Principles Property Restitution Refugees Displaced:

Housing and Property Restitution Rights of Refugees and Displaced Persons Scott Leckie, 2007-05-28 The legal recognition of the housing land and property rights of refugees and displaced persons has expanded steadily in recent years as the realization has grown that securing these rights will be beneficial to long term peace stability economic vitality and justice This volume first published in 2007 contains more than 240 of the laws cases and materials that have been adopted during the past century which accord those unjustly and arbitrarily displaced from their homes and lands with rights not simply to return to their countries or places of origin but to return to the original home land or property from which they were initially forced to flee The breadth of the restitution standards found within this volume combined with selected examples of case law and other materials are a clear indication that a right to housing land and property restitution for refugees and displaced persons has emerged within the global legal domain

Restitution and the Politics of Repair Zolkos Magdalena Zolkos, 2020-09-21 Analyses the social imaginary of undoing repair and return underpinning the international norm of restitution making Approaches restitution not just as a legal norm of property return but as a social imaginary and a cultural psychoanalytic scene of undoing repair and return Brings together philosophic political socio legal and cultural psychoanalytic approaches to the study of restitution Outlines a heterogeneous and multifaceted idea of restitution emergent in modernity and looks at the peripheries of the modern restitutive tradition in the search for alternatives and counter traditions This book takes a unique approach grounded in political and cultural discourse to develop a political theory of restitution Challenging assumptions about restitution in the Western legal and political tradition where it has become nearly synonymous with reacquisition and where legal studies focus on material objects and claims to their ownership Zolkos argues that the development of restitutive norms has been auxiliary to the emergence of modern state sovereignty and excavates the restitutive tradition s mythical religious substrate Bringing together texts from within and outwith the Western canon of political theory and philosophy including the writings of Grotius Durkheim Freud and Klein as well as Mary Shelley s Frankenstein the book undertakes a dual task reading literary texts as a political theorising of restitution and reading political or sociological texts as literary narratives with distinctive restitutive tropes of repair undoing and return

Exploring the Rights of Climate Displaced Persons Scott Leckie, Shaun Butta, 2025-06-15 This book addresses how to more effectively use law human rights and institutional reforms to resolve the many challenges posed by climate displacement The book addresses issues such as Why all governments need to establish a national climate displacement ministry to implement relevant laws how to improve land law and policy to assist climate displaced persons and communities how to litigate better on climate displacement issues which legal avenues have not yet been tried to bolster judicial support for climate displaced persons which type of legal cases are still yet to be tried concerning the housing land and property rights of climate displaced persons and where do laws and policy affecting domestic climate displacement need to be revised and improved Forced Displacement from Crimea and its Human Rights Aspects Olga Dubinska, Gaiane Nuridzhanian, 2019-12-20 This report can be called Small Encyclopedia of human rights violations resulted from the occupation of Crimean Peninsula by the Russian Federation In a concise but comprehensive manner it contains analysis of key types of violations that occur in Crimea Report demonstrates and proves that mass systematic violations of human rights in Crimea cause displacement of population from the occupied territory and the Russian Federation should be brought to justice for it Development-Induced Displacement and Resettlement Bogumil Terminski, 2014-05-01 This book explores the issue of development induced resettlement with a particular emphasis on the humanitarian legal and social aspects of this problem Today so called development induced displacement and resettlement DIDR is one of the dominant causes of internal spatial mobility worldwide Each year over 15 million people are forced to abandon their homes to make space for economic development infrastructure The construction of dams and irrigation projects the expansion of communication networks urbanization and re urbanization the extraction and transportation of mineral resources forced evictions in urban areas and population redistribution schemes count among the many possible causes Terminski aims to present the issue of development caused displacement as a highly diverse global social problem occurring in all regions of the world As a human rights issue it poses a challenge to public international law and to institutions providing humanitarian assistance A significant part of this book is devoted to the current dynamics of development caused resettlement in Europe which has been neglected in the academic literature so far Land, Memory, Reconstruction, and Justice Cheryl Walker, 2010-08-17 In South Africa land is one of the most significant and controversial topics Land restitution has been a complex multidimensional process that has failed to meet the expectations with which it was initially launched in 1994 Land Memory Reconstruction and Justice brings together a wealth of topical material and case studies by leading experts in the field who present a rich mix of perspectives from politics sociology geography social anthropology law history and agricultural economics The collection addresses both the material and the symbolic dimensions of land claims in rural and urban contexts and explores the complex intersection of issues confronting the restitution program from the promotion of livelihoods to questions of rights identity and transitional justice Land and Post-Conflict Peacebuilding Jon Unruh, Rhodri Williams, 2013-07-18 Claims to land and territory are often a cause of conflict and land issues present some of the most contentious problems for post conflict peacebuilding Among the land related problems that emerge during and after conflict are the exploitation of land based resources in the absence of authority the disintegration of property rights and institutions the territorial effect of battlefield gains and losses and population displacement In the wake of violent conflict reconstitution of a viable land rights system is crucial an effective post conflict land policy can foster economic recovery help restore the rule of law and strengthen political stability But the reestablishment of land ownership land use and access rights for individuals and communities is often complicated and problematic and poor land policies can lead to renewed tensions In twenty one chapters by twenty five authors this book considers experiences with and approaches to post conflict land issues in seventeen countries and in varied social and geographic settings Highlighting key concepts that are important for understanding how to address land rights in the wake of armed conflict the book provides a theoretical and practical framework for policy makers researchers practitioners and students Land and Post Conflict Peacebuilding is part of a global initiative to identify and analyze lessons in post conflict peacebuilding and natural resource management The project has generated six edited books of case studies and analyses with contributions from practitioners policy makers and researchers Other books in the series address high value resources water livelihoods assessing and restoring resources and governance

Research Handbook on International Law and Migration Vincent Chetail,Céline Bauloz,2014-03-28 Migration is a complex and multifaceted issue and the current legal framework suffers from considerable ambiguity and lack of cohesive focus This Handbook offers a comprehensive take on the intersection of law and migration studies and provides strat

Cyprus at the European Court of Human Rights Costas Paraskeva,Eleni Meleagrou,2022-06-20 The authors grapple with questions raised by the Court s reversal in its approach to the violations of the rights to home and property of Cypriot displaced persons resulting from the Turkish occupation of northern Cyprus In the 4th interstate application of Cyprus v Turkey the Court found Turkey in violation of the rights to home and property of hundreds of thousands of Greek Cypriot internally displaced persons resulting from the invasion and occupation of northern Cyprus Such findings were also firmly established in a handful of individual applications most prominent amongst which is the landmark case Loizidou v Turkey However a couple of decades following these judgments the findings of violations were jettisoned by the inadmissibility decision in Demopoulos and others v Turkey

Contemporary Human Rights Challenges Carla Ferstman,Tony Gray,2018-09-03 The Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR was drafted by the UN Commission on Human Rights in the aftermath of the World War II in an attempt to address the wrongs of the past and plan for a better future for all With contributions from President Jimmy Carter UNESCO Secretary General Audrey Azoulay and the former Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams this collection of essays Contemporary Human Rights Challenges The Universal Declaration of Human Rights and its Continuing Relevance by leading international experts offers a timely contemporary view on the UDHR and its continuing relevance to today s issues Reflecting the structure of the UDHR the chapters written by 28 academics practitioners and activists bring a contemporary perspective to the original principles proclaimed in the Declaration s 30 Articles It will be a stimulating accessible read with real world examples for anyone involved in thinking about designing or applying public policy particularly government officials politicians lawyers journalists and academics and those engaged in promoting social justice Examined through these universal principles which have enduring relevance the authors grapple with some of today s most pressing challenges some of which for example equality and gender related rights would not have been foreseen by the original drafters of the Declaration who included Eleanor Roosevelt Ren Cassin and John Humphrey The essays cover a wide range of topics such as an individual's right to privacy in a digital age freedom to practise one's religion and the right to redress and make a compelling and detailed argument for the on going importance and significance of the Declaration and human rights in our rapidly changing world
