My Arab Spring My Canada:

Security Aid: Canada and the Development Regime of Security Jeffrey Monaghan, 2017-01-01 Drawing on an array of previously classified materials and interviews with security experts Security Aid presents a critical analysis of the securitization of humanitarian aid Canada's Department of Terrorism? Hamad Subani, 2013-09-18 In October 2010 Al Qaida attempted to bomb two cargo planes flying out of the Middle East They took credit for this failed attempt through an English magazine named INSPIRE Was INSPIRE really the work of Al Qaida or was it s editor a Canadian named Beverly Giesbrecht She had earlier hosted a reactionary Al Qaida website jihadunspun com out of Vancouver Canada In 2008 she was kidnapped in Afghanistan while trying to infiltrate the Taliban Shortly after she was released in June 2009 she died disappeared in strange circumstances Or was this an exit strategy And was INSPIRE her new assignment Using his personal familiarity with Bev s first foray into the world of Jihad jihadunspun com the author connects Bev to INSPIRE magazine and by extension to the cargo plane bombing plot What emerges is a sinister picture of Western Intelligence Agencies floating their own secret Jihad groups for a variety of criminal undertakings and the anatomy of a false flag operation gone wrong

Producing Islams(s) in Canada Amélie Barras, Jennifer A. Selby, Melanie Adrian, 2022-01-10 During the last twenty years public interest in Islam and how Muslims express their religious identity in Western societies has grown exponentially In parallel the study of Islam in the Canadian academy has grown in a number of fields since the 1970s reflecting a diverse range of scholarship positionalities and politics Yet academic research on Muslims in Canada has not been systematically assessed In Producing Islam s in Canada scholars from a wide range of disciplines come together to explore what is at stake regarding portrayals of Islam s and Muslims in academic scholarship Given the centrality of representations of Canadian Muslims in current public policy and public imaginaries which effects how all Canadians experience religious diversity this analysis of knowledge production comes at a crucial time Africans and Negative Competition in Canadian Factories Fossungu, Peter Ateh-Afac, 2015-02-03 According to Fossungu we need healthy competition for progress Competition that is not geared toward progress is negative competition No competition or the absence of self help is negative competition With factories competing healthily consumers have a variety of quality goods and services from which to choose The entire community benefits when people in any grouping are competing positively thus making the rules of competition graphical The central focus of this book is the extent to which Canadian regulations apply without discrimination to all of Canada and to everyone individuals and corporations alike A swift answer is affirmative But is that really it The book is also about voluntary slavery which is worse than forced enslavement Drawing on Ignorance Theory the book argues that the worst thing that can happen to anyone is to be ignorant of one s ignorance He who does not know what he does not know will never know Voluntary African slaves generally employ One Has No Choice On n a pas le choix to cloak their having chosen not to secure their rights Fossungu demonstrates why he considers this an escapist way of shying away from doing the normal thing thus giving the dictator or oppressor reason to dictate and oppress with impunity This is Fossungu at his provocative and controversial best The Routledge Handbook of Black Canadian Literature Andrea A. Davis, Leslie Sanders, 2024-12-09 The Routledge Handbook of Black Canadian Literature offers a comprehensive overview of the growing and increasingly significant field of Black Canadian literary studies Including historical and contemporary analysis this volume is an essential text that maps the field over the almost 200 years of its existence across a range of genres from slave narratives to prose fiction poetry theatre and dub and spoken word It presents Black Canadian literature as encompassing a diverse set of viewpoints approaches and practices touching every aspect of Canadian territory and life and as deeply influencing debates and understandings of Black peoples far beyond its borders This Handbook employs an interdisciplinary framework that incorporates literary historical geographical and cultural analysis This book comprising 32 chapters is organized into five sections that chart the literature s development into a recognizable canon trace Black literary geographies across Canada from east to west delineate the literature s various genres and expressive forms and honor the writers and thinkers who have influenced the growth of the field This volume s range of subject and plurality of perspectives provide an excellent resource for teachers researchers and students from multiple disciplines including Canadian studies and literature Caribbean studies global Black studies hemispheric studies diaspora studies history and cultural studies The Arab Spring Julien Anders, 2012-10-22 This is a book of fiction that tells the story of normal people living in the Middle East region and their struggles and attitudes during the wars their passions and aspirations for a normal life and their adaptation to the social and political changes It is also a story of prohibited passions complex traditions and the big challenge for these families they need to face seeking a peaceful and honorable life Open Borders Reece Jones, 2019-02-01 Border control continues to be a highly contested and politically charged subject around the world This collection of essays challenges reactionary nationalism by making the positive case for the benefits of free movement for countries on both ends of the exchange Open Borders counters the knee jerk reaction to build walls and close borders by arguing that there is not a moral legal philosophical or economic case for limiting the movement of human beings at borders The volume brings together essays by theorists in anthropology geography international relations and other fields who argue for open borders with writings by activists who are working to make safe passage a reality on the ground It puts forward a clear concise and convincing case for a world without movement restrictions at borders The essays in the first part of the volume make a theoretical case for free movement by analyzing philosophical legal and moral arguments for opening borders In doing so they articulate a sustained critique of the dominant idea that states should favor the rights of their own citizens over the rights of all human beings The second part sketches out the current situation in the European Union in states that have erected border walls in states that have adopted a policy of inclusion such as Germany and Uganda and elsewhere in the world to demonstrate the consequences of the current regime of movement restrictions at borders The third part creates a dialogue between theorists and activists examining the work of Calais Migrant Solidarity No Borders Morocco activists in sanctuary cities and others who contest border restrictions on the ground

Radical Legacies Arthur Redding, 2015-12-24 What use is thinking This study addresses the ways in which modern American thinkers have intervened in the public sphere and attempted to mediate relations between social and political institutions and cultural and intellectual production Chapters on both well known Henry Adams Langston Hughes C Wright Mills Angela Davis and neglected Randolph Bourne Mary McCarthy Paul Goodman public intellectuals considers how these figures have address a range of problems including the dangers and difficulty of critical dissent thought during wartime the contemporary crisis of the humanities under neoliberalism the legacy of American anti intellectualism academic professionalism and the perils of consumer culture and popular tastes This book reviews in as critically sympathetic a manner as possible a select few of the minor and major currents of twentieth century American radical thinking in order to see where they might take us and how they inflect our current social and intellectual predicaments Arguing that any use value theory of intellectual production is limiting Radical Legacies endeavors to maintain and expand a space and reassert an argument for the importance of sustained critical reflection on our collective dilemmas today It assesses a practice of thought that is engaged committed involved and timely without being necessarily practical or even useful

The Myth of Middle East Exceptionalism Mojtaba Mahdavi, 2023-02-28 More than a decade after the birth of contemporary social movements in the Middle East and North Africa scholars are asking what these movements have achieved and how we should evaluate their lasting legacies The quiet encroachments of MENA counterrevolutionary forces in the post Arab Spring era have contributed to the revival of an outdated Orientalist discourse of Middle East exceptionalism implying that the region s culture is exceptionally immune to democratic movements values and institutions This volume inspired by critical post colonial decolonial studies and interdisciplinary perspectives of social movement theories gender studies Islamic studies and critical race theory challenges and demystifies the myth of MENA Exceptionalism Composed of three sections the book first places MENA in the larger global context and sheds light on the impact of geopolitics on the current crises showing how a postcolonial critique better explains the crisis of democratic social movements and the resilience of authoritarianism The second section focuses on the unfinished projects of contemporary MENA social movements and their quest for freedom social justice and human dignity Contributors examine specific cases of post Islamist movements the Arab youth student and other popular non violent movements In the final section the book problematizes the exceptionalist idea of gender passivity and women s exclusion which reduces the reality of gender injustice to some eternal and essentialized Muslim MENA mindset Contributors address this theory by placing gender as an independent category of thought and action demonstrating the quest for gender justice movements in MENA and providing contexts to the cases of gender injustice to challenge simplistic ahistorical and culturalist assumptions
