Rewriting How To Do Things With Texts:

Rewriting Joseph Harris, 2006-07-15 What are the moves that an academic writer makes How does writing as an intellectual change the way we work from sources In Rewriting a textbook for the undergraduate classroom Joseph Harris draws the college writing student away from static ideas of thesis support and structure and toward a more mature and dynamic understanding Harris wants college writers to think of intellectual writing as an adaptive and social activity and he offers them a clear set of strategies a set of moves for participating in it Rewriting Joseph Harris, 2017-08-01 Like all writers intellectuals need to say something new and say it well But for intellectuals unlike many other writers what we have to say is bound up with the books we are reading and the ideas of the people we are talking with What are the moves that an academic writer makes How does writing as an intellectual change the way we work from sources In Rewriting Joseph Harris draws the college writing student away from static ideas of thesis support and structure and toward a more mature and dynamic understanding Harris wants college writers to think of intellectual writing as an adaptive and social activity and he offers them a clear set of strategies a set of moves for participating in it The second edition introduces remixing as an additional signature move and is updated with new attention to digital writing which both extends and rethinks the ideas of earlier chapters Writing Changes: Alphabetic Text and Multimodal Composition Pegeen Reichert Powell, 2020-04-01 Writing Changes moves beyond restrictive thinking about composition to examine writing as a material and social practice rich with contradictions It analyzes the assumed dichotomy between writing and multimodal composition which incorporates sounds images and gestures as well as the truism that all texts are multimodal Organized in four sections the essays explore alphabetic text and multimodal composition in writing studies specific pedagogies that place writing in productive conversation with multimodal forms current representations of writing and multimodality in textbooks of instructors attitudes toward social media and of writing programs ideas about writing studies as a discipline in the light of new communication practices Bookending the essays are an introduction that frames the collection and establishes key terms and concepts and an epilogue that both sums up and complicates the ideas in the essays A Multidisciplinary Exploration into Flow in Writing Deborah F. Rossen-Knill, Katherine L. Schaefer, Matthew W. Bayne, Whitney Gegg-Harrison, Dev Crasta, Alessandra DiMauro, 2024-04-05 Offering a multidisciplinary exploration of flow and the often nebulous ways it is conceptualized and operationalized in writing pedagogy this book addresses a critical gap in writing studies Bringing together practice based and scholarly perceptions it outlines the key features and definitions of flow and identifies pedagogical approaches and opportunities for classroom instruction Incorporating perspectives from disciplines including classical rhetoric composition studies cognitive science and linguistics this book provides a diverse overview of the literature on flow in writing pedagogy It includes two instructional voice based and rhetorical grammar based activities that outline how to recognize and improve flow in writing In doing so the book also provides clear examples of how to create an inclusive writing pedagogy that incorporates sensory and analytical perspectives to help readers and writers experience flow and meet their writing goals As an exploration of flow instruction as it currently stands and might stand in the future this book will be of interest to students and instructors in the field of academic professional and creative writing studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Writing and Reading Connections Zoi A. Philippakos, Steve Graham, 2022-10-13 Writing skills are essential for success in the 21st century school and workplace but most classrooms devote far more time to reading instruction with writing often addressed in isolation or excluded In this insightful professional development resource and text leading researchers discuss why and how to integrate writing and reading instruction in grades K-12 and beyond Contributors explore how to harness writing-reading connections to support learning in such areas as phonics and spelling vocabulary understanding genre and text structure and self-regulated strategy development as well as across content areas and disciplines Special considerations in teaching emergent bilingual students and struggling literacy learners are described User-friendly features include guiding questions classroom examples and action questions that help teachers translate the research and concepts into practice
