Ungrateful Daughters Justyna Wlodarczyk, 2010-08-11 Has the third wave of feminism in the United States spawned a literary movement Is there a third wave equivalent of the consciousness raising novel A lot has been written about the relationship of the third wave of feminism in the United States to the second wave yet no one has examined works by young female writers as belonging to the third wave of feminism This book fills the gap Using tools of literary criticism to analyze the literary output of third wave feminism in the United States Ungrateful Daughters looks at the main anthologies of third wave writings paying attention to their structure production process and narrative forms used in the individual pieces It also attempts to define third wave fiction and analyze the memoirs and novels coming from writers who could be classified as third wave specifically Rebecca Walker Danzy Senna and Michelle Tea tracing how these books exhibit third wave sensibility and reflect generational experiences of third wave writers A lot of attention is devoted to comparisons of second and third wave feminism and the ambivalent relationship of third wave feminism to postfeminism Wendy Kaminer wrote in True Love Waits If it ultimately fails as a liberation movement feminism will at least have achieved considerable literary success Ungrateful Daughters examines whether the literary success helps or hinders the cause of women s liberation Color Appearance Models Mark D.

Fairchild,2013-06-07 The essential resource for readers needing to understand visual perception and for those trying to produce reproduce and measure color appearance in various applications such as imaging entertainment materials design architecture and lighting This book builds upon the success of previous editions and will continue to serve the needs of those professionals working in the field to solve practical problems or looking for background for on going research projects It would also act as a good course text for senior undergraduates and postgraduates studying color science The 3rd Edition of Color Appearance Models contains numerous new and expanded sections providing an updated review of color appearance and includes many of the most widely used models to date ensuring its continued success as the comprehensive resource on color appearance models Key features Presents the fundamental concepts and phenomena of color appearance what objects look like in typical viewing situations and practical techniques to measure model and predict those appearances Includes the clear explanation of fundamental concepts that makes the implementation of mathematical models very easy to understand Explains many different types of models and offers a clear context for the models their use and future directions in the field

Loneliness in Philosophy, Psychology, and Literature Ben Lazare Mijuskovic,2012-04-20 Drawing on the fields of psychology literature and philosophy Loneliness in Philosophy Psychology and Literature argues that loneliness has been the universal concern of mankind since the Greek myths and dramas the dialogues of Plato and the treatises of Aristotle Author Ben Lazare Mijuskovic whose insights are culled from both his theoretical studies and his practical experiences contends that loneliness has constituted a universal theme of Western thought from the Hellenic age into the contemporary period In Loneliness in Philosophy Psychology and Literature he shows how man has always felt alone and that the meaning of man is loneliness Presenting both a discussion and a philosophical inquiry into the nature of loneliness Mijuskovic cites examples from more than one hundred writers on loneliness including Erich Fromm Frieda Fromm Reichmann Clark Moustakas Rollo May and James Howard in psychology Thomas Hardy Joseph Conrad James Joyce Thomas Wolfe and William Golding in literature and Descartes Kant Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Sartre in philosophy Insightful and comprehensive Loneliness in Philosophy Psychology and Literature demonstrates that loneliness is the basic nature of humans and is an unavoidable condition that all must face European Review 21 2 May 2013 309 311 Ben Mijuskovic Loneliness in Philosophy Psychology and Literature Bloomington IN iUniverse 2012 Ben Lazare Mijuskovic offers in his book a very different approach to loneliness According to him far from being an occasional or temporary phenomenon loneliness or better the fear of loneliness is the strongest motivational drive in human beings He argues that following the replenishment of air water nourishment and sleep the most insistent and immediate necessity is man's desire to escape his loneliness to avoid the feeling of existential human isolation p xxx The Leibnizian image of the monadas as a self enclosed windowless being gives an acute portrait of this oppressive prison To support this thesis Mijuskovic uses an interdisciplinary approach philosophy psychology and literature through which the picture of man as continually fighting to escape the quasi solipsistic prison of his frightening solitude reverberates Besides insisting on the primacy of our human concern to struggle with the spectre of loneliness Mijuskovic has sought to account for the reasons why this is the case The core of his argumentation relies on a theory of consciousness In Western thought three dominant models can be distinguished a the self consciousness or reflexive model b the empirical or behavioral model and c the intentional or phenomenological model According to the last two models it is difficult if not inconceivable to understand how loneliness is even possible Only the theory that attributes a reflexive nature to the powers of the mind can adequately explain loneliness The very constitution of our consciousness determines our confinement When a human being successfully reflects on his self reflexively captures his own intrinsically unique situation he grasps self consciously the nothingness of his existence as a transcendental condition universal necessary a priori structuring his entire being in the world This originary level of recognition is the ground source for his sensory cognitive awareness of loneliness p 13 Silvana Mandolesi
