Questions And Admissions Reflections On 100000 Admissions Decisions At Stanford:

Questions and Admissions Jean H. Fetter,1997-07-01 Written in a lively and accessible manner by a former Dean of Undergraduate Admissions at Stanford University this book will enlighten prospective college applicants and their parents teachers and guidance counselors about many of the practical fundamental philosophical and ethical issues involved in the selection of any college freshman class Meritocracy and the University Anna Mountford Zimdars,2016-04-07 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Who gets into elite universities how and why What are places like Harvard in the United States or Cambridge in England looking for when they admit undergraduate students What qualities do selectors value and how do they decide between many applicants with often stellar attainment records And are we all better off because of who these elite universities admit

Meritocracy and the University provides an insight into the world of university admissions Based on interviews with professional admissions staff and academic faculty members who select students the book explains what selectors value and how they make decisions By shining a light on the world of university admissions in England and in the United States readers are invited to reflect on the similarities and differences in who selects and how selection is done the purpose and mission of universities and the challenges universities face in building fair admissions processes when earlier opportunities to shine in education are unequally distributed Ivy+ Admission Analytics for the Fox Parent ,2011 Leveling the Playing Field Robert K. Fullinwider,Judith Lichtenberg,2004-03-19 Leveling the Playing Field examines the admissions policies of contemporary American colleges and universities in light of the assumption that enhancing the educational opportunities of lower income and minority students would make American society more just It asks how current admissions policies affect the prospects of such students and it evaluates alternative approaches The book treats a variety of topics relevant to answering these questions What does it mean to reward people according to merit Is the American system of higher education a meritocracy and should it be How do the missions of contemporary institutions of higher education bear on admissions What are the implications of the Supreme Court's landmark affirmative action decisions of 2003 What is the proper role and significance of standardized tests like the SAT How does lower education prepare students or fail to for higher education In answering these questions the book examines legacy preference early admissions policies financial aid the test prep industry college counseling and athletics evaluating their effects on the distribution of higher education in the United States not only for lower income and minority students but for college bound students in general The Early Admissions Game Christopher Avery,Andrew Fairbanks,Richard Zeckhauser,2009-07-01 Based on the careful examination of more than 500 000 applications to fourteen elite colleges and hundreds of interviews with students counselors and admissions officers this book details the advantages and pitfalls of applying early as it provides a map for students and parents to navigate the process Mapping the Social Landscape Susan J. Ferguson,2020-08-27 The author is a proud sponsor of the 2020 SAGE Keith Roberts Teaching Innovations Award enabling graduate students and early career faculty to attend the annual ASA pre conference teaching and learning workshop Mapping The Social Landscape is one of the most established and widely used readers for Introductory Sociology The organization follows that of a typical introductory sociology course and provides coverage of key concepts including culture socialization deviance social structure social inequality social institutions and social change Susan J Ferguson selects edits and introduces 58 readings representing a plurality of voices and views within sociology The selections include classic statements from great thinkers like C Wright Mills Karl Marx and Max Weber as well of the works of contemporary scholars who address current social issues Throughout this collection there are many opportunities to discuss individual interactional and structural levels of society the roles of race ethnicity class gender and sexuality in shaping social life and the intersection of statuses and identities Included with this title The password protected Instructor Resource Site formally known as SAGE Edge offers access to all text specific resources including a test bank and editable chapter specific PowerPoint slides

Privilege and Diversity in the Academy Frances A. Maher, Mary Kay Thompson Tetreault, 2013-10-18 Over the past several decades higher education has been transformed by the entry of faculty of color and women into the university system Through detailed institutional ethnographies of three very different universities Privilege and Diversity in the Academy explores how this diversification has dismantled and reconfigured relationships of privilege and diversity in higher education Authors Maher and Tetreault use examples from a top ranked private university a comprehensive urban university and a major public university to illustrate how privilege is enacted resisted and transformed as changes occur in the student bodies and faculties of these schools In their analyses they identify the institutional structures that facilitate the success of a diverse faculty and make valuable observations about patterns of institutional change and resistance

Creating a Class Mitchell L. Stevens, 2009-09-15 For a year and a half Stevens worked in the admissions office of a New England college known for high academic standards a beautiful campus and social conscience Ambitious high schoolers and savvy guidance counselors know that admission here is highly competitive But creating classes Stevens finds is more complicated than most imagine

Access to Higher Education Anna Mountford-Zimdars, Neil Harrison, 2016-11-18 How do we understand and explain who has access to higher education How do we make sense of persisting and new forms of inequality How can global national and institutional policymakers and practitioners make higher education more inclusive Access to Higher Education Theoretical perspectives and contemporary challenges seeks to update thinking on these questions combining new voices and emerging perspectives with established writers in the field This pioneering text highlights the contribution of social theory to issues of access to education with chapters introducing and drawing on the works of key interdisciplinary thinkers including Pierre Bourdieu Margaret Archer Amartya Sen and Herbert Simon It then moves to examines how theoretical perspectives can be applied to the contemporary challenges of forging more equal access with examples drawn from a wide range of contexts including the

UK the US Australia South Africa and Japan Global in scope this book documents the shared nature of the access challenge in a period when higher education is growing rapidly but inequalities continue to be stark It concludes by proposing a new direction for research and a reassertion of the role of the researcher as a social activist for disconnected and disadvantaged groups equipped with the thinking tools needed to move the agenda forward Access to Higher Education is a rigorous text for the global research community with relevance to policymakers practitioners and postgraduate students interested in social justice and social policy It provides those with an academic interest in access and a commitment to enhancing policy with theoretical and practical ideas for moving the access agenda forward in their institutional regional or national contexts

The Use and Abuse of Power Annette Y. Lee-Chai, John Bargh, 2015-12-03 A compilation of works from prominent researchers promoting both a panoramic and multilevel understanding of this complex construct with focus on power as a cause of social ills and remedies to prevent corruption and abuse
