Neutestamentliche Apokryphen Edgar Hennecke,1923 The Acts of Paul and Thecla Jeremy W. Barrier,2009
Sometime in the second century an early Christian text began to circulate called the Acts of Paul and Thecla Since then the tale of the apostle Paul along with his strong heroine co worker named Thecla has received much attention as an independent source of information about earliest Christianity for what it might tell us about the role of women in ministry and the relationship women may have had to Paul in his missionary activities In this volume Jeremy W Barrier provides a critical introduction and commentary on the Acts of Paul and Thecla to serve as a user friendly starting point for anyone interested in entering into the many discussions and academic writings surrounding the Acts of Paul and Thecla Apart from a critical text with English translation followed by textual notes and general comments the author also offers an extensive introduction to the text Studies in Gnosticism and Alexandrian Christianity Roelof van den Broek,2020-10-26 The discovery of the Nag Hammadi Library 1945 has given an enormous impetus not only to the study of ancient Gnosticism but also to that of early Christianity in general Most of the studies contained in this volume deal with mythological conceptions and theological ideas found in various Nag Hammadi writings The gnostic views on the nature of God and on creation and salvation receive particular attention ranging from Philo to the medieval Cathars The Nag Hammadi Library also shed new light on the development of early Alexandrian Christianity and its theology The book contains six studies which explicitly deal with these topics This volume is of interest to students of Gnosticism early Christianity and Graeco Roman religious and philosophical ideas in general Neutestamentliche Apokryphen in Verbindung mit Fachgelehrten in deutscher Übersetzung und Einleitung herausgegeben Edgar (udg.)
