more disaffirming those understandings of reality become Critical reengagement with ideals is imperative to give consequence to the meaning of ethics morality and discussions of what society and humanity should resemble The hermeneutic method that the book employs revitalises ideals without regressing to idealism verses realism The book reconceptualises contrast as a means to reinstate the consequences of ideals without distortion It s a vital read for those daring to challenge the status quo of critical theory whilst incorporating their relevance to the philosophy of communication

Fringe Rhetorics Karen Schroeder Sorensen,2022-01-04 Fringe Rhetorics Conspiracy Theories and the Paranormal identifies the rhetorical similarities of conspiracy theories and paranormal accounts by delving into rhetorical psychosocial and political science research Identifying something as fringe indicates its proximal placement within accepted norms of contemporary society Both conspiracy theories and paranormal accounts dwell on these fringes and use surprisingly similar persuasive techniques Using elements of the Aristotelian canon as well as Steve Oswald s strengthening and weakening strategies this book establishes a pattern for the analysis of fringe rhetorics It also applies this pattern through rhetorical analyses of several documentaries and provides suggestions for countering fringe arguments

A Feeling of Wrongness Joseph Packer,Ethan Stoneman,2018-11-01 In A Feeling of Wrongness Joseph Packer and Ethan Stoneman confront the rhetorical challenge inherent in the concept of pessimism by analyzing how it is represented in an eclectic range of texts on the fringes of popular culture from adult animated cartoons to speculative fiction Packer and Stoneman explore how narratives such as True Detective Rick and Morty Final Fantasy VII Lovecraftian weird fiction and the pop ideology of transhumanism are better suited to communicate pessimistic affect to their fans than most carefully argued philosophical treatises and polemics They show how these popular nondiscursive texts successfully circumvent the typical defenses against pessimism identified by Peter Wessel Zapffe as distraction isolation anchoring and sublimation They twist genres upend common tropes and disturb conventional narrative structures in a way that catches their audience off guard resulting in belief without cognition a more rhetorically effective form of pessimism than philosophical pessimism While philosophers and polemicists argue for pessimism in accord with the inherently optimistic structures of expressive thought or rhetoric Packer and Stoneman show how popular texts are able to communicate their pessimism in ways that are paradoxically freed from the restrictive tools of optimism A Feeling of Wrongness thus presents uncharted rhetorical possibilities for narrative making visible the rhetorical efficacy of alternate ways and means of persuasion

Approaches to Multimodality, 2024-06-11 This volume transcends boundaries captivating multimodality scholars worldwide while offering invaluable non Anglo perspectives through its main focus on Lithuanian public discourse Discover the interaction between multimodal communication and sub cultural influences in political advertising and film discourse This volume is a vade mecum for scholars and students of visual and multimodal stylistics rhetoric and creativity across diverse media professionals specialising in advertisements commercials films etc Discover original insights that encourage intercultural comparative research emphasising the role of cultural context in multimodality

Local Theories of Argument Dale Hamble, 2021-03-25 Argumentation is often understood as a coherent set of Western theories birthed in Athens and developing throughout the Roman period the Middle Ages the Enlightenment and Renaissance and into the present century Ideas have been nuanced developed and revised but still the outline of argumentation theory has been recognizable for centuries or so it has seemed to Western scholars The 2019 Alta Conference on Argumentation co sponsored by the National Communication Association and the American Forensic Association aimed to question the generality of these intellectual traditions This resulting collection of essays deals with the possibility of having local theories of argument local to a particular time a particular kind of issue a particular place or a particular culture Many of the papers argue for reconsidering basic ideas about arguing to represent the uniqueness of some moment or location of discourse Other scholars are more comfortable with the Western traditions and find them congenial to the analysis of arguments that originate in discernibly distinct circumstances The papers represent different methodologies cover the experiences of different nations at different times examine varying sorts of argumentative events speeches court decisions food choices and sound explore particular personal identities and the issues highlighted by them and have different overall orientations to doing argumentation scholarship Considered together the essays do not generate one simple conclusion but they stimulate reflection about the particularity or generality of the experience of arguing and therefore the scope of our theories

No Future in This Country Andre E. Johnson, 2020-10-21 Winner of the 2021 Book of the Year Award from the Religious Communication Association Winner of the 2021 Top Book Award from the National Communication Association s African American Communication and Culture Division Black Caucus No Future in This Country The Prophetic Pessimism of Bishop Henry McNeal Turner is a history of the career of Bishop Henry McNeal Turner 1834 1915 specifically focusing on his work from 1896 to 1915 Drawing on the copious amount of material from Turner s speeches editorial and open and private letters Andre E Johnson tells a story of how Turner provided rhetorical leadership during a period in which America defaulted on many of the rights and privileges gained for African Americans during Reconstruction Unlike many of his contemporaries during this period Turner did not opt to proclaim an optimistic view of race relations Instead Johnson argues that Turner adopted a prophetic persona of a pessimistic prophet who not only spoke truth to power but in so doing also challenged and pushed African Americans to believe in themselves At this time in his life Turner had no confidence in American institutions or that the American people would live up to the promises outlined in their sacred documents While he argued that emigration was the only way for African Americans to retain their personhood status he also would come to believe that African Americans would never emigrate to Africa He argued that many African Americans were so oppressed and so stripped of agency because they were surrounded by continued negative assessments of their personhood that belief in emigration was not possible Turner s position limited his rhetorical options but by adopting a pessimistic prophetic voice that bore witness to the atrocities African Americans faced Turner found space for his oratory which reflected itself within the lament tradition of prophecy

Beyond Civility William Keith, Robert Danisch, 2020-07-06 From the pundits to the polls nearly everyone seems to agree that US politics have rarely been more fractious and calls for a return to civil discourse abound Yet it is also true that the requirements of polite discourse effectively silence those who are not in power gaming the system against the disenfranchised What then should a democracy do This book makes a case for understanding civility in a different light Examining the history of the concept and its basis in communication and political theory William Keith and Robert Danisch present a clear robust analysis of civil discourse Distinguishing it from politeness they claim that civil argument must be redirected from the goal of political comity to that of building and maintaining relationships of minimal respect in the public sphere They also take into account how civility enables discrimination indicating conditions under which uncivil resistance is called for When viewed as a communication practice for uniting people with differences and making them more equal civility is transformed from a preferable way of speaking into an essential component of democratic life Guarding against uncritical endorsement of civility as well as skepticism Keith and Danisch show with rigor nuance and care that the practice of civil communication is both paradoxical and sorely needed Beyond Civility is necessary reading for our times
