My Canadian Journal 18721878:

My Canadian Journal 1872-8 Harriot Georgina Blackwood Marchioness of Dufferin and Ava, 1891 My Canadian Journal, 1872-'78 Harriot Georgina Hamilton-Temple-Blackwood marchioness of Dufferin and Ava, 1891 My Canadian Companion to Canadian Literature Eva-Marie Kröller, 2004-02-05 This book offers a comprehensive and engaging introduction to major writers genres and topics in Canadian literature Contributors pay attention to the social political and economic developments that have informed literary events Broad surveys of fiction drama and poetry are complemented by chapters on Aboriginal writing francophone writing autobiography literary criticism writing by women and the emergence of urban writing in a country traditionally defined by its regions Also discussed are genres that have a special place in Canadian literature such as nature writing exploration and travel writing and short fiction The Journal of Education, 1892 The Sporting Scots of Nineteenth-century Canada Gerald Redmond, 1982 This book examines the role of the Scots in the development of Canadian sport The evidence from the wide range of primary and secondary sources cited by the author proves that the Scottish contribution was significant Victor and Evie Dorothy Anne Phillips, 2017-11-07 The experiences of a governor general and his family in the early twentieth century revealed through recently released letters and diaries Politics and Society Peter Gordon, 2006-02-16 Louisa Mary Lady Knightley of Fawnsley was a woman of unusually wide interests especially in the field of public affairs In an age when few opportunities arose for women to make a contribution to political and feminist matters Lady Knightley was an early pioneer of both causes Denied the vote as a woman she was a leading advocate of the campaign for constitutional non militant action to achieve the franchise a cause which she continued to espouse until her death in 1913 Her later journals written with warmth and humour provide a fascinating picture of politics and society in England at a time of crucial change Her journals provide many insights into rural politics following the Reform Acts of 1884 and 1885 A Gentlewoman in Upper Canada Anne Langton, 2008-01-01 First published in 1950 A Gentlewoman in Upper Canada is a classic work of early pioneering literature This new significantly expanded edition includes many of Langton s original illustrations and reveals Langton s views on writing art and women s social and familial roles in nineteenth century Europe and Canada Contact and Conflict Robin Fisher, 2011-11-01 Originally published in 1977 Contact and Conflict has remained an important book which has inspired numerous scholars to examine further the relationships between the Indians and the Europeans fur traders as well as settlers For this edition Robin Fisher has written a new introduction in which he surveys the literature since 1977 and comments on any new insights into these relationships Fisher contends that the fur trade had originally brought minimal cultural change to the Indians In 1858 it essentially came to an end and with the beginning of white settlement there was a fundamental change in the relationship between Indians and Europeans What had been a reciprocal system between the two civilizations became a pattern of white dominance He shows that while the Indians had been able to adjust gradually to the changes introduced by the traders in the contact period

they lost control of their culture under the impact of colonization
