Search The Scriptures Out Of The Darkness Volume 1:

The Works of William Perkins, Volume 1 William Perkins, 2014-12-29 The present volume contains three of Perkins's treatises. The first is A Digest or Harmony of the Books of the Old and New Testament which offers a synopsis of the Bible that relates sacred history to the chronology of the world. Dating God's creation of the universe in 3967 BC, Perkins develops his overview of redemptive history that culminates in the final judgment. The second treatise is The Combat between Christ and the Devil. Displayed Expounding Matthew 4:1-11, Perkins shows how Christ's temptation in the wilderness 1) set Jesus up to serve as the second Adam, overcoming Satan's temptation in a way the first Adam did not; 2) reveals how the devil assaults the church so that we might be better prepared to resist his temptations; and 3) equipped Christ to be a sympathetic high priest to those who are tempted. The third and most significant treatise is A Godly and Learned Exposition upon Christ's Sermon on the Mount. Hereof, I have chosen to entreat, says Perkins, because it is a most divine and learned sermon and may not unfitly be called the Key to the whole Bible, for here Christ opens the sum of the Old and New Testaments. The fact that Perkins saw the Sermon on the Mount as unlocking the meaning of Scripture in its entirety suggests that his understanding of what Christ declares in Matthew 5:7 was pivotal to the development of his theology and piety. Series Description: The Works of William Perkins fill a major gap in Reformed and Puritan theology. Though Perkins is best known today for his writings on predestination, he also wrote prolifically on many subjects. His works filled over two thousand large pages of small print in three folio volumes and were reprinted several times in the decades after his death. However, his complete works have not been in print since the mid-seventeenth century. This modern typeset edition of the Works includes four volumes of Perkins's expositions of Scripture, three volumes of his doctrinal and polemical treatises, and three volumes of his practical writings.

These sermons constitute the essential points of his beliefs. Many were published by Wesley himself while others were recovered from his manuscripts after his death. While reading these, you will find that his writings are never dry but maintain a vigor of life about them while maintaining a scriptural balance. He strived to reach the everyday man and bring him a living gospel, and this intent is spread throughout his sermons. While Wesley had originally intended to publish a three volume series he went on to add a fourth He desired to reach a larger audience with these printed works than he could with his daily sermons in person and there was also a particular demand for them The four books are comprised of approximately 44 sermons and are contained in volume I of this printing In 1746 he had published the first book of this projected work entitled Sermons on Several Occasions He later went on to add another nine sermons to the series The subsequent books were released in 1748 1750 and 1760 respectively It is important to note that these are by no means the whole of Wesley s written sermons they were merely selected by him for the Christian reader as a kind of standard for his belief of many of the principal points of Christian doctrine and have since become known as the standard sermons In his preface to volume I Wesley himself wrote I have accordingly set down in the following sermons what I find in the Bible concerning the way to heaven with a view to distinguish this way of God from all those which are the inventions of men I have endeavored to describe the true the scriptural experimental religion so as to omit nothing which is a real part thereof and to add nothing thereto which is not Sermons on Several Occasions Volume I Preface For fifty years Wesley had also written numerous sermons and published them in local magazines many of which were printed in cities across England such as London Bristol Dublin and Newcastle upon Tyne With these sermons being placed in the hands of so many printers it was inevitable that they would be printed in a combined publication which was often the case Because of this in his advancing age Wesley decided that he should undertake a reprinting of all of his works enabling him to revise all of his works carefully and also to correct any errors that had arisen In his collected works he elected to print his sermons commentaries notes journals and more producing an impressive thirty two duodecimo volumes the first being published in 1771 and the last in 1774 In the set of sermons that comprised those of the model deed included nine additional lectures that were not previously published bringing the total to 53 These 53 lectures have are in the first volume of this series Depression and Melancholy, 1660-1800 vol 1 Leigh Wetherall Dickson,Allan Ingram,David Walker,Anita O'Connell,Michelle Faubert,2024-08-01 As a psychiatric term depression dates back only as far as the mid nineteenth century Before then a wide range of terms were used melancholy carried enormous weight and was one of the two confirmed forms of eighteenth century insanity This four volume set is the first large scale study of depression across an extensive period From Darkness to Light (Vol. 1) Prabuddha Bharata Compilation, This volume consists of writings by spiritual giants like Swami Vivekananda and his brother disciples and also by the great second generation monks of the Ramakrishna Order like Swami Ranganathananda and Swami Nikhilananda sharing their views on spiritual matters from varying angles Coupled with these there are articles by a few great nationalists of the twentieth century India like Bal Gangadhar Tilak Sri Aurobindo Subhash Chandra Bose S Radhakrishnan and APJ Abdul Kalam Some of the globally reputed names adorn the last section of this volume viz Romain Rolland CG Jung Rabindranath Tagore Dr J C Bose Dalai Lama Sri John Wodroffe and Dr Fritjof Capra to mention a few who have all shared their thoughts on various subjects of the human interest Published by Advaita Ashrama a
