Heise, 2024-05-06 With the right to petition the United Nations the Ewe and Togoland unification movement enjoyed a privilege unmatched by other dependent peoples Using language conveying insecurity the movement seized the international spotlight ensuring that the topic of unification dominated the UN Trusteeship System for over a decade Yet its vociferous securitisations fell silent due to colonial distortion leaving unification unfulfilled thus allowing the seeds of secessionist conflict to grow At the intersection of postcolonial theory and security studies Julius Heise presents a theory driven history of Togoland's path to independence offering a crucial lesson for international statebuilding efforts Unintended

The Impact of Private Actors on Security Governance Gloria Westermeyer, 2013-05-17 With the ever farther advancement of globalization governance has become one of the most prominent theoretical concepts to describe today's world Governance theory is concerned with a system of rule through non hierarchical governing modes such as networks and market mechanisms Initially the field of security was ignored as it was seen as the last bastion of the nation state When the concept of security governance emerged at the beginning of the millennium it sought to take account of transnational threats such as nuclear proliferation or cluster bombs However the traditional security domain of the state i.e. the provision of security by military force is still exempt from governance theory Provoked by the increasing support of private actors to military operations Gloria Westermeyer aims to investigate whether this exemption is still valid Based on the conduct of Intelligence Surveillance and Reconnaissance services in the German ISAF Mission the author examines the impact of private actors on the governance of today's military affairs What is the relative power of private security actors vis vis the state Which factors determine if to what extent and why private actors support the military Under what circumstances and how may security functions be privatized without undermining the state s interest
