Retreat The Modern House In Nature:

Retreat Ron Broadhurst, 2015-10-20 The most forward looking spaces designed for rustic living in the twenty first century Across the globe architects are creating innovative houses for country living reimagining the way we escape into the natural world Some combine industrial materials like metal and concrete with traditional wood Others create sophisticated essays in off grid living employing the most technologically ambitious green living strategies Still others place discreet structures on remote almost unbuildable locations This unique volume profiles new and recent projects that illustrate the inexhaustible potential of the modern house to enter into a dialogue with nature in sustainable yet stylish ways The collection spans the globe from the Pacific Northwest to the forests of Japan Today s architectural vanguard is represented as well as established architects working at the forefront of twenty first century design including Bohlin Cywinski Jackson Rick Joy Olson Kundig and Marcio Kogan These rustic retreats with comfortable and appealing modern interiors will resonate with readers of shelter magazines while the cutting edge reputations of their architects will interest professionals and students Women and the Making of the Modern House Alice T. Friedman, 2006-01-01 Investigates how women patrons of architecture were essential catalysts for innovation in domestic architectural design This book explores the challenges that unconventional attitudes and ways of life presented to architectural thinking and to the architects themselves The Secret

Life of the Modern House Dominic Bradbury, 2021-04-01 Informative and entertaining this publication is a feast for the eyes while also thought provoking and offers excellent inspiration for daydreaming about what makes the perfect modern house Wallpaper A fascinating selection of innovative homes this is a thoughtful journey through the evolution of domestic architecture Sunday Express Over the last century the way that we live at home has changed dramatically Nothing short of a design revolution has transformed our houses and the spaces within them moving from traditional patterns of living all the way through to an era of more fluid open plan and modern styles Whether we live in a new home or a period house our spaces will have been shaped one way or another by the pioneering Modernists and Mid century architects and designers who argued for a fresh way of life Architectural and design writer Dominic Bradbury charts the course of this voyage all the way from the late 19th century through to the houses of today in this ground breaking book Over nineteen thematic chapters he explains the way our houses have been reinvented while taking in along the way the giants of Art Deco influential Modernists including Le Corbusier and Frank Lloyd Wright as well as post war innovators such as Eero Saarinen and Philip Johnson Taking us from the 20th to the 21st century Bradbury explores the progress of modernity itself and reveals the secret history of our very own homes The New Modern House Jonathan Bell, Ellie Stathaki, 2010-10-06 Modern architecture is a story of movements styles and genres But what of the work that remains defiantly unique refusing to submit to a label or genre This book looks at the emerging trend of architecture that favours substance over style combining functional design and sustainable processes with a straightforward honest aesthetic The New Modernist House Patricia

Callan,2023-10-31 The intuitive design sun lit spaces and tranquil vibe of Modernist houses still have an enduring appeal today But can these homes be updated for contemporary living while maintaining the integrity of the original architecture The New Modernist House presents twenty one mid century homes respectfully restored and renewed for future generations to enjoy Designs by some of the period s heavyweights including Anatol Kagan Alistair Knox and Ernest Fooks have been sensitively updated by today s creative innovators Alongside stories of the passionate homeowners architects and collaborators who have given these homes new life a historical overview and section on practical considerations inform those drawn to a Modernist dream house This colourful volume is both a useful resource for those embarking on their own renovation journey and a sourcebook of inspiration for delighting in moments of nostalgia The New Natural House Book David Pearson,1998 Gathers ideas and advice on building decorating furnishing and living with a toxin free home built from natural materials Passive Design, It's a Natural ,1980 Japan C. W. Nikoru,1997 Original photographs and insightful commentary introduce Japan s natural beauty and rich cultural heritage These classic images only hint at the story of the seasons in Japan Nature is not just admired it is incorporated into every aspect of life from festivals and the fine arts to the design of homes and the arrangement of seasonal delicacies at the table The splendors of the landscape have shaped the ancient culture and ongoing traditions of modern Japan Here gathered in one opulent volume are more than two hundred and fifty full color photographs carefully culled The new 100 houses and 100 architects Robyn Beaver,2007 This coffee table style book features 100 architect designed homes from around the world Descriptive text floor plans and photos describe each project Exteriors and interiors are featured Publisher Landscape and the Ideology of Nature in Exurbia K. Valentine Cadieux,Laura Taylor,2013-05-07 This book explores the role of the ideology of nature in producing urban and exurban sprawl It examines the ironies of residential development on the metropolitan fringe where the search for nature brings residents deeper into the world from which they are imagining their escape of Federal Express technologically mediated communications global supply chains and the anonymity of the global marketplace and where many of the central features of exurbia very low density residential land use monster homes and conversion of forested or rural land for housing contribute to the very problems that the social and environmental aesthetic of exurbia attempts to avoid The volume shows how this contradiction to live in the green landscape and to protect the green landscape from urbanization gets caught up and represented in the ideology of nature and how this ideology in turn constitutes and is constituted by the landscapes being urbanized
