Tax Incentives for the Creative Industries Sigrid Hemels, Kazuko Goto, 2017-01-04 This book combines insights from cultural economics public finance and tax law providing an accessible and comprehensive introduction in the application of tax incentives for the creative industries It does not have a single country focus but instead uses the perspective and examples of various countries around the world The book starts with a theoretical part introducing the concepts of creative industries and of tax incentives how can the creative industries be defined why do governments support the creative industries and how can tax incentives be applied as policy instrument In the globalized and digitalized world in which the creative industries operate restrictions imposed by guidelines on harmful tax competition and state aid and regulations influencing the im possibility of applying tax incentives in cross border situations have a great impact For that reason these legal concepts are discussed as well in the theoretical part Globalization also gives rise to questions on the cross border application of tax incentives The example of cross border giving is discussed in this respect The theoretical part is followed by a part that focuses on tax incentives for specific sectors of the creative industries museums and cultural heritage the audiovisual industries film tv and videogames the art market copyright and artists This part uses insightful examples from various countries to illustrate the application of these tax incentives As the book takes both an academic and a practical approach it is of relevance to researchers students policy makers and readers involved in the creative industry who seek an in depth and up to date overview of this alternative way for governments to support the creative industries

Taxation in the Digital Economy Nella Hendriyetty,Chris Evans,Chul Ju Kim,Farhad Taghizadeh-Hesary,2022-07-11 A robust and efficient tax administration in a modern tax system requires effective tax policies and legislation Policy frameworks should cover all aspects of tax administration and include the essential processes of capturing processing analyzing and responding to information provided by taxpayers and others concerning taxpayers affairs By far the greatest challenges facing tax administrations in all countries are those posed by the continuing developments in the digital economy Whereas societies are grappling to come to terms with the transitions from the third industrial or digital revolutions revenue authorities grapple with the consequences for the sustainability of their tax bases and the efficient administration and collection of taxes This book presents a critical review of the status of tax systems in Asia and the Pacific in the era of the digital economy The book suggests how countries can maximize their domestic resource mobilization when confronted by the challenges that digitalization inevitably produces as well as how they can best harness or take advantage of aspects of digitalization to serve their own needs The full implications of the COVID 19 crisis are still too uncertain to predict but it is clear that the crisis will accelerate the trend towards digitalization and also increase pressures on public finances This in turn may shape the preference for and the nature of both multilateral and unilateral responses to the tax challenges posed by digitalization and the need to address them This book will be a timely reference for those researching on taxation in digital economy and for policy makers The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license
