Media and Technology in 21st Century Higher and Tertiary Education in Africa Costain Tandi, 2023-09-30 This book interrogates media and technology in the 21st century higher and tertiary education in Africa Using Zimbabwe as its case study the book highlights the immense changes that the digital revolution has brought to higher institutions of learning in Africa including changes in teaching and learning Framed from an anti colonial perspective the book argues that digital change though critical in revolutionising education in Africa has come with a price as it has resulted in some epistemological erasures and injustices meted against the poor The book makes a critical contribution as it quests to correct the misdemeanours and injustices caused by digital gaps in African societies The authors argue that the future and success of digital technology in Africa lie in how well African countries will culturally and contextually sensor technology and attend to the problems caused by digital gaps The book provides a re invigorated overview and nuanced analyses of the role of media and technology in revolutionising 21st century higher and tertiary education in Africa It provides pointers and insights on how African countries can reformulate their education policy in a manner that is in sync with the level of digital technology of the time This is an important addition to critical debates on media and technology studies in education in Africa Facets of Power ,2023-01-10 The diamond fields of Chiadzwa among the world s largest sources of rough diamonds have been at the centre of struggles for power in Zimbabwe since their discovery in 2006 Against the backdrop of a turbulent political economy control of Chiadzwa s diamonds was hotly contested By 2007 a new case of blood diamonds had emerged in which the country s security forces engaged with informal miners and black market dealers in the exploitation of rough diamonds violently disrupting local communities and looting a key national resource The formalisation of diamond mining in 2010 introduced new forms of large scale theft displacement and rights abuses Facets of Power is the first comprehensive account of the emergence meaning and profound impact of Chiadzwa s diamonds Drawing on new fieldwork and published sources the contributors present a graphic and accessibly written narrative of corruption and greed as well as resistance by those who have suffered at the hands of the mineral s secretive and violent beneficiaries If the lessons of resistance have been mostly disheartening ones they also point towards more effective strategies for managing public resources and mounting democratic challenges to elites whose power is sustained by preying on them Religion and Development in Southern and Central Africa: Vol 1 N. Amanze, Maake Masango, 2019-12-09 This book is a result of a joint conference which was held from 18th 22nd July 2017 under the theme Religion Citizenship and Development Southern African Perspectives The theme of the conference was adopted in order to underline the importance and significance of religion in the socio economic development of people in the world generally and in Southern and Central Africa in particular The papers in the book are divided into two volumes Volume one consists of papers which directly discuss religion and development in one form or another The second volume contains papers that discuss religion and other pertinent issues related to development The papers are grouped into sub themes for ease of reference These include Citizenship and Development Migration and Development Disability and Development Pentecostal Churches and Development and Religion and Society All in all despite a divergence of sub themes in volume two all point to issues to do with the role of religion in development in Southern and Central Africa today

Facets of Power Richard Saunders, Tinashe Nyamunda, 2016-04-18 The diamond fields of Chiadzwa among the worlds largest sources of rough diamonds have been at the centre of struggles for power in Zimbabwe since their discovery in 2006 Against the backdrop of a turbulent political economy control of Chiadzwas diamonds was hotly contested By 2007 a new case of blood diamonds had emerged in which the countrys security forces engaged with informal miners and black market dealers in the exploitation of rough diamonds violently disrupting local communities and looting a key national resource The formalisation of diamond mining in 2010 introduced new forms of large scale theft displacement and rights abuses Facets of Power is the first comprehensive account of the emergence meaning and profound impact of Chiadzwas diamonds Drawing on new fieldwork and published sources the contributors present a graphic and accessibly written narrative of corruption and greed as well as resistance by those who have suffered at the hands of the minerals secretive and violent beneficiaries If the lessons of resistance have been mostly disheartening ones they also point towards more effective strategies for managing public resources and mounting democratic challenges to elites whose power is sustained by preying on them Parade

Educational Reform and the Transformation of Southern Africa Dickson Mungazi, L. K. Walker, 1997-06-18 The political social and economic problems of southern Africa cannot be resolved until nations of this critical region effect educational reform But this process requires more than change in the educational system it involves the thrust for social transformation in national institutions This unique study addresses key issues relative to both educational reform and social change in southern Africa Topics discussed include the need for educational reform approaches to educational reform and the results of such reform on the individual and society A bibliography and an index complete the text Teacher in Zimbabwe, 1993
