Problems Of Regional Autonomy In Contemporary Indonesia:

Problems of Regional Autonomy in Contemporary Indonesia John David Legge, 1957 Problems of Regional Autonomy in Contemporary Indonesia John D. Legge, 2009 This volume is based in part upon observations made during a six months visit to Indonesia between August 1956 and January 1957 After an initial period of five weeks spent in the Autonomy and Decentralization Division Ministry of Internal Affairs visits were made to three provinces East Java Central Sumatra and Sulawesi where through the courtesy of local officials facilities were provided for the study of the local government system at all levels While it is necessary to draw attention to these geographical limitations of the enquiry the three provinces were deliberately selected as samples with a view to enabling the study of varied and contrasting situations and the observations made in the paper are couched in general terms a further qualification must be made The visits to Central Sumatra and Sulawesi were concluded before the changes of government in those provinces in December 1956 and March 1957 The comments referring specifically to the situations in these provinces have therefore been outstripped by events It may be assumed however that the more permanent problems of local government planning will remain and it has been thought desirable to describe the situations in the two areas as they were observed except that some reference to subsequent changes is made in the concluding section of the paper About Cornell Modern Indonesian Project Interim Reports This title was originally published as an Interim Report in the Cornell Modern Indonesia Project CMIP series organized by the Cornell Southeast Asia Program CMIP's first Interim Report appeared in 1956 during an era when little scholarship on Indonesia was available and those studies that did appear often lagged far behind the actual events taking place in the country George Kahin director of CMIP at the time explained in his foreword to the first Interim Report that these books were intended to address this lack of timely scholarship and encourage lively critical exchanges among researchers and readers Therefore as he explained the Interim Reports would be explicitly tentative and provisional in character We believe that an understanding of this historical context is key to a full appreciation of these contributions to the study of Indonesia in the twentieth century

Problems of Regional Autonomy in Contemporary Indonesia John David Legge, 2012-04-01 Decentralization in Indonesia as a Political Problem Gerald S. Maryanov, 2009 Originally published Ithaca Cornell Southeast Asia Program Publications 1958 Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict in Indonesia Jacques Bertrand, 2004 Since 1998 which marked the end of the thirty three year New Order regime under President Suharto there has been a dramatic increase in ethnic conflict and violence in Indonesia In his innovative and persuasive account Jacques Bertrand argues that conflicts in Maluku Kalimantan Aceh Papua and East Timur were a result of the New Order's narrow and constraining reinterpretation of Indonesia's national model The author shows how at the end of the 1990s this national model came under intense pressure at the prospect of institutional transformation a reconfiguration of ethnic relations and an increase in the role of Islam in Indonesia's political institutions It was within the context of these challenges that the very definition of the Indonesian nation and what it meant to be Indonesian came under scrutiny The book sheds light on the roots of religious and ethnic conflict at a turning point in Indonesia's history Autonomy and Disintegration in Indonesia Harry Aveling, Damien

Kingsbury, 2014-05-22 Fragmentation in Indonesia is by far the most critical issue now facing the state This book analyses social unrest autonomy and separatism in the wake of the Indonesian economic crisis placing them in the context of state evolution and looking at the competing aims of economic and political globalization with local agendas Topics covered include Indonesian nationalism in historical perspective identity and the nation state NGO activism and case studies from Aceh Papua East Timor and Sumatra Indonesian Law 1949-1989 Pompe, 2023-09-20 This work is unique since it is the first comprehensive bibliography on Indonesian Law listing materials in various languages including Russian Japanese and Chinese The bibliography is divided into various fields of law and each chapter starts with an introduction on the related field The growing economic importance of Indonesia and the increasing trade relations with this country call for an instrument on how to find the law in Indonesia This bibliography will fill this gap as it includes all material on Indonesian law in a non Indonesian language which has been published since 1949 Memoirs of the Four-Foot Colonel Smith Dun, 2018-05-31 The

Commander in Chief of the Burmese Army nicknamed the four foot Colonel offers an account of his nation's struggle for independence from a unique perspective General Dun describes his background his early life and training in England and India and his involvement with the Burmese nationalist movement He also explains his position in the struggles between the emerging Burmese nation and various minority groups such as the Karens of which he was a member This third person account is filled with humor and insight and allows the reader a rare glimpse into the mind of a powerful personality The Communist Party of Indonesia, 1951-1963 Donald Hindley, 1966 Contemporary Regional Planning Issues, 2025-07-30

Regional planning aims to envision a better future for a region and proposes policies to achieve a desired vision of regional development It encompasses various aspects of the human and biophysical environments covering extensive geographical areas or jurisdictions with identifiable common characteristics In this regard this book offers a state of the art examination of how contemporary regional planning challenges are addressed globally It includes contributions from leading researchers and scholars in the field of regional planning from Canada the USA Israel Indonesia Turkey and Norway Based on empirical research the book discusses a variety of topics including how the relocation of Indonesia's capital city could potentially resolve the country's longstanding regional inequities and multidimensional conflicts the intricacies of planning in contested cities and the dual role of urban planning in conflict resolution how regional planning balances local autonomy and regional objectives river basin development as a sustainable planning strategy for a port city and positioning the Arctic landscape regions in the global system of growth and development The book is insightful thought provoking and easy to understand It could serve as an essential reference material on contemporary regional planning for students planners NGOs government officials and international institutions interested in regional development planning
