Index to Poetry in Music Carol June Bradley, 2014-03-18 Encompassing both the art song and Lieder traditions the book includes comprehensive lists of the compositions of 125 major western composers identities of the poets who wrote the lyrics titles used by respective composers with cross references from variant titles used by other composers cross references from the first lines publishers of the individual songs location of individual songs within the collected works of individual composers and date of composition With this resource a reader can find the songs written by a particular composer who published a specific song and which composers might have set a particular poem to music Bradley's guide offers a user friendly contemporary index of information for which scholars previously had to search extensively

Song of Songs Gianni Barbiero, 2011-04-26 This book puts forward an interpretation of the Canticle which is alert to the literal sense of the poem The author thus distances himself both from the allegorical interpretation and from an interpretation that is purely secular According to the author the Song offers a theological vision of human love Barbiero sees the Song as composed in the third century BC in the Hellenistic epoch but also as hugely dependent on the love poetry of the Ancient Near East particularly that of Egypt Above all however the Song was composed in dialogue with the other books of the Old Testament especially in contrast with the negative view of sexuality which they represent The study pays particular attention to the structure of the poem and of the individual cantos for

Barbiero the Song is a closely unitary work and is only to be understood as a whole
