Reviving Evan Dismantling :

Restoring The Land Laurie Cosgrove, David G Evans, David Yencken, 2013-02-01 This provocative book brings together scholars and practitioners from many different disciplines Philosopher and churchman farmer and feminist politician and agronomist each considers environmental issues from a unique perspective Part I explores the clash between the Western world's traditional belief in progress and development and an emerging set of beliefs based on a new environmental ethic Part II demonstrates that scientific knowledge is not always enough to solve an environmental problem indeed to a politician or a farmer expert knowledge may be less important than the attitudes of voters consumers and the community and Part III takes agricultural sustainability and the degradation of farming lands as a case study The special concerns of the farming community and the practical difficulties imposed by the rural crisis are given due weight and specific problems such as salinity are discussed in detail To create a sustainable future we must make a renewed attempt to define a human relationship with the spirit of the land By drawing together authors with many different interests and backgrounds this book makes a valuable contribution to that dialogue It will be of interest to all who are involved with land use and environmental decision making and to all readers who are concerned about Australia's future The Revival Chinedu Nnadi, 2025-08-27

In the heart of America's Midwest a sinister firestorm is spreading Churches are going up in flames one after another reduced to ash and ruin To the public they look like accidents To those left behind they feel like judgment But to journalist Daniel Harper assigned to cover the story they stir something more dangerous memory Daniel once believed Once prayed Once trusted But tragedy buried his faith alongside his wife leaving only bitterness and a hollow career The fires should have been just another headline Until he meets Caleb Brooks a fiery young seminary student whose father's church was among the first destroyed Caleb believes the attacks are no accident And he's determined to prove it Drawn into Caleb's conviction Daniel follows a trail of cryptic threats suspicious silences and small town secrets that all point to one chilling truth someone is targeting pastors who dare to speak of justice and mercy in a world that wants neither The deeper they dig the clearer it becomes that exposing the arsonists won't just rattle pews it will shake the powerful But as danger closes in Daniel realizes the greatest battle may not be with the men who set the fires but with the ashes of his own faith Because without confronting his brokenness he'll never find the strength to stand The flames are spreading The clock is ticking And if Daniel can't face both the darkness outside and within the next church to fall could be their last refuge Captain Scott's Invaluable

Assistant: Edgar Evans Isobel Williams, 2011-11-30 Petty Officer Edgar Evans was Captain Scott's giant worker and his invaluable assistant He went with Scott on both the British Antarctic Expeditions of the early 1900s the Discovery expedition of 1901 and the Terra Nova expedition in 1910 distinguishing himself on both In 1903 with Scott Edgar made the first long and arduous sortie onto the Plateau of Victoria Land The journey highlighted Edgar's common sense strength courage wit and unflappability Thus it came as no surprise when in 1911 Edgar was chosen by Scott to be one of the five men to go on the final attempt at the South Pole Tragically the Welsh Giant was the first to die on the ill fated return and posthumously Edgar was blamed in some quarters for causing the deaths of the whole party It was suggested that his failure was due to his relative lack of education which made him less able to endure the conditions than his well educated companions Isobel Williams repudiates this shameful suggestion and redresses the balance of attention paid to the upper and lower deck members of Scott s famous expeditions Revival If... Jezebel's War With America Michael L. Brown, 2019-08-06 Jezebel died 3 000 years ago But her spirit lives today Jezebel was the most wicked woman in the Bible a powerful seductress who killed the prophets led Israel into idolatry and immorality and emasculated men She was seductive and determined to snuff out the voices coming against her because these voices were calling out for repentance In twenty first century America Jezebel is not a person But it's as if the spirit of Jezebel is alive again today The influence of the same demonic force is being felt in the massive increase of pornography and sexual temptation the militant spirit of abortion the rise of radical feminism and most importantly in the attempt to silence prophetic voices Just as Jezebel clashed with strong men almost three thousand years ago the demonic spirit of Jezebel is powerful in America and it is going after the church This eye opening book not only unveils the satanic plot to destroy America beginning with an all out assault on the church but it will equip every believer with tools to defeat the enemy in their own personal lives as well as in the nation This book will show you how the spirit of Jezebel is active in America today and teach you how to protect the church

From Dry Bones to Living Army Dr. Mishael Carson, 2025-04-19 Are you weary of lifeless faith and longing for a fresh move of God Or perhaps you are a leader searching for a way to transform a spiritually dormant congregation into a powerful force for change From Dry Bones to Living Army is a prophetic call to the Church a clarion cry to rise from spiritual desolation into divine mobilization In this powerful book Dr Mishael Carson uncovers the transformative power of revival He challenges you to move beyond the valley of dry bones and into the breath of divine restoration that can awaken an entire community Drawing from the dramatic vision in Ezekiel 37 and blending historical research with firsthand experience Dr Carson reveals the precise mechanisms behind true spiritual awakening This is not just a theory From Dry Bones to Living Army is a practical blueprint for revival rich with biblical insights and compelling case studies Each chapter unpacks the spiritual anatomy of transformation showing how dry bones symbolic of lost hope broken identity and scattered destiny can be resurrected into a mighty army of purpose power and prophetic impact Learn how previous revival attempts may have failed and why understanding the anatomy of revival is the key to sustaining a powerful move of God. Imagine leading your congregation from spiritual dryness to vibrant faith from hopelessness to divine mobilization. This is more than a book; it's a roadmap to awakening and divine restoration. Through original Hebrew and Greek word studies, rich biblical insights, and practical application, Dr. Carson equips you with the tools to discern God's voice, respond to His breath, and become part of His end-time army. With actionable strategies, you'll discover how to create the conditions for revival that are authentic, sustainable, and Spirit-led without manipulation or gimmicks. The revival you've been praying for starts with understanding its true anatomy. From Dry Bones to Living Army will challenge, empower, and awaken you to the transformative power of God. Don't settle for a valley of bones; step into the breath of revival today. Begin your journey from dry bones to living army and become an instrument of authentic spiritual awakening in your community. Get your copy now and begin the transformation into a vessel of God's resurrection power.

Christianity Reborn Donald M. Lewis, 2004. Christianity Reborn provides the first transnational in-depth analysis of the global expansion of evangelical Protestantism during the past century. While the growth of evangelical Christianity in the non-Western world has already been documented, the significance of this book lies in its scholarly treatment of that phenomenon. Written by prominent historians of religion, these chapters explore the expansion of evangelicalism, including charismatic Christianity in non-English speaking lands, with special reference to dynamic indigenous responses. The range of locations covered includes western and southern Africa, eastern and southern Asia, Latin America, and Oceania. The concluding essay provides a sociological account of evangelicalism's success, highlighting its ability to create a multiplicity of faith communities suited to very different ethnic, racial, and geographical regions. At a time of great interest in the growth of Christianity in the non-Western world, this volume makes an important contribution to our understanding of what may be another turning point in the historical development of evangelical faith. Contributors: Marthinus L. Daneel, Allan K. Davidson, Paul Freston, Robert Eric Frykenberg, Jehu J. Hanciles, Philip Yuen-sang Leung, Donald M. Lewis, David Martin, Mark A. Noll, Brian Stanley, W. R. Ward.

Islam and the West Michael J. Thompson, 2003-08-18. Since the terrorist attacks of September 11th, the topic of Islam's political, cultural, religious, and spiritual tendencies and beliefs has been thrust into the spotlight. However, most discussions concerning Islam's relation to the West tend to simplify and distort the intricate nature of the problem. The essays in Islam and the West approach the interactions of Islam, the West, and modernity through overlapping social, historical, economic, cultural, and philosophical layers. Viewed through this complex prism of analysis, the full dimensions of the relationship become clear. The result is a deeper understanding of the nature of modernity and how other societies can relate to each other in an increasingly complex, globalizing world.
