Revanche Passions Pierre Hassner

Melvyn P. Leffler, Jeffrey W. Legro

Revanche Passions Pierre Hassner:

Revolutionary Passions Hamit Bozarslan, Gilles Bataillon, Christophe Jaffrelot, 2017-09-22 Europe has been the chief arena of revolutionary passions since the end of the eighteenth century During this same period and right up to the beginning of the twenty first century the non European world too has resonated with coup attempts and revolutionary turmoil How does one begin to understand these revolutionary passions To what extent are they influenced by European matrices Have these revolutions also themselves resulted in exportable models Three French writers look at three continents Latin America the Middle East and India and interrogate the revolution with reference to and dialogue with the definitive work of Francois Furet who wrote The Passing of an Illusion The Idea of Communism in the Twentieth Century Interestingly the original French book Passions révolutionnaires was written in 1995 just after the fall of the Berlin wall Whether nationalist religious proletarian international anti colonial or simply liberty and equality whether violent or fought passively the Revolution as a concept and a fact whether past present or future remains a critical reference point for our societies

La revanche des passions Pierre Hassner, 2015-10-07 Nous sommes profondément imprégnés par l'idée que la modernité réside dans la canalisation des passions par la raison soit par la prise en compte de normes universelles soit par la composition d'intérêts bien compris Leur résurgence dans les conflits contemporains avec son cortège d'extrêmes violences nous apprend qu'il n'en est rien L'heure où la mondialisation met en question la cohérence de l'état national où les armes notamment atomiques changent la nature de la guerre les conflits inter étatiques cèdent le pas aux guerres civiles au terrorisme et la montée de la violence sociale Ce déchaînement des passions est-il l'origine des bouleversements actuels ou en sont-ils la cause Pour saisir les dynamiques de notre monde complexe et mouvant il nous faut reprendre nouveaux frais l'analyse de la guerre et de la paix et avec elle toutes nos catégories de la philosophie politique Nous comprendrons ainsi quel rôle jouent les passions leur circulation leur interaction leur équilibre et déséquilibre non seulement dans le déclenchement des conflits mais aussi dans leur possible dépasement C'est tout le problème du politique que de penser la coexistence possible entre citoyens alliés et adversaires l'intérieur d'un ordre global commun Pierre Hassner est directeur de recherche honoraire au CERI Centre d'études et de recherches internationales de Sciences Po spécialiste des relations internationales Ce brillant recueil d'articles qui conclut une série commencée avec La Violence et la Paix Esprit 1995 et La Terreur et l'Empire Seuil 2003 explore la possibilité et les conditions d'une économie politique et d'une éthique des passions Il est introduit par une longue introduction inédite de l'auteur et se clôt sur un entretien entre Pierre Hassner et Joël Roman

The Oxford Handbook of International Studies Pedagogy Heather A. Smith, Mark A. Boyer, David J. Hornsby, 2024 This volume on international studies pedagogy helps us think purposefully about the worlds we teach to our students and it shows us why engaging in reflective practice about how and what we teach matters The Handbook also provides strategies to engage students in a variety of ways to reflect on and engage with the complexities of the world in which we live

To Lead the World Melvyn P. Leffler, Jeffrey

W. Legro, 2008-07-21 In To Lead the World Melvyn P Leffler and Jeffrey W Legro bring together some of America's most esteemed writers and thinkers to offer concrete historically grounded suggestions for how America can regain its standing in the world and use its power more wisely than it has during the Bush years. They address such issues as how the US can regain its respect in the world, respond to the biggest threats now facing the country, identify reasonable foreign policy goals, manage a growing debt burden, achieve greater national security, and successfully engage a host of other problems left unsolved and in many cases exacerbated by the Bush Doctrine. Representing a wide range of perspectives, the writers gathered here place our current affairs firmly in the larger context of American and world history and draw upon realistic appraisals of both the strengths and the limits of American power. They argue persuasively that the kind of leadership that made the United States a great and greatly admired nation in the past can be revitalized to meet the challenges of the 21st century.

The Pursuit of Europe Anthony Pagden, 2022. The European Union we are told is facing extinction. Most of those who believe that, however, have no understanding of how and why it became possible to imagine that the diverse peoples of Europe might be united in a single political community. The Pursuit of Europe tells the story of the evolution of the European project from the end of the Napoleonic Wars, which saw the earliest creation of a Concert of Europe, right through to Brexit. The question was how, after centuries of internecine conflict, to create a united Europe while still preserving the political, legal, and cultural integrity of each individual nation. The need to find an answer to this question became more acute after two world wars had shown that if the nations of Europe were to continue to play a role in the world, they could now only do so together. To achieve that, however, they had to be prepared to merge their zealously guarded sovereign powers into a new form of transnational constitutionalism. This the European Union has tried to do. Here Anthony Pagden argues that it has created not, as its enemies have claimed, a super state, but a new postnational order united in a political life based not upon the old shibboleths of nationalism and patriotism but upon a common body of values and aspirations. It is this, argues Pagden, that will allow the Union to defeat its political enemies from within and to overcome the difficulties from mass migration to the pandemic which it faces from without. But it will only succeed in doing so if it also continues to evolve as it has over the past two centuries.

Fear and the Making of Foreign Policy Raymond Taras, 2015-03-24. This is a book about conflicts and fears: how domestic reasons are drawing countries in Europe into international events. Raymond Taras explains why France, Poland, and Sweden have become engaged in outside conflicts and tells the story of when and why xenophobia at home is converted into xenophobia abroad.

Dignity in the Egyptian Revolution Zaynab El Bernoussi, 2021-07-01. Dignity or karama in Arabic is a nebulous concept that challenges us to reflect on issues such as identity, human rights, and faith. During the Arab uprisings of 2010 and 2011, Egyptians that participated in these uprisings frequently used the concept of dignity as a way to underscore their opposition to the Mubarak regime. Protesting against the indignity of the poverty, lack of freedom, and social justice, the idea of karama gained salience in Egyptian cinema, popular literature, street art, music, social media, and protest banners slogans and literature Based on interviews with participants in the 2011 protests and analysis of the art forms that emerged during protests Zaynab El Bernoussi explores understandings of the concept of dignity showing how protestors conceived of this concept in their organisation of protest and uprising and their memories of karama in the aftermath of the protests revisiting these claims in the years subsequent to the uprising

Emotions in International Politics Yohan Ariffin, Jean-Marc Coicaud, Vesselin Popovski, 2016-01-11 This book investigates collective emotions in international politics with examples from 9 11 and World War II to the Rwandan genocide

When Empire Meets Nationalism Didier Chaudet, Florent Parmentier, 2016-02-11 This innovative study presents an in depth political and sociological analysis of the internal power politics and imperial forms developed by the Russian neo eurasianists and the neo conservatives in the United States It traces the growth of nationalism and the concept of Empire in relation to the ideologies and foreign policy of both Russia and the USA Beginning with a genealogy of the two movements the authors present the intricacy of imperial rhetoric and nationalist ideologies in modern states compared with the distinctive definition of Empire as a politico historical form The extent to which these ideas have shaped the foreign policy of Russia and the USA is then related to events in Central Asia Afghanistan Iran Iraq Saudi Arabia and Turkey The analysis of each case provides a better understanding of the imperial character of these foreign policies in relation to their nationalist foundations The combination of political theory and geopolitics makes this cutting edge research a must read to all interested in the evolving discourse surrounding Empire

Time and Temporality in Transitional and Post-Conflict Societies Natascha Mueller-Hirth, Sandra Rios Oyola, 2018-03-09 Implicit conceptions of time associated with progress and linearity have influenced scholars and practitioners in the fields of transitional justice and peacebuilding but time and temporality have rarely been systematically considered Time and Temporality in Transitional and Post Conflict Societies examines how time is experienced constructed and used in transitional and post conflict societies This collection critically questions linear transitional justice time and highlights the different temporalities that exist at local and institutional levels through original empirical research Presenting empirical and often ethnographic research from Argentina Brazil Colombia Cambodia Mozambique Palestine Israel Rwanda and South Africa contributors use a temporal lens to investigate key issues including transitional justice institutions peace processes victimhood perpetrators accountability reparations forgiveness reconciliation and memorialisation This timely monograph will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as postdoctoral researchers interested in fields such as political science international relations anthropology transitional justice and conflict resolution It will also be relevant to conflict resolution and peacebuilding practitioners
