Morgan Currie, Melisa Miranda Correa

Second Grade Neighborhood Map Project:

Embracing Alternatives to Homework in Early Childhood Angela Eckhoff, 2022-07-08 Providing readers with a robust practical understanding of how young children build knowledge this book offers a critical examination of the ways traditional homework fails young children and how alternatives can better build collaborative engagement with families while supporting learning across all content areas Grounded in culturally sustaining practices the first section breaks down the pedagogies that support deep learning while later chapters emphasize the role of critical and creative thinking project based learning and student choice in the development of engaging personally relevant home learning experiences Embracing Alternatives to Homework in Early Childhood is a critical text for anyone seeking to reimagine homework practices as both equitable and agency building in PreK 3

The Culture and Communities Mapping Project Morgan Currie, Melisa Miranda Correa, 2022-01-01 This book describes three years of work by the Culture and Communities Mapping Project a research project based in Edinburgh that uses maps as an object of study and also a means to facilitate research Taking a self reflexive approach the book draws on a variety of iterative mapping procedures and visual methodologies from online virtual tours to photo elicitation to capture the voices of inhabitants and their distinctive perspectives on the city The book argues that practices of cultural mapping consist of a research field in and of itself and it situates this work in relation to other areas of research and practice including critical cartography cultural geography critical GIS activist mapping and artist maps The book also offers a range of practical approaches towards using print and web based maps to give visibility to spaces traditionally left out of city representations but that are important to the local communities that use them Throughout the authors reflect critically on how through the processes of mapping we create knowledge about space place community and culture

Contemporary Challenges in Teaching Young Children Gayle Mindes, 2019-09-02 Contemporary Challenges in Teaching Young Children provides both veteran and aspiring early childhood educators with the information and tools they need to build on their understanding of developmentally appropriate practice Teachers face many challenges including family configuration social and political stressors related to accountability requirements funding shortages and the resulting need to teach with fewer resources This innovative book focuses exclusively on problem solving at the classroom level and fosters creative methods of ensuring best practices are in place for all children including those with limited experience in formal social settings and a lack of self regulatory behaviors Drawing on current research and their own wealth of experience expert contributors cover topics from the critical importance of social emotional learning to culturally responsive teaching to using technology to empower teachers and learners Written in accessible non technical language this book addresses complex factors affecting child development guiding readers through the best strategies for tackling real problems in their practice

Community Based Disaster Risk Reduction Rajib Shaw, 2012-03-06 Deals with the topic of Community Based Disaster Risk Reduction CBDRR This book provides an overview of the subject and looks at the role of governments NGOs academics and corporate sectors in community based disaster risk reduction It examines experiences from Asian and African countries

Making Community Connections Connie L. Knapp,Orton Family Foundation. Community Mapping Program,2003
Making Community Connections The Orton Family Foundation Community Mapping Program is designed to bring teams of teachers and their students together with community members to study a problem a resource a condition any matter of interest and importance to the community The school work includes gathering and examining existing information discovering new facts through field investigation and mapping the resource using GIS GPS tools Not only do the students meet and work with community mentors and experts who participate in the classroom and help with the field studies they also typically hold public forums to gather input on the resource and their work At the end of the semester or project the students hold a public forum to present their work in a variety of forms including video conferences speeches and presentations reading of narratives display of hand drawn maps GIS maps etc providing a body of research to the community which can be used to address immediate concerns and help plan for the future The use of the word mapping in the name of the program indicates the importance of and the commitment to the use of GIS GPS mapping technology The Orton Family Foundation Community Mapping Program has found that the use of technology and particularly this mapping technology excites students and provides a powerful incentive to participate However the program this book and place based education in general call for more than just the mapping of resources they entail a more inclusive and integrative look at the world we all live in Invariably the Community Mapping Program makes more clearly visible the connections of the many and varied factors influencing or affecting the particular object of study Concepts of sustainability responsibility integration and the larger picture find their way into classroom discussions and are then mapped in a variety of ways The materials in Making Community Connections have been constructed to provide a solid foundation and flexible framework for original projects created and developed by students their teachers and their communities allowing explorations and investigations of places and problems of interest and concern to them Book jacket Guidebook on Citizen Participation in the Community Development Block Grant Program United States. Office of Community Planning and Development,1979 Indigenous Peoples, Heritage and Landscape in the Asia Pacific Stephen Acabado,Da-wei Kuan,2021-06-30 This book demonstrates how active and meaningful collaboration between researchers and local stakeholders and indigenous communities can lead to the co production of knowledge and the empowerment of communities Focusing on the Asia Pacific region this interdisciplinary volume looks at local and indigenous relations to the landscape showing how applied scholarship and collaborative research can work to empower indigenous and descendant communities With cases ranging across Indonesia Thailand Taiwan the Philippines Cambodia Pohnpei Guam and Easter Island this book demonstrates the many ways in which co production of knowledge is reconnecting local and indigenous relations to the landscape and diversifying the philosophy of human land relations In so doing the book is enriching the knowledge of landscape and changing the landscape of knowledge
