New Directions in Civic Engagement Kathleen Ferraiolo, 2004 Assessing Civic Engagement Dawn Geronimo Terkla, Lisa S. O'Leary, 2015-01-12 How does one assess community service civic engagement and the impact of service learning on a college campus This volume reviews contemporary research measurement instruments and practices in the assessment of civic engagement in higher education including meta analyses of students faculty institutions and higher education systems at large targeted case studies of campus specific practices at individual institutions efficient and effective ways to gauge the influence of civic engagement on higher education policy practices and outcomes and quantitative and qualitative approaches to measuring the effort importance of and impact of students and institutions involvement in community service community engagement civic engagement and service learning on a college campus The research ranges between decisions made either as part of institutional agendas curricular enhancements or student life initiatives and student and professor involvement in civic engagement activities and supportive attitudes This is the 162nd volume of this Jossey Bass quarterly report series Timely and comprehensive New Directions for Institutional Research provides planners and administrators in all types of academic institutions with guidelines in such areas as resource coordination information analysis program evaluation and institutional management Civic Engagement and Community Service at Research Universities Krista M. Soria, Tania D. Mitchell, 2016-06-01 This book outlines how undergraduate students engage with civic and community projects and how this can be encouraged by their universities It also explores how universities can build on this involvement and develop undergraduates civic and democratic capacities including programmatic strategies and conceptual frameworks for understanding the students activities As higher education across the globe experiences increasing student numbers it is important to understand how students engage with civic and community service Becoming an Engaged Campus Carole A. Beere, James C. Votruba, Gail W. Wells, 2011-04-05 Becoming an Engaged Campus offers campus leaders a systematic and detailed approach to creating an environment where public engagement can grow and flourish The book explains not only what to do to expand community engagement and how to do it but it also explores how to document evaluate and communicate university engagement efforts Praise for Becoming an Engaged Campus This provocative yet exceedingly practical book looks at all of the angles and lays bare the opportunities and barriers for campus community engagement while providing detailed pathways toward change This comprehensive treatise marks a significant shift in the literature from the what and why of public engagement to the how It is simply superb KEVIN KECSKES associate vice provost for engagement Portland State University Becoming an Engaged Campus is an essential guidebook for university leaders It details the specific ways that campuses must align all aspects of the institution if they are to be successful in the increasingly important work of community outreach and engagement GEORGE L MEHAFFY vice president for academic leadership and change American Association of State Colleges and Universities Most colleges and universities make the rhetorical claim of community engagement this book is an excellent primer on how to transform the rhetoric into reality The authors do not speak in abstract terms They describe the specific structures policies and programs that have made Northern Kentucky University a national model of how a large urban university can transform its impact on the region it is supposed to serve WILLIAM E KIRWAN chancellor University System of Maryland Service Learning in Higher Education Phylis Lan Lin,2009-02-25 Service Learning has proved to be a powerful and practical methodology and tool with far reaching implications Benefits have included increased civic engagement enhanced sense of purpose greater feeling of fulfillment nurtured creativity and promotion of problem solving skills and social responsibility as traditional classrooms have moved to the communities and students have become service providers and learners The papers in this book span a good part of the globe and cover a wide application spectrum from health care business administration nursing occupational therapy and speech and language therapy to gerontology and food service Extended models and prototypes explored include community engaged learning long distance learning and the bridge between older and younger students In addition to current perspectives and numerous revealing case studies with local communities and international service learning projects thirty chapters and a reflection paper are devoted to documenting lessons learning assessing service learning programs identifying new challenges and tapping into the emerging paradigms in service learning Community Engagement in Higher Education W. James Jacob,Stewart E. Sutin,John C. Weidman,John L. Yeager,2015-06-17 There seems to be renewed interest in having universities and other higher education institutions engage with their communities at the local national and international levels But what is community engagement Even if this interest is genuine and widespread there are many different concepts of community service outreach and engagement The wide range of activity encompassed by community engagement suggests that a precise definition of the community mission is difficult and organizing and coordinating such activities is a complex task This edited volume includes 18 chapters that explore conceptual understandings of community engagement and higher education reforms and initiatives intended to foster it Contributors provide empirical research findings including several case study examples that respond to the following higher education community engagement issues What is the community and what does it need and expect from higher education institutions Is community engagement a mission of all types of higher education institutions or should it be the mission of specific institutions such as regional or metropolitan universities technical universities community colleges or indigenous institutions while other institutions such as major research universities should concentrate on national and global research agendas and on educating internationally competent researchers and professionals How can a university be global and at the same time locally relevant Is it or should it be left to the institutions to determine the scope and mode of their community engagement or is a state mandate preferable and feasible If community engagement or community service are mandatory what are the consequences of not complying with the mandate How effective are policy mandates and university engagement for regional and local economic development

What are the principal features and relationships of regionally engaged universities Is community engagement to be left to faculty members and students who are particularly socially engaged and locally embedded or is it or should it be made mandatory for both faculty and students How can community engagement be better integrated with the other two traditional missions of the university research and teaching Cover image The Towering Four fold Mission of Higher Education by Natalie Jacob
