

1. 10 years since the Trojan war ended, Odysseus is being kept on the island of Ogygia by Calypso. Back in Ithaca, Penelope still waits for Odysseus to return, and copes with the suitors who've besieged the palace. Telemachus, despairing, thinks his father is dead. At a council of the Olympian gods, Athene asks Zeus to let Odysseus return home and Zeus agrees. Athene goes to Ithaca in disguise to tell Telemachus he should try to get news of his father. She fills him with strength & confidence. Penelope asks bard to sing something else. Telemachus rebukes his mother and goes to bed, pondering Athene's advice.

2. Telemachus calls an assembly and criticizes the suitors. Antinous criticizes Penelope. Zeus sends an omen and Telemachus secretly leaves, accompanied by Athene disguised as Mentor.

3. Telemachus visits Nestor in Pylos. He finds out about the return home of other Greek warriors, but no news of Odysseus.

4. Telemachus visits Helen and Menelaus in Sparta. They tell him about Odysseus' exploits in Troy, and that his father is still alive. He leaves for Ithaca. Meanwhile, the suitors plan to ambush him.

5. Zeus sends Hermes to order Calypso to release Odysseus. She reluctantly agrees, and he builds a raft and leaves. Before he can reach land, Poseidon destroys his raft. But finally, with the help of Ino and Athene (Ino advises him to remove the clothes weighing him down, leave the raft and 'swim for your life' to Phaeacia, Athene 'checked all the other winds in their courses' and summoned a strong wind to blow him to Phaeacia), he eventually lands and falls asleep.

6. Odysseus has reached the land of the Phaeacians, Scheria. Athene sends a dream to Nausicaa, suggesting she should go down to the river to wash her wedding linens. When there, Nausicaa meets the naked Odysseus.

7. Odysseus is directed to the palace by Athene in disguise, and a detailed description of the palace and gardens shows how special the island is. When Odysseus enters the hall, he begs for help from Queen Arete as advised by Nausicaa. He is well-received by King Alcinous, and is promised transport home. Arete recognises Odysseus' clothes and asks who he is, but he evades the question. They all go to bed.

8. The Phaeacian assembly agrees to take Odysseus home, and everyone goes to the palace for a banquet. The bard Demodocus entertains them. Alcinous sees that Odysseus is upset, so suggests an athletics contest. Odysseus hurls a discus the farthest after being challenged by a Phaeacian. Alcinous introduces dancing, then Demodocus sings of the affair of Ares & Aphrodite. More gifts, dancing & feasting. Odysseus weeps at a song about Troy, and Alcinous finally asks him who he is.

9. Odysseus reveals his identity and tells the story of his adventures with the Cicones, the lotus-eaters, and Polyphemus the Cyclops. As he leaves the blinded cyclops, Odysseus shouts out his real name, thus allowing Polyphemus to call upon his father, Poseidon, to punish/ get revenge on Odysseus.

10. Next in the story, Odysseus arrives at the island of Aeolus and stays for a month. The king gifts him a bag of hostile winds as a parting gift. Just as Odysseus and his men are in sight of Ithaca, the crew, thinking the bag contains money, open it and the ships are blown back to Aeolia, where Aeolus this time send them away saying
