Playful Pedagogies: Young Children Learning in International and Multicultural Contexts Anna Cox,Estelle Tarry,2015-05-25

In the 21st century what the future holds for young learners is unclear what is clear is that they need to be confident capable and resilient As wider communication about education is increasing there is a developing understanding that children in settings across the globe learn in the same ways and have the same needs How these are best met demands reflection and effective contexts for early learning reflect the needs and demands of the communities they serve This book considers international and multicultural learning environments from both theoretical and practical perspectives It is written by specialists in early years education in the UK and in international contexts all of whom have a passion for young children s learning The theoretical perspectives are supported by eight case studies from Uganda Indonesia Mexico Qatar Netherlands Italy the United Kingdom and Romania Teaching Mathematics as to be Meaningful – Foregrounding Play and Children’s Perspectives Hanna Palmér, Camilla Björklund, Elin Reikerås, Jessica Elofsson, 2023-10-29 This open access book s theme is Teaching mathematics as to be meaningful foregrounding children s play and perspectives It discusses the relation between teachers children and mathematical content within the context of play with a particular focus on the framing of these relations within this context which is an important theme in the debate on whether teaching should be integrated with or separated from children s play The work further addresses meaningfulness in the learning process particularly from the child s perspective Globally most guidelines and curricula for early childhood education mention play as one of the key features for young children s learning Still there are quite different views on the definitions of play and in what ways play should become part of children s learning The chapters of the book mirror the research topics presented at the fifth POEM conference in May 2022 divided into four sub themes Play and learning Children s perspectives on mathematics Teachers competencies and Theorizing aspects of early mathematics education
