Handbook of Portfolio Construction John B. Guerard, Jr., 2009-12-12 Portfolio construction is fundamental to the investment management process In the 1950s Harry Markowitz demonstrated the benefits of efficient diversification by formulating a mathematical program for generating the efficient frontier to summarize optimal trade offs between expected return and risk The Markowitz framework continues to be used as a basis for both practical portfolio construction and emerging research in financial economics Such concepts as the Capital Asset Pricing Model CAPM and the Arbitrage Pricing Theory APT for example provide the foundation for setting benchmarks for predicting returns and risk and for performance measurement This volume showcases original essays by some of today's most prominent academics and practitioners in the field on the contemporary application of Markowitz techniques Covering a wide spectrum of topics including portfolio selection data mining tests and multi factor risk models the book presents a comprehensive approach to portfolio construction tools models frameworks and analyses with both practical and theoretical implications

King William's Tontine Moshe A. Milevsky, 2015-04-13

In a time before bonds treasury notes or central banks there were tontines These were schemes in which a group of investors lent money to a government corporation or king similar to a modern day loan syndicate But unlike conventional debt periodic interest payments were distributed only to survivors As tontine nominees died the income of survivors correspondingly increased Morbid perhaps but this was one of the earliest forms of longevity insurance in which the pool shared the risk Moshe A Milevsky tells the story of the first tontine issued by the English government in 1693 known as King William's tontine intended to finance the war against French King Louis XIV He explains how tontines work the financial and economic thinking behind them as well as why they fell into disrepute Milevsky concludes with a provocative argument that suitably modified tontines should be resurrected for twenty first century retirement income planning
