Teaching about the Middle East Social Studies School Service,2002 Reconciling Islam, Christianity and Judaism Terence Lovat,Robert Crotty,2015-02-23 At the present time when so called Islamic radicalism terrorism and Jihadism occupy major media space with Islam often depicted as the main culprit the book attempts a tour de force It proposes that Islam is as much victim as culprit in the history that has led to the current hostility This is because the common claims of both mainstream and radical Islam that Islam represents the high point of the Abrahamic tradition and therefore a purification of Judaism and Christianity have been largely ignored misunderstood or blatantly rejected by these faiths and therefore by the West in general This rejection has effectively rendered Islam as the poor cousin if not the illegitimate sibling of the tradition In turn this has created long term resentment and hostility within Islam as well as robbed the Judaeo Christian West of a rich inter faith understanding of the wider Abrahamic tradition The book explores these claims through textual historical and theological analyses proposing that many of them stand up better to critical scrutiny than has been commonly acknowledged It further proposes that seeing Islam in this way has potential to re awaken its self understanding as a leader of accord among the Abrahamic faiths of the kind that characterized the era of Convivencia when in medieval Spain Islam constructed and contributed to advanced civilizations characterized by relatively harmonious co existence between Muslims Christians and Jews The book focuses on the role that a more respected and self confident Islam could play in forging enhanced inter faith relations in a world that desperately needs them as it struggles to understand and deal with modern and particularly vicious forms of radical Islamism Routledge International Handbook of Multicultural Education Research in Asia Pacific Yun-Kyung Cha,Seung-Hwan Ham,Moosung Lee,2018-03-28 This handbook for educators and researchers consists of an unparalleled set of conceptual essays and empirical studies that advance new perspectives and build empirical ground on multicultural education issues from 10 different selected societies in Asia Pacific This unique edited book will be a solid resource particularly for graduate students educators and researchers involved in multicultural education given its multiple balances in terms of 1 conceptual essays empirical studies and practical implications 2 contributions from emerging scholars established scholars and leading scholars in the field and 3 comprehensive coverage of key subareas in multicultural education Given the growing need for in depth understanding of multicultural education issues in the Asia Pacific region where we have witnessed increasing human mobility and interaction across countries and societies this edited book is the only research based handbook entirely focusing on multicultural education in Asia Pacific Teaching Interculturally in Qatar Wisam Kh.
