Museums in Postcolonial Europe Dominic Thomas, 2013-09-13 The history of European nation building and identity formation is inextricably connected with museums and the role they play in displaying the acquired spoils and glorious symbols of geopolitical power in order to mobilize public support for expansionist ventures This book examines the contemporary debate surrounding the museum in postcolonial Europe Although there is no consensus on the European colonial experience the process of decolonization in Europe has involved an examination of the museum's place and ethnic minorities and immigrants have insisted upon improved representation in the genealogies of European nation states Museological practices have been subjected to greater scrutiny in light of these political and social transformations In addition to the refurbishment and restructuring of colonial era museums new spaces have also been inaugurated to highlight the contemporary importance of museums in postcolonial Europe as well as the significance of incorporating the perspective of postcolonial European populations into these spaces This book includes contributions from leading experts in their fields and represents a comparative trans historical and transcolonial examination which contextualises and reinterprets to the legacies and experiences of European museums This book was published as a special issue of Africa and Black Diaspora An International Journal

Palgrave Handbook of Research in Historical Culture and Education Mario Carretero, Stefan Berger, Maria Grever, 2017-03-07 This volume comprises a broad interdisciplinary examination of the many different approaches by which contemporary scholars record our history The editors provide a comprehensive overview through thirty eight chapters divided into four parts a Historical Culture and Public Uses of History b The Appeal of the Nation in History Education of Postcolonial Societies c Reflections on History Learning and Teaching d Educational Resources Curricula Textbooks and New Media This unique text integrates contributions of researchers from history education collective memory museum studies heritage social and cognitive psychology and other social sciences stimulating an interdisciplinary dialogue Contributors come from various countries of Northern and Southern America Europe and Asia providing an international perspective that does justice to the complexity of this field of study The Palgrave Handbook of Research in Historical Culture and Education provides state of the art research focussing on how citizens and societies make sense of the past through different ways of representing it

Museum Practice Conal McCarthy, 2020-11-19 MUSEUM PRACTICE Edited by CONAL MCCARTHY Museum Practice covers the professional work carried out in museums and art galleries of all types including the core functions of management collections exhibitions and programs Some forms of museum practice are familiar to visitors yet within these diverse and complex institutions many practices are hidden from view such as creating marketing campaigns curating and designing exhibitions developing fundraising and sponsorship plans crafting mission statements handling repatriation claims dealing with digital media and more Focused on what actually occurs in everyday museum work this volume offers contributions from experienced professionals and academics that cover a wide range of subjects including policy frameworks ethical guidelines approaches to conservation collection care and management exhibition development and public programs From internal processes such as leadership governance and strategic planning to public facing roles in interpretation visitor research and community engagement and learning each essential component of contemporary museum practice is thoroughly discussed Where the Past meets the Future Leah Cheung Ah Li,2019 Xi an the former Chang an home to the terracotta army and capital to 13 dynasties of Chinese emperors experienced World Heritage fame in 1987 when the Mausoleum of the First Qin Emperor was listed In 2014 five more heritage sites in Xi an were listed as part of the Silk Roads World Heritage nomination The ancient capital represents glorious moments of Chinese history and local citizens are proud of Xi an s archaeological and historical status However the modern cityscape is as much shaped by high rises as by historical buildings and heritage policies intersect with demands for urbanization modernization and economic growth This book seeks to understand how modernity history and heritage are reconciled in this city where the past meets the future

Contact in Context Sandhya Patel,2014-08-11 Contact between cultures has been understood in various ways and this particular volume considers the European cultural social scientific philosophical and political contexts framing encounter All of the essays thus look at the different ways in which individuals and institutions work these contexts into their representations of contact settings In Part 1 the conventional stance is adopted where encounter is understood as taking place elsewhere and not on European soil The chapters examine contact far afield and focus on how public and private contexts act upon ensuing interpretations and representations of inter cultural interaction Part 2 considers contact within positing inversed sites of encounter The essays point to the arrival of these discovered peoples on European soil as the eras of exploration ushered in periods of settlement and extended colonisation The paradigm of contact between Europeans and Others and Other spaces was thus displaced both figuratively and literally Amongst the conduits for such representations were the mid nineteenth and early twentieth century European exhibitions or fairs The studies here suggest that these encounters were also engineered by domestic contexts which gradually enclosed interaction within further restrictive conceptual frameworks not on islands and beaches but in European towns and cities The Imagery of Interior Spaces

Michael J. Kelly,Dominique Bauer,2019 On the unstable boundaries between interior and exterior private and public and always in some way relating to a beyond the imagery of interior space in literature reveals itself as an often disruptive code of subjectivity and of modernity The wide variety of interior spaces elicited in literature from the odd room over the womb secluded parks and train compartments to the city as a world under a cloth reveal a common defining feature these interiors can all be analyzed as codes of a paradoxical both assertive and fragile subjectivity in its own unique time and history They function as subtexts that define subjectivity time and history as profoundly ambiguous realities on interchangeable existential socio political and epistemological levels This volume addresses the imagery of interior spaces in a number of iconic and also lesser known yet significant authors of European North American and Latin American literature of the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries Djuna Barnes Edmond de Goncourt William Faulkner Gabriel Garc a M rquez Benito P rez Gald s

Elsa Morante Robert Musil Jules Romain Peter Waterhouse and mile Zola
