quantified mark the experience of wirelessness and this links directly to James's expanded conception of experience. Wirelessness designates a tendency to make network connections in different times and places using these devices and services. Equally it embodies a sensibility attuned to the proliferation of devices and services that carry information through radio signals. Above all it means heightened awareness of ongoing change and movement associated with networks, infrastructures, location and information. The experience of wirelessness spans several strands of media technological change and Mackenzie moves from wireless cities through signals, devices, networks, maps and products to the global belief in the expansion of wireless worlds. Femina, 2006
