Rethinking The Mediterranean

Hamish Williams, Ross Clare

Rethinking The Mediterranean:

Rethinking the Mediterranean William Vernon Harris, 2005 This text examines the ancient and medieval history of the Mediterranean Sea and the lands around it Provided by publisher American Mediterraneans Susan Gillman, 2022-05-20 The story of the American Mediterranean both an idea and a shorthand popularized by geographers historians novelists and travel writers from the early nineteenth century to the 1970s The naturalist Alexander von Humboldt visiting the Gulf Caribbean in the early nineteenth century called it America's Mediterranean Almost a century later Southern California was hailed as Our Mediterranean Our Italy Although American Mediterranean is not a household phrase in the United States today it once circulated widely in French Spanish and English as a term of art and folk idiom In this book Susan Gillman asks what cultural work is done by this kind of unsystematic open ended comparative thinking American Mediterraneans tracks two centuries of this geohistorical concept from Humboldt in the early 1800s to writers of the 1890s reflecting on the Pacific world of the California coast to writers of the 1930s and 40s speculating on the political past and future of the Caribbean Following the term through its travels across disciplines and borders American Mediterraneans reveals a little known racialized history one that paradoxically appealed to a range of race neutral ideas and ideals Special Issue: Rethinking the Mediterranean ed. by Simon Holdermann, Christoph Lange, Michaela Schäuble and Martin Zillinger Simon

Holdermann, Christoph Lange, Michaela Schäuble, Martin Zillinger, 2021 The Byzantines Averil Cameron, 2009-11-09 Winner of the 2006 John D Criticos Prize This book introduces the reader to the complex history ethnicity and identity of the Byzantines This volume brings Byzantium often misconstrued as a vanished successor to the classical world to the forefront of European history Deconstructs stereotypes surrounding Byzantium Beautifully illustrated with photographs and maps

European Regions and Boundaries Diana Mishkova, Balázs Trencsényi, 2017-07-01 It is difficult to speak about Europe today without reference to its constitutive regions supra national geographical designations such as Scandinavia Eastern Europe and the Balkans Such formulations are so ubiquitous that they are frequently treated as empirical realities rather than a series of shifting overlapping and historically constructed concepts This volume is the first to provide a synthetic account of these concepts and the historical and intellectual contexts in which they emerged Bringing together prominent international scholars from across multiple disciplines it systematically and comprehensively explores how such meso regions have been conceptualized throughout modern European history Law and Religion in the Eastern Mediterranean Anselm C. Hagedorn, Reinhard G. Kratz, 2013-10 This volume addresses the similarities and differences in the role played by law and religion in various societies across the Eastern Mediterranean Approaching these subjects in an all encompassing manner it also looks at the notion of law and religion in this region as a whole in both the geographical as well as the historical space

New Global Realism Gabriele Lazzari, 2024-08-22 A comparative study of contemporary realist novels that employ totality as a method and a formal principle to represent the social and economic inequalities of the present this book examines writing in English Italian Kannada and Spanish by authors from Zimbabwe Ghana Italy India and Mexico By theorizing four modalities of totalization employed by contemporary realist writers this book explores the current resurgence of realism and challenges critical approaches that consider it naive or formally unsophisticated Instead it argues that realist novels offer a self conscious and serious representation of the world we inhabit while actively envisioning new social designs and political configurations Through comparative studies of novels by Fernanda Melchor NoViolet Bulawayo Vivek Shanbhag Nicola Lagioia Igiaba Scego Yaa Gyasi and Roberto Bola o this book further explains why realism can be a powerful antidote to the skepticism about the possibility of making truth claims in humanist research

The Ancient Sea Hamish Williams, Ross Clare, 2022-11-17 In the ancient Mediterranean world the sea was an essential domain for trade cultural exchange communication exploration and colonisation In tandem with the lived reality of this maritime space a parallel experience of the sea emerged in narrative representations from ancient Greece and Rome of the sea as a cultural imaginary This imaginary seems often to oscillate between two extremes the utopian and the catastrophic such representations can be found in narratives from ancient history philosophy society and literature as well as in their post classical receptions Utopia can be found in some imaginary island paradise far away and across the distant sea the sea can hold an unknown mysterious divine wealth below its surface and the sea itself as a powerful watery body can hold a liberating potential The utopian quality of the sea and seafaring can become a powerful metaphor for articulating political notions of the ideal state or for expressing an individual s sense of hope and subjectivity Yet the catastrophic sea balances any perfective imaginings the sea threatens coastal inhabitants with floods tsunamis and earthquakes and sailors with storms and the accompanying monsters From symbolic perspectives the catastrophic sea represents violence instability the savage and even cosmological chaos The twelve papers in this volume explore the themes of utopia and catastrophe in the liminal environment of the sea through the lens of history philosophy literature and classical reception Contributors Manuel lvarez Mart Aguilar Vilius Bartninkas Aaron L Beek Ross Clare Gabriele Cornelli Isaia Crosson Ryan Denson Rhiannon Easterbrook Emilia Mataix Ferr ndiz Georgia L Irby Simona Martorana Guy Middleton Hamish Williams

Britain's Levantine Empire, 1914-1923 Daniel-Joseph MacArthur-Seal, 2021-07-29 Britain s Levantine Empire 1914 1923 explains the rise and decline and nature and extent of British military rule in the urban eastern Mediterranean during the course of the First World War and its aftermath Combining novel case studies and theoretical approaches the volume reveals the extent of military control that Britain established and anticipated maintaining in the post Ottoman world before a series of confrontations with nationalist and socialist anti imperialists forced a new division of the eastern Mediterranean still visible in the political borders of the present day Britain s Levantine Empire 1914 1923 tells this story through the eyes and ears of the British servicemen who built this empire analysing the testimony of over 100 such military personnel sent to Alexandria Thessaloniki Istanbul and the towns and islands between them as they voyaged made camp and explored and patrolled the city streets Whereas histories examining soldiers experiences in the First World War have almost exclusively focused on their lives at the frontlines this study provides a much needed in depth history of soldiers experience and impact on the urban hubs of the Eastern Mediterranean where urban planning nightlife and entertainment policing and security were transformed by the presence of so many men at arms and the imperialist interventions that accompanied them Contact and Exchange in Later Medieval Europe Hannah Skoda, Patrick Lantschner, R. L. J. Shaw, 2012 The complexity of the interplay and relationships over various borders in medieval Europe is here fully teased out The processes by which ideas objects texts and political thought and experience moved across boundaries in the Middle Ages form the focus of this book which also seeks to reassess the nature of the boundaries themselves it thus appropriately reflects a major theme of Dr Malcolm Vale s work which the essays collected here honour They suggest ways of breaking down established historiographical paradigms of Europe as a set of distinct polities achieving a more nuanced picture in which people and objects were constantly moving and challenging previous conceptions of units and borders The first section examines the construction of boundaries and units in the later Middle Ages via topics ranging from linguistic units to social stratifications and geographically from the Netherlands and Scotland to Gascony and the Iberian peninsula it reveals how much the relationship between exchange and boundaries was reciprocal The second section considers the mechanisms by which it took place from West Africa to Italy and Flanders and discusses the actual exchange of people texts and unusual artefacts Overall the essays bear witness to the constant interplay and interconnections throughout medieval Europe and beyond Contributors Paul Booth Maria João Violante Branco Rita Costa Gomes Mario Damen Jan Dumolyn Jean Dunbabin Jean Philippe Genet Michael Jones Maurice Keen Frédéric Lachaud Patrick Lantschner Guilhem Pin R L J Shaw Hannah Skoda Erik Spindler John Watts
