Graphic Design in Museum Exhibitions Jona Piehl, 2020-12-30 Graphic Design in Museum Exhibitions offers an in depth analysis of the multiple roles that exhibition graphics perform in contemporary museums and exhibitions Drawing on a study of exhibitions that took place at the Victoria and Albert Museum London the Museum of London and the Haus der Geschichte Bonn Piehl brings together approaches from museum studies design practice and narrative theory to examine museum exhibitions as multimodal narratives in which graphics account for one set of narrative resources The analysis underlines the importance of aspects such as accessibility and at the same time problematises conceptualisations that focus only on the effectiveness of graphics as display device by drawing attention to the contributions that graphics make towards the content on display and to the ways in which it is experienced in the museum space Graphic Design in Museum Exhibitions argues for a critical reading of and engagement with exhibition graphic design as part of wider debates around meaning making in museum studies and exhibition making practice As such the book should be essential reading for academics researchers and students from the fields of museum and design studies Practitioners such as exhibition designers graphic designers curators and other exhibition makers should also find much to interest them in the book

Visitor-Centered Exhibitions and Edu-Curation in Art Museums Pat Villeneuve, Ann

Rowson Love, 2017-03-17 Visitor Centered Exhibitions and Edu Curation in Art Museums promotes balanced practices that are visitor centered while honoring the integrity and powerful storytelling of art objects. Book examples present best practices that move beyond the turning point where curation and education are engaged in full and equal collaboration. With a mix of theory and models for practice, the book provides a rationale for visitor centered exhibitions, addresses important related issues such as collaboration and evaluation, and presents success stories written by educators, curators, and professors from the United States and Europe. It introduces the edu curator, a new vision for leadership in museums with visitor centered exhibition practices. The book is intended for art museum practitioners including educators, curators, and exhibitions designers as well as higher education faculty and students in art museum education, art history, and museum studies.

Museums, International Exhibitions and China's Cultural Diplomacy Da Kong, 2021-03-31. Museums International Exhibitions and China's Cultural Diplomacy examines the role museums and more specifically international exhibitions have played in shaping China's international image to date. Drawing on theories and methods from museum studies and international relations, the book evaluates the contribution international exhibitions make to China's cultural diplomacy strategy. Considering their impact on the country's international image, Kong also probes the mechanisms and processes involved. Examining in detail the policy of and international activities promoted by the Chinese government, the book also analyses the motives of the Chinese and overseas museums that host these exhibitions. Taking some major exhibitions that were on show in the UK during the 21st century as a representative case study, the book reveals the mechanisms by which these exhibitions were developed and shared overseas. Questioning who really shapes the image of China, Kong challenges Western assumptions and looks ahead to consider whether moving forward the Chinese government and museums could work together in a mutually beneficial way. Museums International Exhibitions and China's Cultural Diplomacy contributes to the growing literature on museums and diplomacy. As such, it will be of interest to academics and students engaged in the study of museums and heritage, international relations, culture politics, China, and wider Asia.

Museums and Centers of Contemporary Art in Central Europe after 1989 Katarzyna Jagodzińska, 2019-07-02. Museums and Centers of Contemporary Art in Central Europe is a comprehensive study of the ecosystem of art museums and centers in the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, and Slovakia. Focusing on institutions founded after 1989, the book analyses a thirty-year boom in art exhibition space in these regions, as well as a range of socio-political influences and curatorial debates that had a significant impact upon their development. Tracing the inspiration for the increase in art institutions and the models upon which these new spaces were based, Jagodzińska offers a unique insight into the history of museums in Central Europe. Providing analysis of a range of issues including private and public patronage, architecture, and changing visions of national museums of art, the book situates these newly founded institutions within their historical, political, and museological contexts. Considering whether and in what ways they can be said to have a shared regional identity that is distinct from institutions elsewhere this valuable contribution paints a picture of the region in its entirety from the perspective of new institutions of art Offering the first comprehensive study on the topic Museums and Centers of Contemporary Art in Central Europe should be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students engaged in the study of museums art history and architecture
