Preparing Kingdom God Encounters Teachings:

Preparing for the Kingdom of God - Book 1 Glenn K. Van Rooyen, 2015-12-23 Are you preparing for Heaven and Jesus Christ's soon coming? This book is a result of direct messages and visions from our Lord Jesus Christ and true experiences that members of our ministry have had with Him since 2010. We are sharing these Biblical teachings, testimonies, and visions for your edification and to encourage you to keep growing in your relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in readiness for Heaven. Grow in your faith, trusting God, seeking Him, being obedient to His Word, and bearing good spiritual fruit. Fear the Lord, heed His corrections, and live a holy life in preparation for the end time and His soon return. Study your Bible, pray, share the Gospel, and be faithful in your walk with the Lord Jesus Christ. And have you completely forgotten this word of encouragement that addresses you as a father addresses his son? It says: My son, do not make light of the Lord's discipline, and do not lose heart when He rebukes you, because the Lord disciplines the one He loves, and He chastens everyone He accepts as His son. Hebrews 12:5-6 Look! I am coming soon. My reward is with me, and I will give to each person according to what they have done. Revelation 22:12

Prepare the Way of the Lord Kirsten Marie Hartvigsen, 2012-10-30 This study analyzes an oral performance of the entire Gospel of Mark with emphasis on involvement with characters and events, the emotional effects of such involvement, and how these processes maintain or shape the identity of those who hear the Gospel. Insights from cognitive poetics and psychonarratology are employed to illuminate the complex cognitive processes that take place when audience members experience an oral performance of the Gospel. Consequently, this study expands previous research on the Gospel of Mark which was conducted on the basis of narrative criticism, orality criticism, and performance criticism by including cognitive aspects. Cognitive poetics and psychonarratology have, to my knowledge, not been extensively employed to illuminate an oral performance of the Gospel of Mark previously. This investigation provides:

1. An original coherent theoretical and methodological framework
2. An analysis of mechanisms which promote involvement with characters and events in the Markan narrative
3. An examination of the prospective emotional effects of such involvement
4. Reflections on the potential of these mechanisms with regard to identity maintenance or formation through cultural memory
5. A cognitive poetic commentary on the entire Gospel of Mark

Teaching the Faith Donna Habenicht, Larry Dale Burton, 2004

The Making of a Disciple Edward W. Watson, Martin M. Culy, 2021-09-02 Modern readers sometimes view the Gospels and other biblical narratives as mere historical accounts of events that occurred long ago. Biblical narratives, however, are intended to do far more than teach us history. They are intended to change how we think and how we live. In The Making of a Disciple, Watson and Culy use insights from narrative criticism to show that the message of the Gospel of John is communicated not only through the teachings and deeds of Jesus but also through the actions of the other main characters and the consequences of their actions. As readers observe characters interacting with Jesus, they are implicitly encouraged to either emulate or avoid their behavior. Coupled with the teachings and acts of Jesus, these characters serve as potent tools in
