New Argentine Cinema Tauris World Cinema:

New Argentine Cinema Jens Andermann, 2011-11-30 Argentine filmmaking from the mid 1990s to the present has enjoyed worldwide success New Argentine Cinema explores this cinema in order to discover the elements that have made for this success in relation to the country's profound political social and cultural crisis during the same period Jens Andermann shows how the most recent wave of films differs markedly from the Argentine cinema of the preceding decade following the end of the dictatorship in 1983 Studying films by Lisandro Alonso Albertina Carri Lucrecia Martel Raul Perrone Martin Rejtman and Pablo Trapero among others he identifies a shift in aesthetic sensibilities between these directors and those of the previous generation as well as a profound change in the way films are being made and their relation to the audiovisual field at large In combining close comparative analyses with a review of the changing models of production editing actorship and location Andermann uncovers the ways in which Argentine films have managed to construct a complex multilayered account of their own present as shot through or perforated by the still unresolved legacies of the past World Cinema

World Cinema Shekhar Deshpande, Meta Mazaj, 2018-01-17 World Cinema A Critical Introduction is a comprehensive yet accessible guide to film industries across the globe From the 1980s onwards new technologies and increased globalization have radically altered the landscape in which films are distributed and exhibited Films are made from the large scale industries of India Hollywood and Asia to the small productions in Bhutan and Morocco They are seen in multiplexes palatial art cinemas in Cannes traveling theatres in rural India and on millions of hand held mobile screens Authors Deshpande and Mazaj have developed a method of charting this new world cinema that makes room for divergent perspectives traditions and positions while also revealing their interconnectedness and relationships of meaning In doing so they bring together a broad range of issues and examples theoretical concepts viewing and production practices film festivals large industries such as Nollywood and Bollywood and smaller and emerging film cultures into a systemic yet flexible map of world cinema The multi layered approach of this book aims to do justice to the depth dynamism and complexity of the phenomenon of world cinema For students looking to films outside of their immediate context this book offers a blueprint that will enable them to transform a casual encounter with a film into a systematic inquiry into world cinema Theorizing World Cinema Lúcia Nagib, Chris Perriam, Rajinder Dudrah, 2011-11-30 This innovative book is about the place of world cinema in the cultural imaginary It also repositions world cinema in a wider discursive space than is usually the case and treats it as an object of theoretical enquiry rather than as a commercial label The editors and distinguished group of contributors offer a range of approaches and case studies whose organizing principle is the developing idea of polycentrism as applied to cinema They refine and redefine key concepts in film studies including identification and identity narrative and realism allegory and the national project auteurism and the popular art and genre They re evaluate how cinema shapes and responds to the philosophical cultural and political effects of transnationalism and cosmopolitanism in the age of the moving image and explore the interconnectedness of films produced worldwide as well as the links between cinema and other visual cultural forms The contributors include John Caughie Felicia Chan Tiago de Luca Rajinder Dudrah Song Hwee Lim Laura Mulvey Lucia Nagib Geoffrey Nowell Smith Chris Perriam Ashish Rajadhyaksha Paul Julian Smith and Ismail Xavier

Third Cinema, World Cinema and Marxism Ewa Mazierska, Lars Kristensen, 2020-09-17 Third Cinema World Cinema and Marxism offers an analysis of Third Cinema and World Cinema from the perspective of Marxism Its starting point is an observation that of all cinematic phenomena none is as intimately related to Marxism as Third Cinema which decries neoliberalism the capitalist system and the Hollywood model of cinema as mere entertainment to make money This is largely to do with the fact that both Marxism and Third Cinema are preoccupied with inequalities resulting from capital accumulation of which colonialism is the most extreme manifestation Third Cinema also defines cinematic modes in terms of representing interest of different classes with First Cinema expressing imperialist capitalist bourgeois ideas Second Cinema the aspirations of the middle stratum the petit bourgeoisie and Third Cinema is a democratic popular cinema

Impure Cinema Lúcia Nagib, Anne Jerslev, 2013-10-24 Impure Cinema goes back to Bazin's original title precisely for its defence of impurity applying it on the one hand to cinema's interbreeding with other arts and on the other to its ability to convey and promote cultural diversity In contemporary progressive film criticism ideas of purity essence and origin have been superseded by favourable approaches to hybridization transnationalism multiculturalism and cross fertilizations of all sorts Impure Cinema builds on this idea in novel and exciting ways as it draws on cinema's combination of intermedial and intercultural aspects as a means to bridge the divide between studies of aesthetics and culture Film is revealed here as the location par excellence of media encounters mutual questioning and self dissolution into post medium experiments Most importantly the book argues film's intermedial relations can only be properly understood if their cultural determinants are taken into account Scholars and students of film cinefiles and students of the arts will discover here unexpected connections across many artistic practices
