Richard Wentworth Richard Wentworth, Tate Gallery, 1984 Richard Wentworth, 1984 Richard Wentworth Elizabeth Manchester, Tom Saunders, 2015 Making Do and Getting By investigates the process of perception and communication how we see what we see what we do with what we see how we name what we think we have seen who we share it with and who is speaking to whom Beyond this it documents an excess a creativity beyond necessary functionality something transformative that lurks below the surface intention in acts of ordering and repair In this ongoing series of photographs taken on his daily trajectories celebrated British artist Richard Wentworth frames with a light and witty touch the art of the human hand This unique artist's book features an interview with Richard Wentworth by curator Hans Ulrich Obrist Found Sculpture and Photography from Surrealism to Contemporary Art Julia Kelly, 2017-07-05 Taking its departure point from the 1933 surrealist photographs of involuntary sculptures by Brassa and Dal Found Sculpture and Photography from Surrealism to Contemporary Art offers fresh perspectives on the sculptural object by relating it to both surrealist concerns with chance and the crucial role of photography in framing the everyday This collection of essays questions the nature of sculptural practice looking to forms of production and reproduction that blur the boundaries between things that are made and things that are found One of the book's central themes is the interplay of presence and absence in sculpture as it is highlighted disrupted or multiplied through photography's indexical nature The essays examine the surrealist three dimensional object its relation to and transformation through photographs as well as the enduring legacies of such concerns for the artwork's materiality and temporality in performance and conceptual practices from the 1960s through the present Found Sculpture and Photography sheds new light on the shifts in status of the art object challenging the specificity of visual practices pursuing a radical interrogation of agency in modern and contemporary practices and exploring the boundaries between art and everyday life Richard Wentworth's Thinking Aloud Richard Wentworth, Nick Groom, 1998 Artist Richard Wentworth is well known for his acute observation of our man made environment and for sculptures which deftly transpose the meanings of everyday objects Thinking Aloud is an imaginative cross disciplinary exploration of visual creativity challenging narrow thematic categories and canons of experience It brings together the tentative first thoughts of artists designers architects and inventors preliminary sketches moulds models maps and prototypes with an eclectic selection of objects from other spheres Artists include Francis Alys Bernd and Hilla Becher Brassaï Patrick Caulfield Walker Evans Frank Gehry Gilbert and George Tim Head Mariele Neudecker Julian Opie and Rachael Whiteread back cover Keep Walking Intently Lori Waxman, 2023-09-26 A study of walking as artistic action from Surrealism to Fluxus Walking that most basic of human actions was transformed in the twentieth century by Surrealism the Situationist International and Fluxus into a tactic for revolutionizing everyday life Each group chose locations in the urban landscape as sites from the flea markets and bars of Paris to the sidewalks of New York and ambulation as the essential gesture Keep Walking Intently traces the
