Seneca Medea Aris Phillips Classical Texts Latin Edition:

Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing Catherine H. Lusheck, 2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re-examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens Flemish 1577 1640 in light of early modern traditions of eloquence particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius 1547 1606 Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist's approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period 1600 08 this volume highlights Rubens's high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing a Senecan approach to eclecticism a commitment to emulation and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles Two chapter long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens's early practice of drawing Focusing on Rubens's Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children Los Angeles Getty Museum and Kneeling Man Rotterdam Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen these close looking case studies demonstrate Rubens's commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens's intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age

Seneca and the Idea of Tragedy Gregory A. Staley, 2010-01-14 The question of why Seneca wrote tragedy has been debated since at least the 13th century Since Seneca was a Stoic critics assumed he wrote with the standard Stoic theory of explore these strategies in ancient prose and verse narratives Detailed analysis of language and style is combined with a careful consideration of the more general features of ancient literary genres narratology joins forces with the study of emotions and with neurocognitive perspectives Reader immersion is a pervasive aspect of all kinds of narrative literature but it is more prominent in some texts than in others In this study Luca Graverini analyses a broad range of ancient narrative works spanning several centuries and different literary genres In purely chronological order these include the comedies of Plautus the Aeneid of Vergil the Metamorphoses of Ovid the tragedies of Seneca the Satyricon of Petronius and the Metamorphoses of Apuleius The interpretive approach adopted in this monograph can attract the interest of many readers with different backgrounds and working on different subjects The Classical Review ,2002
