Muslim Zion Pakistan As A Political Idea:

Muslim Zion Faisal Devji, 2013 Originally published London C Hurst Co Publishers Ltd 2013 Law and Muslim Political Thought in Late Colonial North India Adeel Hussain, 2022 Muhammad Iqbal and Muhammad Ali Jinnah developed their crucial political ideas in the 1930s They used India to test out how law could be used to settle political conflicts how theological concepts could be politicized and how to speak to an increasingly hostile All India National Congress This book maps this development Sufi Shrines and the Pakistani State Umber Bin Ibad, 2018-12-21 After the creation of Pakistan in 1947 Sufi shrines became highly contested Considered deviant and un-Islamic they soon fell under government control as part of a state led strategy to create an official more unified Islamic identity This book the first to address the political history of Sufi shrines in Pakistan explores the various ways in which the postcolonial state went about controlling their activities Of key significance Umber Bin Ibad shows was the West Pakistan Waqf Properties Ordinance a governmental decree issued in 1959 Formed when General Ayub Khan assumed the role of Chief Martial Law Administrator this allowed the state to take over shrines as waqf property According to Islamic law a waqf or charitable endowment had to be used for charitable or religious purposes and the state created a separate Auqaf department to control the finances and activities of all the shrines which were now under a state sponsored waqf system Focusing on the Punjab famous for its large number of shrines the book is based on extensive primary research including newspapers archival sources interviews court records and the official reports of the Auqaf department At a time when Sufi shrines are being increasingly targeted by Islamist extremists who view Sufism as heretical this book sheds light on the shrines contentious historical relationship with the state An original contribution to South Asian Studies the book will also be relevant to scholars of Colonial and Post Colonial History and Sufism Studies Place and Postcolonial Ecofeminism Shazia Rahman, 2019-08-01 While news reports about Pakistan tend to cover Taliban attacks and bombings and academics focus on security issues the environment often takes a backseat in media reportage and scholarship In particular Pakistani women's attachment to their environment and their environmental concerns are almost always ignored Shazia Rahman traces the ways in which Pakistani women explore alternative environmental modes of belonging examines the vitality of place based identities within Pakistani culture and thereby contributes to evolving understandings of Pakistani women in relation to both their environment and to various discourses of nation and patriarchy Through an astute analysis of such works as Sabiha Sumar's Khamosh Pani 2003 Mehreen Jabbar's Ramchand Pakistani 2008 Sorayya Khan's Noor 2006 Uzma Aslam Khan's Trespassing 2003 and Kamila Shamsie's Burnt Shadows 2009 Rahman illuminates how Pakistani women's creative works portray how people live with one another deal with their environment and intuit their relationship with the spiritual She considers how literary and cinematic documentation of place based identities simultaneously critiques and counters stereotypes of Pakistan as a country of religious nationalism and oppressive patriarchy Rahman's analysis discloses fresh perspectives for thinking about the relationship between social and environmental justice

Routledge Handbook on Islam in Asia Chiara

Formichi, 2021-09-30 The Routledge Handbook on Islam in Asia offers both new and established scholarship on Muslim societies and religious practices across Asia from a variety of interdisciplinary angles with chapters covering South Central East and Southeast Asia as well as Africa Asia connections Presenting work grounded in archival literary and ethnographic inquiry contributors to this handbook lend their expertise to paint a picture of Islam as deeply connected to and influenced by Asia often by passing or reversing relationships of power and authority that have placed Arab Islam in a hierarchically superior position vis vis Asia This handbook is structured in four parts each representing an emergent area of inquiry Frames Authority and authorizing practices Muslim spatialities Imaginations of piety Dislodging ingrained assumptions that Asia is at the periphery of Islam and that Islam is at the periphery of Asia s cultural matrix this handbook sets an agenda against the center periphery dichotomy as well as the syncretism paradigm that has dominated conversations on Islam in Asia It thus demonstrates possibilities for new scholarly approaches to the study of Islam within the Asian context This ground breaking handbook is a valuable resource to students and scholars of Asian studies religious studies and cultural studies more broadly

Rethinking Islamism beyond jihadi violence Elisa Orofino, 2023-05-23 For several years now Islamism has been associated with jihadism and violent extremism both in academia and in contemporary political debates However this association can be misleading Islamism has much deeper roots than jihadi terrorism and it stands as a powerful and complex ideology inspiring thoughts actions and groups all over the world Emerging as a protest for justice ideology claiming freedom against Western colonisation of the Muslim world Islamism has triggered both individuals and groups worldwide since the early 1900s Almost as a sacred ideology based on the need to revive Islam as the only saving grace for Muslims around the world Islamism started to be widely associated with jihadism after 9 11 Before then Islamism was not automatically related to terrorism but to resistance Given that terrorists are only a small and definite portion of Islamists this volume aims to re focus research on Islamism beyond jihadism by collecting relevant contributions on Islamist but non violent organisations More precisely this volume innovatively contributes to current academic debates by exploring the origins of Islamism and the differences between jihadism the evolution of Islamism over time and places and the role played by the most influential non jihadist Islamist organisations active today as powerful non state actors

Revisiting India's Partition Amritjit Singh, Nalini

Iyer, Rahul K. Gairola, 2016-06-15 Revisiting India s Partition New Essays on Memory Culture and Politics brings together scholars from across the globe to provide diverse perspectives on the continuing impact of the 1947 division of India on the eve of independence from the British Empire The Partition caused a million deaths and displaced well over 10 million people The trauma of brutal violence and displacement still haunts the survivors as well as their children and grandchildren Nearly 70 years after this cataclysmic event Revisiting India s Partition explores the impact of the Long Partition a concept developed by Vazira Zamindar to underscore the ongoing effects of the 1947 Partition upon all South Asian nations In our collection we extend and expand Zamindar's notion of the Long Partition to examine the cultural political economic and psychological impact the Partition continues to have on communities throughout the South Asian diaspora. The nineteen interdisciplinary essays in this book provide a multi-vocal multi-focal transnational commentary on the Partition in relation to motifs, communities and regions in South Asia that have received scant attention in previous scholarship. In their individual essays, contributors offer new engagements on South Asia in relation to several topics including decolonization and post-colony economic development and nation building, cross-border skirmishes and terrorism and nationalism. This book is dedicated to covering areas beyond Punjab and Bengal and includes analyses of how Sindh and Kashmir, Hyderabad and more broadly South India, the Northeast and Burma call for special attention in coming to terms with memory, culture and politics surrounding the Partition.

Theorizing a Bengali Nation Sucharita Sen, 2024-06-07. This book explores the philosophical and political roots of the United Bengal movement of 1947 that emerged as a final bid to keep the province united against Partition. Through Abul Hashim, one of its architects, it explores the idea of an independent Bengali nation in the years preceding Independence and examines the underlying tensions of the concept of a Muslim-led independent Bangladesha and its repercussions on a sizeable Hindu minority. Focusing on Hashim's writings and political contributions, this monograph highlights his vision of an aesthetic identity rooted within religious principles as well as civic ideals in a new united Bengal where common law underwritten through religious ideals did not need to be necessarily opposed to western discourses of a modern state. A major new intervention, this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of modern Indian history, especially the Partition politics and South Asian studies.

Islamic Banking in Pakistan Feisal Khan, 2015-12-22. Islamic Banking and Finance (IBF) has become a growing force over the past three decades with Pakistan being one of the IBF pioneers by converting to an interest-free banking system in 1985. However, since independence in 1947, there has been continual tension over Pakistan's essential character between Islamic Minimalists who favour a Modernist interpretation of Islam and those who favour an Islamic Maximalist interpretation that sees Pakistan as a model Islamic state. This book analyses the push to Islamize Pakistan and its financial system by Islamic revivalists following the early 1947 debates in the original Constituent Assembly to the final 2002 ruling on IBF of the Shariat Appellate Bench of the Pakistan Supreme Court. It examines the practice and theory behind contemporary Islamic Shariah-compliant banking. It offers extensive interviews with Pakistani Islamic bankers on the state of their industry and how they see it developing and provides analysis on how the Islamic banks' customers differ from those of conventional ones. Presenting a critical analysis of Pakistan's IBF experience and offering a new insight into Pakistan's banking industry that illustrates broader political and social trends in the country, this book will be of interest to specialists on Islam, South Asia and International Economics.
