The Mind Clearing System Bernd Neuhaus, 2021-10-08 Many people read books about positive thinking and still do not achieve the desired success Why is that

It is solely due to unconscious beliefs that we have recorded since conception and that contradict the desired result As can be seen from the brain waves children are constantly in a receptive mode ready to absorb all the information from the caregivers and from the environment that they need to be able to cope with their lives later The solution is simply to systematically look at one's own life and to question oneself according to which beliefs one acts And non servant beliefs are changed into servant beliefs with this method Through the targeted application of mind clearing we achieve absolute mental clarity and can thus lead a conscious and happy life But beware a targeted use of mind clearing will change you and your life You will become braver healthier more confident more successful and fuller of energy A Way to Wisdom Cletus N.
