Museum Bodies The Politics And Practices Of Visiting And Viewing:

Museum Bodies Helen Rees Leahy, 2016-04-15 Museum Bodies provides an account of how museums have staged prescribed and accommodated a repertoire of bodily practices from their emergence in the eighteenth century to the present day As long as museums have existed their visitors have been scrutinised both formally and informally and their behaviour calibrated as a register of cognitive receptivity and cultural competence Yet there has been little sustained theoretical or practical attention given to the visitors embodied encounter with the museum In Museum Bodies Helen Rees Leahy discusses the politics and practice of visitor studies and the differentiation and exclusion of certain bodies on the basis of for example age gender educational attainment ethnicity and disability At a time when museums are more than ever concerned with size demographic mix and the diversity of their audiences as well as with the ways in which visitors engage with and respond to institutional space and content this wide ranging study of visitors embodied experience of the museum is long overdue

City, Public Space, and Body Mahsa Alami Fariman, Chien Lee, Ahmadreza Hakiminejad, Asma Mehan, 2025-11-18 City Public Space and Body offers a timely and interdisciplinary examination of how bodies experience shape and are shaped by urban life particularly in the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic Bringing together contributions from scholars artists and practitioners across diverse geographies the book explores the entangled relationships between urban space embodiment and publicness through a variety of methodological lenses including ethnography visual and performative arts and critical urban theory The book highlights underexplored themes such as gendered vulnerability spatial justice post pandemic public space and marginalized urban bodies in both Global North and Global South contexts By focusing on lived experience and embodied methodologies the book challenges dominant urban narratives and contributes fresh perspectives on space care power and resistance It will benefit readers seeking to rethink cities not merely as physical or functional entities but as affective and contested terrains of social life Designed for researchers students and professionals in urban studies sociology planning architecture gender studies and cultural geography this collection foregrounds the bodily and sensory dimensions of urban encounters spatial politics and everyday life The Anatomy Museum Elizabeth Hallam, 2008 Anatomy museums around the world showcase preserved corpses in service of education and medical advancement but they are little known and have been largely hidden from the public eye Elizabeth Hallam here investigates the anatomy museum and how it reveals the fascination and fears that surround the dead body in Western societies Hallam explores the history of these museums and how they operate in the current cultural environment Their regulated access increasingly clashes with evolving public mores toward the exposed body as demonstrated by the international popularity of the Body Worlds exhibition The book examines such related topics as artistic works that employ the images of dead bodies and the larger ongoing debate over the disposal of corpses Issues such as aesthetics and science organ and body donations and the dead body in Western religion and ritual are also discussed here in fascinating depth The Anatomy Museum unearths a strange and compelling cultural history that investigates the ideas of preservation human rituals of death and the spaces that our bodies occupy in this life and beyond

Analysing Museum Display Christopher Whitehead, 2024-09-30 Analysing Museum Display is the first comprehensive book to bring together approaches to studying museum displays Drawing on global examples it reviews different theoretical frameworks and methods charting major contributions to the field and exploring their potentials and limitations How and why should we study museum display and what is its nature as a complex form of representation The book argues that display is at once material experiential and political in producing knowledge and that analysis requires rigorous conceptualisation and careful methodologies It provides a critical guide to existing concepts and methods exploring how museum display can be understood using semiotic narrative cartographic and spatial analyses assemblage theory new materialist and multisensory approaches and theories of affect emotion and historical positioning Alongside this Whitehead presents key orientations for research practice relating to objectivity and subjectivity historical and contextual awareness and mixing methods Analysing Museum Display will be essential reading for scholars and students of museology at all levels The book will also appeal to museum curators and professionals who are involved in the production of displays and wish to develop a more theorised and reflective perspective on their own practice Women and museums 1850-1914 Kate Hill, 2016-07-01

This book recovers the significant contribution made by women to museums not just in obvious roles such as workers but also as donors visitors volunteers and patrons It suggests that women persistently acted to domesticate the museum by importing domestic objects and domestic regimes of value as well as by making museums more welcoming to children and even by stressing the importance of housekeeping at the museum At the same time women sought masculine careers in science and curatorship but found such aspirations hard to achieve their contribution tended to be kept within clear feminised areas The book will be of interest to those working on gender culture or museums in the period It sheds new light on women's material culture and material strategies education and professional careers and leisure practices It will form an important historical context for those working in contemporary museum studies Socializing Art Museums

Alejandra Alonso Tak, Ángel Pazos-López, 2020-08-24 Art museums today face the challenge of opening themselves up as institutions to a changing society This publication offers new perspectives on museological trends that are developing in various countries and cultures Through increasingly flexible inclusive and unexpected museum typologies institutions aim to give their visitors greater access to art The essays define the role of the museum as a medium of social change as a protagonist in an education process and as a technologically innovative platform Art historians but also practitioners from the museum world including curators architects and psychologists examine what is expected of art museums using case studies and against the background of the humanities and social sciences Transcultural Italies Charles Burdett, Loredana Polezzi, Barbara Spadaro, 2020-12-01 The history of Italian culture stems from multiple experiences of mobility and migration which have produced a range of narratives inside and outside Italy This collection interrogates the dynamic nature of Italian identity and culture focussing on the concepts and practices of mobility memory and translation It adopts a transnational perspective offering a fresh approach to the study of Italy and of Modern Languages The International Handbooks of Museum Studies, 4 Volume Set Sharon Macdonald, Helen Rees Leahy, 2015-07-20 The International Handbooks of Museum Studies is a multi volume reference work that represents a state of the art survey of the burgeoning field of museum studies Featuring original essays by leading international museum experts and emerging scholars readings cover all aspects of museum theory practice debates and the impact of technologies The four volumes in the series divided thematically offer in depth treatment of all major issues relating to museum theory historical and contemporary museum practice mediations in art design and architecture and the transformations and challenges confronting the museum In addition to invaluable surveys of current scholarship the entries include a rich and diverse panoply of examples and original case studies to illuminate the various perspectives Unprecedented for its in depth topic coverage and breadth of scholarship the multi volume International Handbooks of Museum Studies is an indispensable resource for the study of the development roles and significance of museums in contemporary society Secular Bodies, Affects and Emotions Monique Scheer, Nadia Fadil, Birgitte Schepelern Johansen, 2019-01-10 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Taking its cue from the study of lived religion Secular Bodies Affects and Emotions shows how the idea of a secular public is equally marked by a display and cultivation of affect and emotions Whereas it is widely agreed that religion is often saturated by emotion the secular is usually treated as a neutral background serving as the domain of public rational deliberation This book demonstrates that secularity and secularism are also upheld by bodily practices and emotional attachments Drawing on empirical case studies this is the first book to ask and explore whether a secular body exists Building on the work of Talal Asad the book argues that the secular is not an absence of religion but a positive entity that comes about through its co constitutive relationship with religion And once we attune ourselves to recognizing its operations as grammar which structures social practice writing an anthropology of the secular
