Public Speaking And Civic Engagement 2nd Edition:

The Routledge Handbook of Public Speaking Research and Theory Stevie M. Munz, Tim McKenna-Buchanan, Anna M. Wright, 2024-04-18 Providing a comprehensive survey of the empirical research theory and history of public speaking this handbook fills a crucial gap in public speaking pedagogy resources and provides a foundation for future research and pedagogical development Bringing together contributions from both up and coming and senior scholars in the field this book offers a thorough examination of public speaking guided by research across six key themes the history of public speaking the foundations of public speaking issues of diversity equity and inclusion considerations of public speaking across contexts assessment of public speaking and the future of public speaking in the twenty first century The evidence based chapters engage with a broad discussion of public speaking through a variety of viewpoints to demonstrate how subtopics are connected and fraught with complexity Contributors explore public speaking in education business and professional settings and political contexts and outline how skills learned through public speaking are applicable to interpersonal small group and business interactions Reinforcing the relevance importance and significance of public speaking in individual interpersonal social and cultural communication contexts this accessibly written handbook will be an indispensable resource for public speaking instructors and program administrators It will also be valuable reading for Communication Pedagogy and Introduction to Graduate Studies courses

Media Education for a Digital Generation Julie Frechette, Rob Williams, 2015-10-14 Media education for digital citizenship is predicated upon the ability to access analyze evaluate and produce media content and communication in a variety of forms While many media literacy approaches overemphasize the end goal of accessing digital media content through the acquisition of various technology software apps and analytics this book argues that the goals for comprehensive and critical digital literacy require grasping the means through which communication is created deployed used and shared regardless of which tools or platforms are used for meaning making and social interaction Drawing upon the intersecting matrices of digital literacy and media literacy the volume provides a framework for developing critical digital literacies by exploring the necessary skills and competencies for engaging students as citizens of the digital world

Essentials of Public Service, Second Edition Mary E. Guy, Todd L. Ely, 2022-02-01 Essentials of Public Service is the most accessible student friendly introductory Public Administration text on the market The book prepares students for careers in today s public service whether in government or nonprofits Each chapter teaches the public service context essential public service skills and what it takes to do the job whether managing or providing direct service

Teaching First-Year Communication Courses Pat J. Gehrke, 2018-07-26 In this book eleven teacher scholars of communication provide a robust study of the challenges and opportunities facing those who teach first year communication courses The first half of the volume offers paradigmatic analyses including a survey of the ecology of the first year course a plea to integrate our first year courses into our research agendas a study of the gap between scholarship and pedagogy within rhetoric a proposal for seven core competencies to unify the various first year communication courses and an argument for a critical communication paradigm The second half details innovations in classroom practice such as the teaching techniques of social justice pedagogues team based learning as a model for the public speaking course response and feedback techniques in teaching public speaking at the University of Copenhagen teaching online speech as a new course focused on the unique challenges of digital communication and the role of oral interpretation and performance classes in the first year curriculum Finally this volume concludes with the editor's manifesto for teaching public speaking

Macropsychology Malcolm MacLachlan, Joanne McVeigh, 2021-03-29 This volume argues for the development of a macro perspective within psychology that more effectively incorporates social structures systems policies and institutions The book emphasizes how social structures and systems can ultimately promote or erode psychological wellbeing Macropsychology is concerned with understanding up or how we can influence the settings and conditions of the society in which we live Psychology has traditionally been more interested in understanding down that is with the behaviour of individuals and groups in inter psychic and intra psychic and in neurological and biological processes This volume argues that psychology can more effectively contribute at the macro or societal level by addressing grand challenges and global goals using big data and intervening at the population level Bringing together social organizational cultural and health psychology research the book demonstrates a broad range of areas benefitting from a macropsychology perspective particularly areas integral to the realization of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Contributors address the value of macropsychological perspectives in addressing sub topics such as Mental health Personality traits and social structure Disability rights Food systems Humanitarian work psychology Macropsychology A Population Science for Sustainable Development Goals aims to recognise and give impetus to a neglected perspective within psychology and to inspire a paradigm widening within the field of psychology facilitating greater involvement with social justice and human rights Purpose, Practice, and Pedagogy in Rhetorical Criticism Jim A. Kuypers, 2014-02-07 This edited volume fills a void in the literature concerning the purpose practice and pedagogy associated with performing rhetorical criticism Literature regarding these issues predominantly purpose exists primarily as scattered journal articles and as sections within chapters of textbooks on rhetorical criticism This book brings together 15 established rhetorical critics each of whom offers well thought out and argued opinion pieces that stress the more personal nature of criticism The purpose of this book is to serve as a disciplinary resource and as a teaching and learning aid Accessibility across areas of expertise and experience is stressed in this book Critics range from junior faculty to emeritus and represent a broad spectrum of views on criticism In this sense the book offers a snapshot of the views of a wide swath of successfully practicing contemporary rhetorical critics Speech and Debate as Civic Education J. Michael Hogan, Jessica A. Kurr, Michael J. Bergmaier, Jeremy D. Johnson, 2017-11-08 In an era increasingly marked by polarized and unproductive political debates this volume makes the case for a renewed emphasis on teaching speech and debate both in and outside of the classroom Speech and debate education leads students to better understand their First Amendment rights and the power of speaking It teaches them to work together collaboratively to solve problems and it encourages critical thinking reasoned and fact based argumentation and respect for differing viewpoints in our increasingly diverse and global society Highlighting the need for more emphasis on the ethics and skills of democratic deliberation the contributors to this volume leading scholars teachers and coaches in speech and debate programs around the country offer new ideas for reinvigorating curricular and co curricular speech and debate by recovering and reinventing their historical mission as civic education Combining historical case studies theoretical reflections and reports on programs that utilize rhetorical pedagogies to educate for citizenship Speech and Debate as Civic Education is a first of its kind collection of the best ideas for reinventing and revitalizing the civic mission of speech and debate for a new generation of students In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Jenn Anderson Michael D Bartanen Ann Crigler Sara A Mehlretter Drury David A Frank G Thomas Goodnight Ronald Walter Greene Taylor W Hahn Darrin Hicks Edward A Hinck Jin Huang Una Kimokeo Goes Rebecca A Kuehl Lorand Laskai Tim Lewis Robert S Littlefield Allan D Loudon Paul E Mabrey III Jamie McKown Gordon R Mitchell Catherine H Palczewski Angela G Ray Robert C Rowland Minhee Son Sarah Stone Watt Melissa Maxcy Wade David Weeks Carly S Woods and David Zarefsky
