explanations of conscious human experience relying either upon neuroscience or appealing to a spiritual soul fail to provide a complete and coherent theory. These explanations, the author argues, fall short because the underlying explanatory constituent for all experience are not entities such as the brain or a spiritual soul but rather relation and the unique way in which human beings form relations. This alternative frontier is developed through examining the phenomenological method of Martin Heidegger and the semiotic theory of Charles S. Peirce. While both of these thinkers independently provide great insight into the difficulty of accounting for human experience, this volume brings these insights into a new complementary synthesis. This synthesis opens new doors for understanding all aspects of conscious human experience, not just those that can be quantified and without appealing to a mysterious spiritual principle.

The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia of Philosophers in America John R. Shook, 2016-02-11. For scholars working on almost any aspect of American thought, The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia to Philosophers in America presents an indispensable reference work. Selecting over 700 figures from the Dictionary of Early American Philosophers and the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers, this condensed edition includes key contributors to philosophical thought. From 1600 to the present day, entries cover psychology, pedagogy, sociology, anthropology, education, theology, and political science, before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy. Clear and accessible, each entry contains a short biography of the writer, an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas, a bibliography of writings, and suggestions for further reading. Featuring a new preface by the editor and a comprehensive introduction, The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia to Philosophers in America includes 30 new entries on twenty-first century thinkers, including Martha Nussbaum and Patricia Churchland. With in-depth overviews of Waldo Emerson, Margaret Fuller, Noah Porter, Frederick Rauch, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Paine, and Thomas Jefferson, this is an invaluable one-stop research volume to understanding leading figures in American thought and the development of American intellectual history.

Bloomsbury Semiotics Volume 1: History and Semiosis Jamin Pelkey, 2023-01-12. Bloomsbury Semiotics offers a state-of-the-art overview of the entire field of semiotics by revealing its influence on a wide range of disciplinary perspectives. With four volumes spanning theory, method, and practice across the disciplines, this definitive reference work emphasizes and strengthens common bonds shared across intellectual cultures and facilitates the discovery and recovery of meaning across fields. It comprises Volume 1: History and Semiosis, Volume 2: Semiotics in the Natural and Technical Sciences, Volume 3: Semiotics in the Arts and Social Sciences, and Volume 4: Semiotic Movements. Written by leading international experts, the chapters provide comprehensive overviews of the history and status of semiotic inquiry across a diverse range of traditions and disciplines. Together, they highlight key contemporary developments and debates along with ongoing research priorities. Providing the most comprehensive and united overview of the field, Bloomsbury Semiotics enables anyone, from students to seasoned practitioners, to better understand and benefit from semiotic insight and how it relates to their own area of study or research. Volume 1: History and Semiosis provides a general and historical orientation to semiotic traditions and their methodologies followed by an in depth overview of critical issues in the study of sign systems and semiosis It ends with an exploration of issues of sign classification and practical application setting the scene for the remaining volumes

Intersemiotic Perspectives on Emotions Susan Petrilli, Meng Ji, 2022-07-29 This edited volume explores emotion and its translations through the global world from a variety of different perspectives as a personal socio cultural ideological ethical and political even business investment in the latest phases of globalisation Emotions are powerful in engaging or disengaging individuals communities the masses peoples and nations with distinct linguistic and cultural backgrounds for good but also for evil All depends on how emotions are interpreted that is translated in words or in facts in any case in signs Semiotic reflection on emotions and their interpretation translation is thus of essential importance An adequate understanding of emotional phenomena and their complexities calls for different views which together reveal and illustrate inconsistencies in our modern life The contributors argue that an investigation of types of emotional translation linguistic and non linguistic audio visual theatrical literary racial legal architectural political and so forth can contribute to a better understanding of emotions and how they are exploited to engender injustice unfairness absurdity in contemporary life Nonetheless emotions are also exploited and oriented and this is the intent of our authors to favour the development of sustainable multicultural societies and facilitate living together A major reference for students and scholars in translation semiotics language and cultural studies around the world

Semiotics and Documentary Film Hing Tsang, 2013-10-29

Semiotics and Documentary Film The Living Sign in the Cinema engages with very vital problems posed by Peirce s philosophy in an innovative and inter disciplinary fashion by examining how documentary film practice can engage with the question of emergent human agency within a wider biosphere shared by human animals and non human animals alike The book is in many ways a celebration of human inquiry taking liberally from Peirce s semeiotic and parallel ideas within recent visual anthropology Through an analysis of the work of three renowned filmmakers Jon Jost Johan Van der Keuken and Rithy Panh Semiotics and Documentary Film The Living Sign in the Cinema reasserts human agency within a global age dominated by philosophical scepticism and an unquestioning subservience to mechanistic military techno culture The author argues that an approach to documentary inquiry broadly derived from Peirce s sign theory phenomenology and overall philosophical outlook has strong advantages over atemporal formal approaches derived from Saussurean semiology Nevertheless this project is also both critical and self critical It also bears direct testament to the many tumultuous and life destroying events of the late 20th century and reminds us of the moral and philosophical problems which we are still grappling with in the early 21st century Hence the Living Sign
