Developing an All-School Model for Elementary Integrative Music Learning Carol E. Reed-Jones,2014-03 The purpose of this study was to investigate the potential for increasing informal music making in elementary school culture and create a model of such music making Precedence for this model can be found in the literature of ethnomusicology educational psychology and learning theory multicultural music education and cultural anthropology Literature from four distinct traditions and contexts of music making in integrative sociocultural

Rethinking Schumann Roe-Min Kok, Laura Tunbridge, 2011-01-19 A provocative re examination of a major romantic composer Rethinking Schumann provides fresh approaches to Schumann's oeuvre and its reception from the perspectives of literature visual arts cultural history performance studies dance and film Traditionally research has focused on biographical links between the composer and his music encouraging the assumption that Schumann was solitary divorced from reality and frequently associated with untimeliness These eighteen new essays argue from a multitude of perspectives that Schumann was in fact very much a man of his time informed not only by music but also the culture and society around him The book further reveals that the composer's reputation has been shaped significantly by for example changes in attitudes towards German romanticism and its history and recent developments in musical scholarship and performance Rethinking Schumann takes into account cultural and social institutional frameworks engages with ongoing and new issues of reception and historiography and offers fresh music analytical insights As a whole the essays assemble a portrait of the artist that reflects the different ways in which Schumann has been understood and misunderstood over the past two hundred years The volume is in short a timely reassessment of this ultimately non untimely figure's legacy While the essays consider some of Schumann's most famous music Dichterliebe Kinderszenen and the Piano Quintet they also provide crucial adjustment to judgments against the composer's later works by explaining their musical features not as the result of diminishing creative capacity but as reflections of the political and social situations of mid nineteenth century German culture and technological developments Schumann is revealed to have been a musician engaged by and responsive to his surroundings whose reputation was formed to a great extent by popular culture both in his own lifetime as he responded to particular poets and painters and later as his life and works were responded to by subsequent generations Music and Cyberliberties Patrick Burkart,2012-01-01 Musicians and music fans are at the forefront of cyberliberties activism a movement that has tried to correct the imbalances that imperil the communal and ritualistic sharing and distribution of music In Music and Cyberliberties Patrick Burkart tracks the migration of music advocacy and anti major label activism since the court defeat of Napster and the ascendancy of the so called Celestial Jukebox model of music e commerce which sells licensed access to music Music and Cyberliberties identifies the groups alternative and radical media activists culture jammers hackers netlabels and critical legal scholars who are pushing back against the copyright grab by major labels for the rights and privileges that were once enjoyed by artists and fans Burkart reflects on the emergence of peer to peer networking as a cause c l bre that helped spark the movement and also lays out the next stages of development for the Celestial Jukebox that would quash it By placing the musical activist groups into the larger context of technology and new social movement theory Music and Cyberliberties offers an exciting new way of understanding the technological and social changes we confront daily Small Musical Worlds in the Mediterranean Avra Pieridou Skoutella,2016-03-03 Small Musical Worlds in the Mediterranean is a pioneering book length study of the complex topics of identity ethnicity and global processes in children s musical lives in the Republic of Cyprus a Mediterranean country during its post colonial era What is it about this country s musical enculturation that made musical identity such a potent element in Greek Cypriot children s worlds How is history tradition modernity ethnic fluidity syncretism and diversification in the Mediterranean negotiated in the construction of musical self and other in children s daily lives This book through a journey of fieldwork at home discusses how children select reject reproduce and transform meanings and create new ones at the micro level of their lives through which individuals and groups define themselves and others Towards this exploration musical identity in childhood is discussed in terms of cultural production and reproduction human expression inter relating and learning Ethnographic vignettes of children s musical practices and direct words add depth and humour to the flow of the book This study is a synthesis of ethnomusicology musical anthropology education and folklore in which the author effectively weaves together theories of musical enculturation and identity sociocultural learning and human agency The book will be invaluable to scholars interested in musical enculturation musical identities children s contextual musical practices ethnicity globalization studies music education and Mediterranean studies
