Queer And Celtic On The Irish Lgbt Experience English And Irish Edition:

LGBTQ Visibility, Media and Sexuality in Ireland Páraic Kerrigan, 2020-12-29 This book traces the turbulent history of queer visibility in the Irish media to explore the processes by which a regionally based media system shaped queer identities within a highly conservative and religious population The book details the emergence of an LGBTQ rights movement in Ireland and charts how this burgeoning movement utilised the media for the liberatory potential of advancing LGBTQ rights However mainstream media institutions also exploited queer identities for economic purposes which coupled with the eruption of the AIDS pandemic in the 1980s disrupted the mainstreaming goals of queer visibility Drawing on industrial societal and production culture determinants the author identifies the shifting contours of queer visibility in the Irish media uncovering the longstanding relationship between LGBTQ organising and the Irish media This book is suitable for students and scholars in gender studies media studies cultural studies and LGBTQ studies

The Irish Short Story at the Turn of the Twenty-First Century Madalina Armie, 2022-12-30 In the mid 1990s Ireland was experiencing the best of times The Celtic Tiger seemed to instil in the national consciousness that poverty was a problem of the past The impressive economic performance ensured that the Republic occupied one of the top positions among the world's economic powers During the boom dissident voices continuously criticised what they considered to be a mirage identifying the precariousness of its structures and foretelling its eventual crash The 2008 recession proved them right Throughout this time the Irish contemporary short story expressed distrust Enabled by its capacity to reflect change with immediacy and dexterity the short story saw through the smokescreen created by the Celtic Tiger discourse of well being It reinterpreted and captured the worst and the best of the country and became a bridge connecting tradition and modernity The major objective of this book is to analyse the interactions between fiction and reality during this period in Ireland by studying the short stories written by old and emergent voices published between the birth of the Celtic Tiger in 1995 up to its immediate aftermath in 2013
