Queering Of A Black Man:

Queering Black Atlantic Religions Roberto Strongman, 2019-03-14 In Queering Black Atlantic Religions Roberto Strongman examines Haitian Vodou, Cuban Lucum Santería, and Brazilian Candomblé to demonstrate how religious rituals of trance possession allow humans to understand themselves as embodiments of the divine. In these rituals, the commingling of humans and the divine produces gender identities that are independent of biological sex. As opposed to the Cartesian view of the spirit as locked within the body, the body in Afro diasporic religions is an open receptacle. Showing how trance possession is a primary aspect of almost all Afro diasporic cultural production, Strongman articulates transcorporeality as a Black Atlantic understanding of the human psyche, soul, and gender as multiple, removable, and external to the body.

Queering Black Churches Brandon Thomas Crowley, 2024 Queering Black Churches explores how open and affirming, historically Black churches have queered their congregations. Using the lenses of practical theology, ecclesiology, Queer theology, and gender studies, Brandon Thomas Crowley examines the heteronormative histories, theologies, morals, values, and structures of Black churches and how their longstanding assumptions can be challenged to dismantle homophobia within African American congregations and move beyond surface-level allyship toward actual structural renovation.

Queering Law and Order Kevin Leo Yabut Nadal, 2020-07-22 Throughout US history, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer LGBTQ people have been pathologized, victimized, and criminalized. Reports of lynching, burning, or murdering of LGBTQ people have been documented for centuries. Prior to the 1970s, LGBTQ people were deemed as having psychological disorders and subsequently subject to electroshock therapy and other ineffective and cruel treatments. LGBTQ people have historically been arrested or imprisoned for crimes like sodomy, cross-dressing, and gathering in public spaces. And while there have been many strides to advocate for LGBTQ rights in contemporary times, there are still many ways that the criminal justice system works against LGBTQ and their lives, liberties, and freedoms. Queering Law and Order: LGBTQ Communities and the Criminal Justice System examines the state of LGBTQ people within the criminal justice system. Intertwining legal cases, academic research, and popular media, Nadal reviews a wide range of issues ranging from historical heterosexist and transphobic legislation to police brutality to the prison industrial complex to family law. Grounded in Queer Theory and intersectional lenses, each chapter provides recommendations for queering and disrupting the justice system. This book serves as both an academic resource and a call to action for readers who are interested in advocating for LGBTQ rights.

Embracing Queer Students' Diverse Identities at Historically Black Colleges and Universities Steve D. Mobley Jr., Nadrea R. Njoku, Jennifer M. Johnson, Lori D. Patton, 2024-10-11 Embracing Queer Students' Diverse Identities at Historically Black Colleges and Universities: A Primer for Presidents, Administrators, and Faculty is both a call to action and a resource for historically Black college and university HBCU leaders and administrators focusing on historical and contemporary issues related to expanding inclusionary policies and practices for members of HBCU communities who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer LGBTQ The essays by HBCU presidents faculty administrators alumni and researchers explore the specific challenges and considerations of serving LGBTQ students within these distinct college and university settings with the ultimate goal of summoning HBCU communities higher education scholars and scholar practitioners to take thoughtful and urgent action to support and recognize LGBTQ students With this book as a primary resource HBCUs can work toward becoming fully inclusive campus communities for all of their students

Queering Professionalism: Pitfalls and Possibilities Adam Davies and Cameron Greensmith, A Misrepresented People Darrius D'wayne Hills, 2025-01-21 Offers a Black male response to the challenge of womanist thought Although much Black religious scholarship has engaged with feminist theory and womanist thought a gap remains where little work has been done in religious studies to investigate the Black male experience A Misrepresented People explores how African American men grapple with identity and masculinity in relation to Black religious thought This book counters the dominant portrayal of Black men in American society as suspicious morally defective and irredeemable and showcases the strength and relevance of Black religious thought in developing alternative notions of Black manhood Drawing on womanist discourses African American religious thought literature and Black male studies as well as an examination of the writings and sermons of Howard Thurman and Martin Luther King Jr Darrius D wayne Hills offers a vision of Black male identity that is grounded in interpersonal relationships and connection Positioning identity formation as a religious concern Hills expands the application of religious scholarship toward the complex social and material realities faced by Black men In doing so this volume offers a much needed new model for understanding Black male gender identity illustrating how religious thought fosters more holistic and livable futures for African American men

Spaghetti Sissies Queering Italian American Media Julia Heim, Sole Anatrone, 2023-04-28 This contributed volume brings together personal accounts and scholarly research in an examination of the LGBTQIA Italian American experience and representation in North American media This is a population that has long been ignored both as an object of study and as a media maker and consumer Through consistent filmic representation the image of the Italian American has become archetypal leaving us with a set of immediately recognizable characters the hyper macho blue collar greaser the anti intellectual GTL Guido the child obsessed mamma and the heteronormative mafia family The rhetorical and literal loudness of these characters drowns out other possible embodiments of Italian American identity so that few examples survive of Italian Americans that do not conform to these classed heterosexual modes of being This volume fills that void foregrounding the importance of representation and of rethinking the historical narratives and cultural stereotypes surrounding Italian American identity This book is especially designed for those with an interest in queer theory gender and sexuality studies Italian American studies and media and cultural studies

Queer Roots for the Diaspora Jarrod Hayes,2023-06-20 Employing rootedness as a way of understanding identity has increasingly been subjected to acerbic political and theoretical critiques Politically roots narratives have been criticized for attempting to police identity through a politics of purity excluding anyone who doesn t share the same narrative Theoretically a critique of essentialism has led to a suspicion against essence and origins regardless of their political implications The central argument of Queer Roots for the Diaspora is that in spite of these debates ultimately the desire for roots contains the roots of its own deconstruction The book considers alternative root narratives that acknowledge the impossibility of returning to origins with any certainty welcome sexual diversity acknowledge their own fictionality reveal that even a single collective identity can be rooted in multiple ways and create family trees haunted by the queer others patrilineal genealogy seems to marginalize The roots narratives explored in this book simultaneously assert and question rooted identities within a number of diasporas African Jewish and Armenian By looking at these together one can discern between the local specificities of any single diaspora and the commonalities inherent in diaspora as a global phenomenon This comparatist interdisciplinary study will interest scholars in a diversity of fields including diaspora studies postcolonial studies LGBTQ studies French and Francophone studies American studies comparative literature and literary theory
