GOD THE FATHER

IMPORTANT FACTS

- I am a literal child of God
- As His child I have divine, eternal potential
- His desire is for me to dwell with Him eternally
- I can communicate with Him through prayer
- I can draw closer to Him through scripture study
- God the Father is the Supreme Being in whom we believe and whom we worship.
- He is the ultimate Creator, Ruler, and Preserver of all things.
- He is perfect, has all power, and knows all things.
- He "has a body of flesh and bones as tangible as man's"
- Our Heavenly Father is a God of judgment and strength and knowledge and power
- He is also a God of perfect love and charity.

MOSES 1:39

His work and glory is to bring to pass our immortality and eternal life.

GENESIS 1:26-27

We are made in His image!

DEUT 130:22

He has a body of flesh and bones

1 NEPHI 11:7

Even though we do not know the meaning of all things, we can know that He loves us

PREACH MY GOSPEL

God is the Father of our spirits. He literally has children, and He has lived as spirit children of our Father before we were born. We were not, however, like Father, nor could we ever and enjoy all the blessings without the expiating with a physical. God's whole purpose—

Life after Tragedy Michael W. Brierley, Georgina A. Byrne, 2017-07-06 Much has been written on the centenary of the First World War however no book has yet explored the tragedy of the conflict from a theological perspective This book fills that gap Taking their cue from the famous British army chaplain Geoffrey Studdert Kennedy seven central essays all by authors associated with the cathedral where Studdert Kennedy first preached to troops examine aspects of faith that featured in the war such as the notion of home poetry theological doctrine preaching social reform humanitarianism and remembrance Each essay applies its reflections to the life of faith today The essays thus represent a highly original contribution to the history of the First World War in general and the work of Studdert Kennedy in particular and they provide wider theological insight into how in the contemporary world life and tragedy God and suffering can be integrated The book will accordingly be of considerable interest to historians both of the war and of the church to communities commemorating the war and to all those who wrestle with current challenges to faith A foreword by Studdert Kennedy's grandson and an afterword by the bishop of Magdeburg in Germany render this a volume of remarkable depth and worth

The Impact of Plain Language on Legal English in the United Kingdom Christopher Williams, 2022-08-23 This volume offers insights into the ways in which plain language has influenced the language of the law in the United Kingdom critically reflecting on its historical development and future directions The book opens with an overview of the theoretical frameworks underpinning plain language and a brief history of plain language initiatives as a foundation from which to outline ongoing debates on the opportunities and challenges of using plain language in the legal domain The volume details strands where plain language has had considerable impact thus far on legal English in the UK notably in legislative drafting but it also explores areas in which plain language has made fewer inroads such as the language of court judgments and that of online terms and conditions The book looks ahead to unpack highly topical areas within the plain language debate including the question of design and visualisation and the ramifications of digitalisation contributing to ongoing conversations on the importance of plain language both in the UK and beyond This book will be of particular interest to students and scholars interested in the intersection of language and the law as well as related disciplinary areas such as applied linguistics and English for Specific Purposes

Trans New Wave Cinema Akkadia Ford, 2021-04-22 This book presents a critical cultural study of the Trans New Wave as a cinematic genre and explores its emergence in the twenty first century Drawing on a diverse range of texts the cultural social aesthetic and ethical implications of the genre are placed within the context of rapidly changing understandings of gender diversity From the cinematic borderlands of independent film festivals to wider public recognition via digital technologies the genre encompasses a diverse range of texts from short films documentaries experimental films to feature films and narratives that range across life histories narratives and themes The book presents transliteracy as an original theoretical approach to reading film representations of the Trans New Wave and combines it with a new theoretical concept of cinematic ethnogenesis to investigate how the genre emerged from specific communities and the reciprocal interaction of audiences and texts This interdisciplinary volume engages with contemporary issues of gender diversity transgender studies screen and media studies and film festival studies and as such will be of great interest to scholars working in these fields and in media and cultural studies more generally

The Just and Loving Gaze of God with Us, Second Edition Henry Walter Spaulding III, 2024-08-01 In recent years Paul has become the subject of renewed interest among political philosophers These philosophers deploy Paul as a means to deconstruct late modern political issues such as liberalism biopolitics and sovereignty However these philosophers ultimately truncate Paul s message to fit nontheistic materialist ends Such an approach polarizes interpreters often leading either to a full endorsement or full rejection In this work Spaulding adds a needed voice in this conversation By neither fully endorsing or fully rejecting the new approach to Paul Spaulding argues that Paul's message is both materialist and faithful to the Christian tradition Spaulding critically utilizes both the new approach and recent studies in apocalyptic interpretations of Paul in order to articulate a Pauline political theology for our time Pauline apocalyptic emphasizes the already disruptive nature of the incarnation crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth that wrests humanity from under the sovereignty of the fallen powers and places them under the Lordship of Christ Apocalyptic is nourished by the promise of the eschatological hope of the not yet finished work of Christ The church that follows the Lordship of Christ is called forth into being in the tension of the present Lordship of Christ and the not yet transformation of the cosmos Such a tension begets practices that form the political commitment of what philosopher Iris Murdoch calls the just and loving gaze namely the central conviction that in order to live good political lives one must be taught to see
