Princetons Great Persian Kings:

Princeton's Great Persian Book of Kings Marianna Shreve Simpson, Louise Marlow, 2015 Published on the occasion of an exhibition held at Princeton University Art Museum October 3 2015 January 24 2016 The Princeton Encyclopedia of Islamic Political Thought Gerhard Bowering, Patricia Crone, Mahan Mirza, 2013 In 2012 the year 1433 of the Muslim calendar the Islamic population throughout the world was estimated at approximately a billion and a half representing about one fifth of humanity In geographical terms Islam occupies the center of the world stretching like a big belt across the globe from east to west P vii Iran and the Deccan Keelan Overton, 2020-06-02 In the early 1400s Iranian elites began migrating to the Deccan plateau of southern India Lured to the region for many reasons these poets traders statesmen and artists of all kinds left an indelible mark on the Islamic sultanates that ruled the Deccan until the late seventeenth century The result was the creation of a robust transregional Persianate network linking such distant cities as Bidar and Shiraz Bijapur and Isfahan and Golconda and Mashhad Iran and the Deccan explores the circulation of art culture and talent between Iran and the Deccan over a three hundred year period Its interdisciplinary contributions consider the factors that prompted migration the physical and intellectual poles of connectivity between the two regions and processes of adaptation and response Placing the Deccan at the center of Indo Persian and early modern global history Iran and the Deccan reveals how mobility liminality and cultural translation nuance the traditional methods and boundaries of the humanities The Empires of the Near East and India Hani Khafipour, 2019-05-14 In the early modern world the Safavid Ottoman and Mughal empires sprawled across a vast swath of the earth stretching from the Himalayas to the Indian Ocean to the Mediterranean Sea The diverse and overlapping literate communities that flourished in these three empires left a lasting legacy on the political religious and cultural landscape of the Near East and India This volume is a comprehensive sourcebook of newly translated texts that shed light on the intertwined histories and cultures of these communities presenting a wide range of source material spanning literature philosophy religion politics mysticism and visual art in thematically organized chapters Scholarly essays by leading researchers provide historical context for closer analyses of a lesser known era and a framework for further research and debate The volume aims to provide a new model for the study and teaching of the region s early modern history that stands in contrast to the prevailing trend of examining this interconnected past in isolation The Princeton Handbook of World Poetries Roland Greene, Stephen Cushman, 2016-11-15 An authoritative and comprehensive guide to poetry throughout the world The Princeton Handbook of World Poetries drawn from the latest edition of the acclaimed Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics provides a comprehensive and authoritative survey of the history and practice of poetry in more than 100 major regional national and diasporic literatures and language traditions around the globe With more than 165 entries the book combines broad overviews and focused accounts to give extensive coverage of poetic traditions throughout the world For students teachers

researchers poets and other readers it supplies a one of a kind resource offering in depth treatment of Indo European poetries all the major Celtic Slavic Germanic and Romance languages and others ancient Middle Eastern poetries Hebrew Persian Sumerian and Assyro Babylonian subcontinental Indian poetries Bengali Hindi Marathi Punjabi Sanskrit Tamil Urdu and more Asian and Pacific poetries Chinese Japanese Korean Vietnamese Mongolian Nepalese Thai and Tibetan Spanish American poetries those of Mexico Peru Argentina Chile and many other Latin American countries indigenous American poetries Guaran Inuit and Navajo and African poetries those of Ethiopia Somalia South Africa and other countries and including African languages English French and Portuguese Complete with an introduction by the editors this is an essential volume for anyone interested in understanding poetry in an international context Drawn from the latest edition of the acclaimed Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Provides more than 165 authoritative entries on poetry in more than 100 regional national and diasporic literatures and language traditions throughout the world Features extensive coverage of non Western poetic traditions Includes an introduction bibliographies cross references and a general index

The Safavid World Rudi Matthee, 2021-07-21 The Safavid World brings together thirty chapters on many aspects of the complex Safavid state 1501 1722 With the latest insights and arguments some offer overviews of the period or topic at hand and others present new interpretations of old questions based on newly found sources In addition to political history and religious life the chapters in this volume cover economic conditions commercial links and activities social relations and artistic expressions They do so in ways that stretch both the temporal and geographical perimeters of the subject and contributors also examine Safavid Iran with an eye to both its Mongol and Timurid antecedents and its long afterlife following the fall of the dynasty Unlike traditional scholarship which tended to view the country as unique sui generis and barely affected by the outside world The Safavid World situates Iran in a wider regional or global context Examining the Safavids from their foundations in the fourteenth century to their relations with the rest of the world in the eighteenth century this study is essential reading for undergraduates postgraduates and scholars of the Safavid world and the history and culture of Iran and the Middle East

Routledge Revivals: Medieval Islamic Civilization (2006) Josef Meri, 2018-01-12 Islamic civilization flourished in the Middle Ages across a vast geographical area that spans today's Middle and Near East First published in 2006 Medieval Islamic Civilization examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th centuries This important two volume work contains over 700 alphabetically arranged entries contributed and signed by international scholars and experts in fields such as Arabic languages Arabic literature architecture history of science Islamic arts Islamic studies Middle Eastern studies Near Eastern studies politics religion Semitic studies theology and more Entries also explore the importance of interfaith relations and the permeation of persons ideas and objects across geographical and intellectual boundaries between Europe and the Islamic world This reference work provides an exhaustive and vivid portrait of Islamic civilization and brings together in one authoritative text all aspects of Islamic civilization during the Middle Ages

Accessible to scholars students and non specialists this resource will be of great use in research and understanding of the roots of today s Islamic society as well as the rich and vivid culture of medieval Islamic civilization The Princeton Companion to Jewish Studies Leora Batnitzky,Eve Krakowski,Steven Weitzman,2025-10-14 An authoritative guide to Jewish studies reflecting the latest research in a diverse and flourishing field Jewish studies is a dynamic interdisciplinary field that draws on the methods of the modern academy historical research anthropology literary studies philosophy religious studies sociology feminism and the study of the arts and culture among others to illuminate the past and present of Jewish life thought and expression This book provides an entry point to Jewish studies for readers who want to learn about the questions it raises and the insights it generates Although no single volume can capture the full breadth of the field this Princeton Companion encompasses some of the most important subfields of Jewish studies presenting new historical research and introductions to the many other disciplines that can be brought to bear on Jewish history and experience The editors all distinguished scholars of Jewish studies have gathered contributions from a range of prominent and up and coming figures in the field These contributors offer original perspectives that reflect new findings and novel contexts Part I Rethinking the Past aims to give an overview of recent research trends in the study of Jewish history covering the ancient world the Middle Ages and modern times Part II Ideas and Expression surveys new research in the study of Jewish language religion philosophy literature art music and other humanities centered approaches to Jewish life Part III Interactions and Identity brings the social sciences and anthropology into the picture along with Israel studies and Mizrahi studies to introduce the ways scholars today are seeking to shed light on how Jews identify themselves interact with others organize themselves and behave politically and economically Babur Stephen F. Dale,2018-05-03 Offers readers a compelling picture of Babur s Central Asian world one which is little appreciated by most individuals who are either natives or students of South Asia studies Provided by publisher Out of Bounds Pamela A. Patton,Maria Alessia Rossi,2023-10-03 Where are the limits of medieval art as a field of study What happens when conventionally trained art historians disregard the chronological geographical or cultural parameters that both direct and protect their scholarship Beginning with Thelma K Thomas and Alicia Walker s acute assessment of the need for a medieval art history for now the essays in Out of Bounds ask what happens when the study of medieval art disregards boundaries that it once obeyed The volume focuses on questions surrounding the production of knowledge and on how scholarly investigation beyond the conventional thematic boundaries of medieval art history is changing demonstrating how the field can address the ethics of scholarship today by positing a global turn in response to growing demands for socially responsible medieval studies Collectively the contributors demonstrate how going out of bounds can transform modern understanding of the people traditions and relationships that gave rise to medieval works As such this book argues for the necessity of reshaping scholarly discourse about the nature and significance of medieval art and generates fresh scholarly interpretations and important new critical tools for teaching and researching the Middle Ages
