Music Text And Translation:

Music, Text and Translation Helen Julia Minors, 2013-05-23 Explores the roles that translation plays in a musical context questioning the transference of sense between music and text

Music, Dance and Translation Helen Julia Minors, 2023-10-05 How is music affected by its translation interpretation and adaptation with through and by dance How might notation of dance and music act as a form of translation How does music influence the creation of dance How might dance and music be understood to exchange and transfer their content sense and process during both the creative process and the interpretative process Bringing together chapters that explore theory and practice this book questions the process and role translation has to play in the context of music and dance It provides a range of case studies across this interdisciplinary field and is not restricted by genre style or cultural location As one of very few volumes to explore translation in relation to music and to overtly tackle this topic in terms of dance it moves the argument from a broad notion of text and translation to think critically about the sound and movement arts of music and dance using translation as a model to better understand the collaboration of these art forms

Song Translation: Lyrics in Contexts Johan Franzon, Annjo K. Greenall, Sigmund Kvam, Anastasia Parianou, 2021-02-01 Song Translation Lyrics in Contexts grew out of a project dedicated to the translation of song lyrics The book aligns itself with the tradition of descriptive translation studies Its authors scholars from Finland Great Britain Greece Italy Norway and Sweden all deal with the translation of song lyrics in a great variety of different contexts including music and performance settings inter cultural perspectives and historical backgrounds On the one hand the analyses demonstrate the breadth and diversity of the concept of translation itself on the other they show how different contexts set up conditions that shape translational practices and products in different ways The book is intended for translation studies scholars as well as for musicologists students of language and or music and practicing translators in short anybody interested in this creative and fascinating field of translational practice

Music and Translation Lucile Desblache, 2019 This book explores how transformations and translations shape musical meanings developments and the perception of music across cultures Starting with the concept of music as multimodal text the author understands translation as the process of transferring a text from one language verbal or not into another interlingually intralingually or intersemiotically as well as the products that are derived from this process She situates music and translation within their contemporary global context examining the tensions between local and global cosmopolitan and national and universal and specific settings to arrive at a celebration of the translational power of music and an in depth study of how musical texts are translated This book will be of interest to translation studies scholars who want to broaden their horizons as well as to musicians and music scholars seeking to understand how cultural exchange and dissemination can be driven by translation Lucile Desblache is Professor of Translation and Transcultural Studies at the University of Roehampton UK She studied both musicology and comparative literature This is reflected in her research interests which are twofold the representation of the non human in contemporary cultures on the one hand and the translation of musical texts on the other
