Facing Black Star Thierry Gervais,Vincent Lavoie,2023-06-13 The Black Star Collection at The Image Centre the expectations

challenges and results of a decade of research in a key photo agency's print collection. In 2005 Toronto Metropolitan University (formerly Ryerson University) TMU acquired the massive collection Black Star Collection of the photo agency previously based in New York City, nearly 292,000 black and white prints. Preserved at The Image Centre at TMU, the images include iconic stills of the American Civil Rights movement by Charles Moore among thousands of ordinary photographs that were classified by theme in the agency's picture library. While the move of the collection from a corporate photo agency to a public cultural institution enables more access, researchers must still face the size of the collection, its structural organization, the materiality of the prints, and the lack of ephemera. Facing Black Star aims to fruitfully highlight this tension between research expectations and challenges. Coeditors Thierry Gervais and Vincent Lavoie have gathered local, national, and international researchers ranging from graduate students to established scholars and curators to illuminate the staggering range of the collection, from its disquieting record of the Nazis' rise to power to its visual archive of climate change. Each contribution highlights methodological, epistemological, and political issues inherent to conducting research in photographic archives and collections, such as indexing protocols and their impact on research, the photographic archive as a place of visibility and invisibility, and the photographic archive as a hermeneutic tool. Shedding new light on current issues in the theory and history of photography, this impressive volume, containing 100 images, will not only discuss the subjects portrayed in the photographs but will also address the history of photojournalism, the role of such a photographic archive in our Western societies, and ultimately photography as a medium. Like the other volumes of the RIC Books series, MIT Press, The Image Centre, formerly the Ryerson Image Centre, this publication will appeal as much to academics of visual history as it will to photography enthusiasts in general.

Remaking Reality Sara Blair, Joseph B. Entin, Franny Nudelman, 2018-03-15. After World War II, U.S. documentarians engaged in a rigorous rethinking of established documentary practices and histories. Responding to the tumultuous transformations of the postwar era, the atomic age, the civil rights movement, the Vietnam War, the emergence of the environmental movement, immigration and refugee crises, student activism, the globalization of labor, and the financial collapse of 2008, documentary makers increasingly reconceived reality as the site of social conflict and saw their work as instrumental to struggles for justice. Examining a wide range of forms and media, including sound recording, narrative journalism, drawing, photography, film, and video, this book is a daring interdisciplinary study of documentary culture and practice from 1945 to the present. Essays by leading scholars across disciplines collectively explore the activist impulse of documentarians who not only record reality but also challenge their audiences to take part in reality's remaking. In addition to the editors, the volume's contributors include Michael Mark Cohen, Grace Elizabeth Hale, Matthew Frye Jacobson, Jonathan Kahana, Leigh Raiford, Rebecca M. Schreiber, Noah Tsika, Laura Wexler, and Daniel Worden.

Killing for Show Julian Stallabrass, 2020-10-30. See firsthand how war photography is used to sway public opinion. In the autumn of 2014, the Royal Air Force released a blurry video of a missile blowing up a pickup truck, which may have had a weapon attached to its flatbed.

This was a lethal form of gesture politics to send a 9 million bomber from Cyprus to Iraq and back burning 35 000 an hour in fuel to launch a smart missile costing 100 000 to destroy a truck or rather to create a video that shows it being destroyed Some lives are ended it is impossible to tell whose so that the government can pretend that it taking effective action by creating a high budget snuff movie This is killing for show Since the Vietnam War the way we see conflict through film photographs and pixels has had a powerful impact on the political fortunes of the campaign and the way that war has been conducted In this fully illustrated and passionately argued account of war imagery Julian Stallabrass tells the story of post war conflict how it was recorded and remembered through its iconic photography The relationship between war and photograph is constantly in transition forming new perspectives provoking new challenges what is allowed to be seen Does an image have the power to change political opinion How are images used to wage war Stallabrass shows how photographs have become a vital weapon in the modern war as propaganda from close quarters fighting to the drone s electronic vision as well as a witness to the barbarity of events such as the My Lai massacre the violent suppression of insurgent Fallujah or the atrocities in Abu Ghraib Through these accounts Stallabrass maps a comprehensive theoretical re evaluation of the relationship between war politics and visual culture Killing for Show offers 190 photographs encompassing photojournalism artists images photographs by soldiers and amateurs and dronesA comprehensive comparison of the role of photography in the Vietnam and Iraq WarsAn explanation of the waning power of iconic images in collective memoryAn analysis of the failure of military PR and the public display of killingA focus on what can and cannot be seen photographed and publishedAn exploration of the power and limits of amateur photographyArguments about how violent images act on democracy This full color book is an essential volume in the history of warfare and photography Good Pictures Kim Beil,2020-06-23 A picture rich field guide to American photography from daguerreotype to digital We are all photographers now with camera phones in hand and social media accounts at the ready And we know which pictures we like But what makes a good picture And how could anyone think those old styles were actually good Soft focus yearbook photos from the 80s are now hopelessly and happily outdated as are the low angle portraits fashionable in the 1940s or the blank stares of the 1840s From portraits to products landscapes to food pics Good Pictures proves that the history of photography is a history of changing styles In a series of short engaging essays Kim Beil uncovers the origins of fifty photographic trends and investigates their original appeal their decline and sometimes their reuse by later generations of photographers Drawing on a wealth of visual material from vintage how to manuals to magazine articles for working photographers this full color book illustrates the evolution of trends with hundreds of pictures made by amateurs artists and commercial photographers alike Whether for selfies or sepia tones the rules for good pictures are always shifting reflecting new ways of thinking about ourselves and our place in the visual world Washington, D.C., Film and Television Tracey Gold Bennett,2014 For generations movies and television have been sources of entertainment that have shaped the country s consciousness Washington DC Film and Television chronicles popular and obscure films and television programs that feature Washington DC Sharing the sites neighborhoods institutions and monuments that filmmakers used as their settings this exciting title takes readers behind the scenes of classic movies including Mr Smith Goes to Washington Houseboat and The Exorcist Familiar television programs that transmitted local news and information are featured alongside photographs of some of Hollywood s greatest stars With the nation s capital as a backdrop the landscape architecture and history of Washington have always and will continue to make it an aesthetically exciting and authentic locale for the many story lines of Hollywood

Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Richard Avedon Portraits Of Power : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Richard Avedon Portraits Of Power : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Richard Avedon Portraits Of Power : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
