Privilege Agency And Affect Understanding The Production And Effects Of Action:

Privilege, Agency and Affect C. Maxwell, P. Aggleton, 2013-10-22 Drawing on a range of theoretical perspectives and engaging with new empirical evidence from around the world this collection examines how privilege agency and affect are linked and where possibilities for social change might lie Privilege, Agency and Affect Claire Maxwell, Peter Aggleton, 2013-11-08 The concept of agency has long been drawn upon overtly or implicitly in contemporary social theory However theory shapes how human agency and its determinants are understood and can be built upon The last few years have seen growing interest in notions of privilege and affect How might these newer concepts affect our understanding of agency Does human agency need to make new modes of sociability possible and how does privilege constrain or facilitate possibilities for social change Privilege Agency and Affect seeks to answer some of these questions showcasing recent work by UK North American Australasian and Scandinavian writers at the cutting edge of sociology social theory and education Strongly empirical as well as theoretical in the approach taken it offers a timely extension of foundations laid in early 21st century social theory and debate Distinction, Exclusivity and Whiteness Pere Ayling, 2019-02-19 This book offers unique insights into elite Nigerian parents engagement with and use of the international secondary education market as they attempt to retain their social standing via their children under today's shifting global conditions Throughout the book tackles two important albeit uncomfortable questions Why does whiteness hold the highest possible value in postcolonial societies such as Nigeria And more importantly why do black people accept the hegemonic discourse that West white is best Combining the theoretical frameworks of Pierre Bourdieu and Frantz Fanon the book reveals Whiteness as a highly valuable form of cultural and symbolic capital that plays a crucial role in the formation of and struggle for elite status and distinction in modern day Nigeria Drawing on rare qualitative data sets along with postcolonial literatures the book reveals how British whiteness is used by those working at and for British private schools in Nigeria BPS NIG as an informal but powerful mechanism of quality control and in constructing the image of world class educational establishments Negotiating Privilege and Identity in Educational Contexts Adam Howard, Brianne Wheeler, Aimee Polimeno, 2014-06-05 Recent efforts emphasize the roles that privilege and elite education play in shaping affluent youths identities Despite various backgrounds the common qualities shared among the eight adolescents showcased in this book lead them to form particular understandings of self others and the world around them that serve as means for them to negotiate their privilege These self understandings are crucial for them to feel more at ease with being privileged foster a positive sense of self and reduce the negative feelings associated with their advantages thus managing expectations for future success Offering an intimate and comprehensive view of affluent adolescents inner lives and understandings Negotiating Privilege and Identity in Educational Contexts explores these qualities and provides an important alternative perspective on privilege and how privilege works The case studies in this volume explore different settings and lived experiences of eight privileged adolescents who influenced by various sources actively construct and cultivate their own privilege Their stories address a wide range of issues relevant to the study of adolescence and the various social class factors that mediate adolescents educational experiences and identities

Elite Education Claire Maxwell, Peter Aggleton, 2015-10-05 Elite Education International Perspectives is the first book to systematically examine elite education in different parts of the world Authors provide a historical analysis of the emergence of national elite education systems and consider how recent policy and economic developments are changing the configuration of elite trajectories and the social groups benefiting from these Through country level case studies this book offers readers an in depth account of elite education systems in the Anglophone world in Europe and in the emerging financial centres of Africa Asia and Latin America A series of commentaries highlight commonalities and differences between elite education systems and offer insights into broader theoretical issues with which educationalists researchers and policy makers are engaging With authors including Stephen J Ball Donald Broady Rub n Gaztambide Fern ndez Heinz Hermann Kr ger Maria Alice Nogueira Julia Resnik and Agn s van Zanten the book offers a benchmark perspective on issues frequently glossed over in comparative education including the processes by which powerful groups retain privilege and elite status in rapidly changing societies Elite Education International Perspectives will appeal to policy makers and academics in the fields of education and sociology Simultaneously it will be of special relevance to post graduates enrolled on courses in the sociology of education education policy and education and international development Elite Schools in Globalising Circumstances Jane Kenway, Cameron McCarthy, 2017-10-02 Elite Schools in Globalizing Circumstances foregrounds the richly theoretical and empirically based work of an international cast of scholars seeking to break out of the confines of the methodological nationalism that now governs so much of contemporary scholarship on schooling Based on a 5 year extended global ethnography of elite schools in nine different countries countries defined by colonial pasts linked to England the contributors make a powerful case for the rethinking of elite schools and elite class formation theory in light of contemporary processes of globalization and transnational change Prestigious high status schools have long been seen as critical institutional vehicles directly contributing to the societal processes of elite selection and reproduction This book asserts that much has changed and that these schools can no longer rest on their past laurels and accomplishments Instead they must recast their heritages and tradition in order to navigate the new globally competitive educational field enabling them to succeed in a world in which the globalization of educational markets the global ambitions and imaginations of school youth and the emergence of new powerful players peddling entrepreneurial models of curriculum and education have placed contemporary schooling under tremendous pressure This insightful and though provoking volume provides a well researched perspective on the nature of contemporary schooling in the globalizing era This book was originally published as a special issue of Globalisation Societies and Education Methodologies in Critical Terrorism Studies Alice E. Finden, Carlos Yebra López, Tarela Ike, Ugo Gaudino, Samwel Oando, 2024-01-04 This interdisciplinary book presents an intervention into methodological practices in the subfield of Critical Terrorism Studies and features established and early career scholars The volume interrogates the role that research methods play in shaping the sub discipline of Critical Terrorism Studies CTS It responds to two major methodological gaps within CTS 1 the dearth of Global South cases and voices and decolonial and feminist approaches and 2 the lack of engagement with traditional disciplines and quantitative methods Together authors demonstrate that interdisciplinary methodological dialogues can open up new possibilities for researchers seeking pathways towards and definitions of emancipation social justice and freedom from violence Simultaneously the book shows that by focusing on the possibilities that methodologies open up to us and by maintaining a commitment to reflexive practice we expand our understandings of what are legitimate and acceptable forms of research thus challenging the Critical Terrorism Studies divide The chapters draw upon a wide range of empirical cases including Nigeria Kenya France Brazil and the UK focusing on three key issues within Critical Terrorism Studies its own relationship with and perpetuation of epistemic violence decolonial postcolonial Global South feminist and queer approaches and more traditional approaches and methods as a means to interrogate the methodological binary between Critical Terrorism Studies and Terrorism Studies This book will be of much interest to students of critical terrorism studies counter terrorism security studies and International Relations in general

Language, Gender and Parenthood Online Jai Mackenzie, 2018-08-06 Language Gender and Parenthood Online explores the digital interactions of parents on the UK based internet discussion forum Mumsnet Talk a space dominated by users sharing a common identification as women parents and mothers Using a qualitative approach grounded in feminist poststructuralist theory Jai Mackenzie uncovers common sense assumptions about gender and parenthood explores the construction of gender and parenthood in digital contexts and how discourses of gendered parenthood are negotiated resisted and subverted This is key reading for students scholars and researchers in the field of language and gender as well as language and digital communication

A Feminist Manifesto for Education Miriam E. David, 2017-05-23 The idea that gender equality in education has been achieved is now a staple of public debate As a result educational policies and practices often do not deal explicitly with gender issues such as sexual abuse harassment or violence Exaggeration of neoliberalism's successes in creating individual opportunity in education conceals ongoing problems and ignores the continuing need for a fair and equal education for all regardless of gender or sexuality In this manifesto for education Miriam David rejects the notion that gender equality has been achieved in our age of neoliberalism She puts the focus back onto issues such as changing patterns of women's and girls participation in education across the globe feminist strategies for policy and legal interventions around human rights and violence against women and children She discusses waves of feminism linked to school teaching and pedagogies in higher education as well as an illuminating case study of an international educational programme to challenge gender related violence Revealing neoliberal education to be misogyny masquerading as metrics Miriam David argues for changes in the patriarchal rules of the game including questioning gender norms and stereotypical binaries and for making personal social health and sexuality education mainstream Interrogating Belonging for Young People in Schools Christine Halse, 2018-06-05 In an era when many young people feel marginalized and excluded this is the first comprehensive critical account to shed new light on the trouble of belonging and how young people in schools understand enact and experience belonging and non belonging It traverses diverse dimensions of identity including gender and sexuality race class nation and citizenship and place and space Each section includes a provocative discussion by an eminent and international youth scholar of youth and is essential reading for anyone involved with young people and schools This book is a crucial resource and reference for sociology of education courses at all levels as well as courses in student inclusion equity and student well being
